MOTHER OF GOD
HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Reflection

Mary: Ever Faithful Servant. Remnant of Israel. Bearer of the Covenant. She who believed that the promise made to her would be fulfilled. One would imagine there would be more said about this woman, but the opposite is true. The only reference to Mary can be found in two places: In the beginning of the Gospels and at the end. Mary's significance lay not so much on what was written about her, but rather how little is said of her. Silence is what makes Mary significant. Her importance lay in her faithfulness. Despite all the odds in her life, what speaks to us is her ability to hear God's word. Her selfless nature lay in her willingness to follow where God was leading her, not for its own sake, not for her sake, but for God's sake. Mary's whole life is grounded in God. This does not infer that life was any easier for her. She was not simply a passive instrument of God. She did not have all the answers of life at her disposal any more than we do. Even the Mother of God had to die to herself in order to be raised up by God to become his mother. She had to struggle with what it meant to be called by God. She too was invited to hear God's word and believe in it with her life: ... and Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart (Luke 2).

Mary knew how to accept gifts. How different it is with ourselves. Receiving gifts is such an obstacle for many of us because we relegate the receiving of a gift as something we need to reciprocate or count the cost and the demands that it may place upon our lives. Mary knew the value of receiving gifts. She knew God's gifts are always free. Mary knew intimately the giver of all gifts and how to let God fill her up with good things. Mary above all realized in her littleness and the one who makes her great. Her splendor lay not merely in submitting to God, but surrendering herself to him. There is a difference. One, merely gives-in to the inevitable; the other takes responsibility for one's life, decisions, and choices. It is a matter of giving God the will to do what God so much wants to accomplish in us, and this is precisely what is amplified so clearly in Mary's life. Full of grace, this Mother of God is naturally assumed into the life that she has freely chosen. God literally filled her with his life, giving birth to God himself. All too often we are filled too, but not so much with God as with ourselves relegating to him the left over's, which many times leaves very little room for God in our lives.

Today like Mary, we stand between heaven and earth awaiting God ... to let his face shine upon us and be gracious to us ... (Numbers 6). She is the one who gives us the faith to ready our hearts for the gift of Motherhood and Fatherhood. Like Mary, our holiness lay not outside ourselves, but from within. God enters into our hearts and lives, each time we allow him into our home. He comes when we humanly surrender to him ... so we are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then also an heir, through God (Galatians 4). Holiness does not guarantee we will not face the challenges of life, but what it does is make hard and difficult moments redeemable. An avenue by which the shadows, doubts, and pain we experience are transformed so they do not overcome us. The challenge Mary faced was the impetuosity to enter into the soul of God's will in her life and to discover that all things are possible with God. She is the model, the symbol, the example, the pattern of life, the paradigm of what we are called to be and become. She has gone before us and we only need to follow her into heart of God.

Happy New Year!
Father Michael-Dwight

New Year's Resolutions

New Year Resolutions have a very long history dating to 153 B.C. Janus, a mythical king of early Rome was placed at the head of the calendar. With two faces, Janus could look back on past events and forward to the future. Janus became the ancient symbol for resolutions and many Romans looked for forgiveness from their enemies and also exchanged gifts before the beginning of each year.

Today most of us still make resolutions for the New Year. Sometimes the promises are made in jest and other times we give serious thought about the year unfolding before us. Perhaps there is something worth pondering about this whole idea of New Year's Resolutions simply because there appears to be something bigger which lay behind this ancient tradition: The belief that we can always re-create ourselves anew. There are of course, many things about ourselves and circumstances we cannot change, but one of the joys of being human is the capacity for self-recreation. January is a time for new beginnings, for starting over. Each New Year is the reminder that we can start over again.

Each new day of the New Year we can choose to redefine our lives. We can choose the definition we are going to give ourselves today: The dark definition, the light definition, the positive definition, the negative definition. We can create ourselves each moment by the choices we make and the attitudes we bring to any situation. New Year's Resolutions are a reminder of this very simple, but human fact. Often we are taught to "keep our resolutions to ourselves." This might be more important than we think. Our relationship to ourselves is very fragile and sacred. It needs to be protected and nourished in silence and in solitude. There is a wonderful expression, Keep your own counsel. The New Year is a good time for this kind of self-counsel and activity that overlaps into prayer with God. The New Year and winter does have its purpose in our lives. It is not only a time for communion with one's self and communion with God, but the New Year and its resolutions is a gift, an opportunity for re-creation and a re-definition of ourselves. So on this January 1st, if we have not made a New Year's Resolution, go ahead! Re-create yourself anew. Happy New Year!

Year

As we look toward 2017, we at Saint Angela Merici are thankful for: The staff and those who engaged in the day-in and day-out of ministry both at the Parish and our Parish School. Their dedication reflects the faith of our community in Jesus Christ. We are blessed with your ministry and work. We remember those who daily clean, prepare our site for work and ministry giving themselves and talents to enhance the environment with a spirit of welcome, warmth, and hospitality and are present long after most of us have gone home to make ready the facilities and property for us for the next day. Our property is well kept by those who are very often invisible to most of us. It has not been the best of economic times, and many of our parishioners have found their careers drastically altered, but even in the midst of the financial challenges; we still experience the generosity of our parishioners. Our people continue to share their financial stewardship with the community to the extent they are able, and this has provided the monetary support to fulfill the mission entrusted to us by God. Many of our people are ill and their physical disabilities have also taken a toll on them psychologically as well on those who love and care for them. We remain one with you and assure you that you are not forgotten. May you be sustained by our care and presence. Some of our members have died this past year, and we mourn their loss, miss their presence, and continue to extend to their families our continual support and prayers in their bereavement. Our community has grown in vibrancy and spirit-filled participation in the past year especially during the Year of Mercy. This past Holy Year has been a tremendous gift to us. We have experienced the merciful embrace of Jesus, and have come to realize that mercy is larger than sin and compassion and forgiveness is the gift that restores the brokenness and pain in our lives. We have come to believe that although the Holy Doors have been closed we are still to be the path into the heart of God's mercy. This past year, we have welcomed so many new individuals and families to Saint Angela Merici. We are graced by your presence and the gifts you bring to us as a living Body of Christ. Most of all, we have each one of you, who gather with us for worship and prayer. You are here and we are blessed because of you. We thank you for choosing this faith community to grow in communion with God and those who share the faith with you. The patience and encouragement of our parishioners continues to help shape our community today and into the future, giving shape to what it means to be Church. Thank you for living the vision and the mission of who we are day by day and from week to week. As 2016 comes to an end and we sojourn into 2017, we are aware we do not leave our personal and communal memories behind; we bring our experience with us as we walk forward together. May what we hold in our hearts continue to sustain us, that the brokenness and hurts of the past year may heal, and our faith unfolding in the coming year be the grace that continues to nourish, build, and give shape to our faith in Jesus Christ.

Feast of the Epiphany Ritual Remembrance of Those Who Have Lost a Child

This year, the Feast of the Holy Innocents is celebrated on Wednesday, December 28th and the Feast of the Holy Family is celebrated on Friday, December 30th. It has been the tradition at Saint Angela to remember those individuals and families who have lost a child at one of these two feast days. Since the Feasts of the Holy Innocents and the Holy Family occur on a week-day, we will recall the Feast of the Holy Innocents on the Feast of the Epiphany, NEXT WEEKEND, January 8th at all the Eucharists. We will once again honor the memory of those individuals and families that have experienced the loss of a child. Small vigil candles will be placed near the Baptismal Font. Following the homily, individuals and families who have experienced the loss of a child, will be invited to ritually place a candle by the infant Jesus in the Crèche, as we recall, pray, and entrust to God what is sometimes very hard to express in words. May God heal any family memories we have experienced through the loss of a child. This Christmas Season, no child, whether they have died or are no longer with us is ever forgotten.

J.S. Paluch the Bulletin Publisher requires early transmission of the bulletin for the holidays. The Parish Stewardship for the holidays will be shared on Sunday, January 8th.
