THE THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

MARCH 24, 2019

Reflection

"Japanese politics is tainted with egoism and populism. We need to use the tsunami to wipe out egoism, which has attached itself like rust to the mentality of the Japanese people over a long period of time." After making this statement, the 78-year-old Tokyo governor went on to describe the tsunami in 2011 resulted in the loss of 15,000 lives as "tembatsu" – divine punishment. He might be right about the egoism and populism not only for the Japanese but around the globe, but it is wrong to conclude God was responsible for this cleansing of unwanted behavior. His thinking was absurd. The gospel of this third Sunday of Lent has also alluded in the text, by the contemporaries of Jesus time, that God was involved in the killing of the Galileans by the troops of Pilate. Some present in the crowd said those who died must have been the worst sinners for the killing to happen which is why God would not accept their sacrifice and used Pilate to kill them. Whenever a random disaster occurs, the hand of the punishing God is involved. This kind of thinking seemed to be hard-wired into the human mind two thousand years ago as well as today.

Jesus adamantly said no to this theological way of thinking to explain any disaster. He confronted the crowd who thought this way by saying: "But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!" The crowd was asking about the fate of others, and now Jesus wanted them to be faced with their own fate. Jesus wanted them to know their fate was in their own hands. They had to repent (change their mind) or they would perish. The conversation changes from questions of abstract theology to demands for personal decisions. The crowd looked outside themselves and wondered about the tragic fate of others and they connected this fate with the will of God. People must look inside to be in touch with the will of God and trust His will happen in the events of their lives. They were to bring God's will on to the earth and not to match earthly events to divine will.

In the parable, we are fig trees called upon to bear fruit. Each of us is on a mission to do the will of God on earth. We have a decision to make: produce or perish. If we decide not to bear fruit, the soil becomes wasted. Wasted soil is similar to a squandered inheritance, which we will hear about in next Sunday's Gospel about the prodigal son. It is also similar to the light under the basket, and salt that has lost its savor. We must make the decision soon and have enough kindness to let Jesus, the gardener, cultivate the soil and touch our hearts for repentance. It is ultimately up to us: produce or perish.

Father Francis

Eucharistic Ministers Needed

Please consider becoming a Eucharistic Minister to the Sick. We provide excellent training, mentoring, and a loving community of people. We are dedicated to bringing communion to the sick as well as the bright light of our faith experience to those who cannot attend regular church services. There are about twenty-five homebound friends we visit weekly. Is there any greater thing we can do for others than reflect the glorious light of Jesus?

If you are interested in joining us, please contact Robert Lanphar:
714-809-8753 or Lilbob47@gmail.com.

Our Church Doors need Help

Doors are meant to open and close. They are part of our "welcome"! Once inside, they help protect us from heat or cold, provide safety and secure us from what is outside. For many years, we have experienced problems with our church doors. The doors are extremely heavy, as everyone knows, which makes it difficult for some to enter and inhospitable! Due to the weight of the doors the hydraulics fail, and we often have problems locking up at night. You may have noticed the "barn door latches" on some of the doors. Our doors are the entry way to a spiritual experience, they should be easy to open and close. This is why we need your help to replace them. A portion of our PSA funds will be used to replace our church doors. Hopefully, with your generosity, our community will be able to have a wonderful experience from outside, in.

IT'S PSA KICK OFF TIME!

It's time to kick off our PSA drive. Through the Pastoral Services Appeal, we are supporting the mission of the Diocese of Orange as well as our own Parish goals. PSA provides an opportunity for us to join together as one, Diocese of Orange, church family in support of many diverse ministries including; Catholic Education, Clergy Formation and Support, Outreach ministries to the poor and needy, and Parish and Diocesan Development. These ministries and services benefit our own parish as well as parishes and people all over Orange County.

With funds from PSA, we will be able to address some significant needs here at St. Angela Merici Church. This year we have chosen to focus on replacing our church doors. Unfortunately, our doors are in such disrepair they've become a safety and security risk. Contractors from the Diocese have been out to access our doors, and we are considering installing "Automated Doors" to assist parishioners with mobility issues.

In the weeks ahead, Fr. Dave and Fr. Francis will ask us to consider how we can respond to this call to carry on the work of Christ in our community. Please prayerfully consider how you will help support this important appeal.

The upcoming School Masses will be Saturday, March 30th at 5:00 pm and Easter Sunday, April 21st at 9:30, in the church. Mark your calendars and come celebrate with us!
