Reflection

Healing plays a huge role in our society. We spend billions on healthcare, and rightly so. Like our physical health, our spiritual health also needs attention. Throughout the Gospels, healing is one of the major characteristics of Jesus' ministry. Some are recalled in detail, others simply noted. Yet, all these healings are signs of the kingdom of God. Here in Christ, God comes forth into our world in a new and dynamic way, fulfilling his promises and, at times, turning the laws of nature upside down.

Today, we hear this ministry of spiritual healing being passed to the Eleven, through the gift of the Holy Spirit. Our Gospel passage today is the scriptural basis for the sacrament of reconciliation. John tells us that Jesus appears to the Eleven as they hid in the Upper Room. One can imagine the stale air and oppressive smell in a room shut away from the world. But Jesus appears among them like a fresh breeze filling the house, displacing the stale air of fear, gently blowing away the dust of disappointment and propelling the disciples to forgiveness and healing.

In this moment of encounter and empowerment, the Apostles are given a holy responsibility to share God's healing and forgiveness with others. They are now carriers of God's promises, and have the power to heal physically and spiritually in Christ's name. What they say about the risen Christ is no mere fantasy or delusion. They witnessed his death and Resurrection, and now they bear witness to his risen glory, becoming instruments of the very mercy and forgiveness Jesus so abundantly and generously bestows on all who follow him.

John then shows us how Thomas receives this life changing mercy. Thomas finds it hard to believe what the other disciples tell him; Jesus literally stands before him and shows him his wounds: he gently takes Thomas from doubt to faith. Using his own words, Jesus coaxes one of the great declarations of faith, My Lord and my God. In that moment, Thomas is both healed and his life changed forever; healed of his grief and pain, changed from doubt to belief.

The need for that mercy and healing is just as great today as it was in the first century. Perhaps that is why Pope John Paul declared today to be Divine Mercy Sunday. At the heart of our faith is this recognition that we need the risen Christ; we need his healing and above all his steadfast mercy. Without these we are lost, still in our sins, unable to be reconciled with God. As we continue to celebrate the Resurrection, let us each open our own hearts to that healing and then commit ourselves to be channels of that healing in our words and actions for others.

A Big Thank you to all who helped with Holy Week and the Easter Masses!

Praise the Lord! Jesus is Risen from the dead! What a beautifully moving celebration of the Lord's Resurrection we experienced here at St Angela Merici. I've heard from so many people how much they truly enjoyed Holy Week and Easter. What an inspiration! Such a glorious celebration takes a team of volunteers to make it all come together. It couldn't have been done without Dcn. Mike Shaffer and our Liturgy Committee, they did a great job planning out each of the Liturgy's. Our Environment Team which is headed up by Irma Gonzales, dressed up the interior of the Church and Hall in grandeur befitting a King. Sue de Grasse wonderfully organized all of our musicians and singers. Steve Allevalo arranged our Eucharistic ministers and lectors. Jason Padilla, Ron Sled and our sound tech's worked magic on the A/V. Our sacristan's took care of all the behind the scene details. Rick Ritter got our ushers working together as a team. Andrea Draper, RCIA, Leticia Garcia, and all our teachers did great Sacrament preparation. The Knights of Columbus helped out everywhere there was a need. I've received numerous compliments on the Hall and Church Masses at 9:30 Great job Vanessa Halliday and SAM school kids. And as usual I was blown away by the Youth Ministry Mass band and their leadership Danny Serna, Shannon Trott, and Kelly Spies. Fr Francis, Dcn. Ben, Cole Buson, John and Maggie Lee, the Peralta's, Amy Hinz, Javier Garcia.....and the list goes on and on. It couldn't be done without you and all the good folks who made the Liturgies so special. Thank you all very much! Awesome job! Praise the Lord, Jesus is risen from the grave! Fr Dave

Our Pastoral Services Appeal is off to a great start! Thank you to all who have already made their pledge to this important campaign. Your participation with any dollar amount is greatly appreciated. You can use the envelopes in the pews of the church to donate or you can go on line to

What is Eucharistic Adoration or Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament?

Understood simply, Eucharistic Adoration is adoring or honoring the Eucharistic Presence of Jesus Christ. In a deeper sense, it involves "the contemplation of the Mystery of Christ truly present before us". During Eucharistic Adoration, we "watch and wait", we remain "silent" in His Presence and open ourselves to His Graces which flow from the Eucharist ... By worshipping the Eucharistic Jesus we become what God wants us to be! Like a magnet, The Lord draws us to Himself and gently transforms us. In its fullest essence ... Eucharistic Adoration is "God and Man reaching out for each other, at the same time!"

The Eucharist is: Jesus truly present - Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity! At the moment of Consecration, during the Mass, the "gifts" of bread and wine are transformed (transubstantiated) into the actual Body and Blood of Christ, at the Altar. This means that they are not only spiritually transformed, but rather are actually (substantially) transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ. The elements retain the appearance of bread and wine, but are indeed the actual Body and Blood of Christ. This is what is meant by Real Presence: the actual, physical presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Please consider signing up to spend one hour a week in our Chapel with Jesus in Adoration. For more info please contact Dave Engels at 714/992-1306.

This past week I received some very sad news from our beloved Mrs. Nancy Windisch, Principal of St Angela Merici Parish School:

"The end of this school year, will mark my 18th year at St. Angela Merici Parish School. I have been blessed to start as the PE and Science Teacher before I took over as Principal. After much consideration with my family, I decided to retire from St. Angela Merici Parish School. This has not been an easy decision as my heart is and will ever be at SAM, but I do believe it is the right one for me at this time. I have really enjoyed the privilege of working with an amazing staff, supportive parents and most importantly the beautiful children. Everyone has provided me with lessons through generosity, pride in school and families, spiritual maturity and most of all love." Mrs. Nancy Windisch

Although I totally respect Nancy's decision I sure wish she would stay on as our Principal. In all my years of dealing with Principals and leaders of every rank and office Mrs. Windisch represents the absolute best. Words will never express our deep gratitude for all your years of service, commitment and loving compassion. Thank you and congratulations Mrs. Nancy Windisch on your new career ventures. I know wherever you go and whatever you do it'll be with great success! We love you and we'll miss you. Fr Dave
