THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FEBRUARY 3, 2019

Reflection

Dear friends,

Today's Gospel starts with Jesus saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." My first question is what Scripture passage is Jesus referring to? What is it Jesus has just fulfilled? If you recall last week's Gospel, Jesus proclaimed, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord." This is the Good News, the scripture, which Jesus has brought to fulfillment. This is what Jesus was anointed to do and now as Baptized Catholics, we in our lives are called to do the same, to bring this same Good News to fulfillment in our lives! When we were baptized, we were anointed priest, prophet and king. This anointing from above, empowers each of us in our role as a priest, prophet and king to bring the Good News to fulfillment in our lives and in the whole world.

I don't know about you, but one of my first thoughts is....not me Lord, I'm not worthy enough, I can't possibly fulfill such a grand purpose. Well, the prophet Jeremiah had a similar concern as well, he told the Lord he was too young to be a prophet. Because God had anointed him, he was empowered to fulfill his calling and went on to be a great prophet.

Both Jeremiah, Jesus and each of us were anointed to bring a particular message from God to the people. In my experience, the gift of prophecy is one of the most difficult gifts to put into practice, because, as we can see from the readings, good prophets are not always welcome, either in their native place, as Jesus discovered, or in places that receive difficult or challenging messages from God. While prophets might not receive accolades from the people to whom they are sent, they do receive the assurance God is with them to give them the strength and courage they need in their mission.

With this in mind, where in your life is God calling you to use your gift of prophecy? In our first reading the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. We hear how God was at work even in the womb of Jeremiah's mother. As Catholics, this is one of many scriptures which support our Pro-Life position. Is God calling you to use your prophetic voice to speak and work on behalf of supporting God's gift of LIFE? Perhaps God's calling you to support LIFE by getting involved in our Social Justice Committee? Will you encounter opposition? Jeremiah and Jesus did. As our first reading also proclaims, "They will fight against you but not prevail over you, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD."

Whatever gift and opportunity God blesses you with, as Saint Paul reminds us, it must be done with love. Love for God and others, for the good of all, and for the salvation of the world. This kind of love Paul calls us to is challenging; it is not meant simply to enrich us, make us feel good or inflate our egos. It is meant to benefit the other, to focus on what's best for the other person.

This is our challenge as Christians: to couch everything we do, all the spiritual gifts we bring to the Church, to our families or to our workplaces, with the gift of love, of practical concern for the benefit of others. As we go about the rest of our week, let us ask God for the special spiritual gift of love to accompany everything we do. If we do this, today this Scripture passage and all passages will be fulfilled in our hearing.

Much love and blessings in Christ Jesus, Fr Dave
