Why Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Do you love me?"

Have you ever been betrayed by someone you trusted? Someone you had confided in and knew you could depend on? Whether that was someone at work or a person in your own family, betrayal must have hurt badly. Like the saying goes, it was like being stabbed in the back. What about after it had all happened? How were you supposed to react when the same person who had betrayed you came back and treated you as if nothing had happened?

Many things are happening today in this Gospel from John. One of my favorite things is shown here when Jesus is on the shore with breakfast cooking on a griddle and Jesus saying to his disciples, "come and eat." The importance here is not how good the food smelled but it was cooked with love by the Lord himself. Then there was the net that caught so many fish but didn't break or tear.

What was the most important thing that happened in today's Gospel? Jesus' asking Simon Peter if he loved him, not once but three times. It is immensely important we remember Jesus had just suffered his incredible passion, experienced one of the most barbaric forms of execution known to man and had risen from the dead. Although this is the Third Sunday of Easter, our liturgical timing is not accurate timing. In reality, this Sunday's Gospel probably took place only two or three days after the Resurrection of Jesus. So Good Friday, from this perspective, took place less than 5 or six days prior. Peter's own betrayal of Jesus had only happened a few days before.

In this first appearance of the Risen Lord in John's Gospel where Peter was present, does Jesus lay into Peter for his monumental betrayal of Jesus? Does he curse Peter for all eternity? No. Jesus makes Peter and the others breakfast on the shore and then asks Peter, "do you love me" three times. Jesus has a meal with his disciples just as he had his last meal with his friends before being betrayed by Judas and before Peter denied knowing Jesus three times. Jesus knows what was in Peter's heart and was allowing Peter to redeem himself. Every time Jesus asked the question and heard Peter's "yes", Jesus told Peter exactly what Peter needed to do: feed and tend his sheep. Jesus entrusted the love, care and guidance of all his followers, including you and me, into the hands of the person who betrayed him. Jesus loved Peter, called him to forgiveness and reconciliation and then finally said to Peter once again, "Come, follow me."

Let this Third Sunday of Easter be another moment of discovery of just how Jesus loves you and me. No matter what our sin is, at Mass he forgives us, calls us to be reconciled to him and one another, and then asks us to follow him once again. How we follow Jesus; only you and I can answer this. Just know at these Eucharistic celebrations of the Mass, Jesus stands with his arms outreached for us to run to him for forgiveness, to experience his wondrous love and then to be sent out to share that wondrous love with those who so desperately need it.

May we experience what wondrous love Jesus has for us now and forever.
Deacon Mike

A Big Thank you to all who helped make our Lenten and Easter season so special!

Praise the Lord! Jesus is Risen from the dead! What a beautifully moving celebration of the Lord's Resurrection we experienced here at St Angela Merici. I've heard from so many people how much they truly appreciated the church environment, music, and festivities from Ash Wednesday to Palm Sunday, Holy Week and finally Easter. So many inspiring and moving experiences; each of which takes a team of volunteers to make it all come together. It couldn't have been done without Dcn. Mike and our Liturgy Committee; they did a great job planning out each of the Liturgies. Our Environment Team which is headed up by Irma Gonzales, dressed up the interior of the Church and Hall in grandeur befitting a King. Sue de Grasse wonderfully organized all of our musicians and singers. Steve Allevato arranged our Eucharistic ministers and lectors. Jason Padilla, Ron Sled and our tech's worked magic on the A/V. Our sacristans and altar society Rebeca Rodriguez, Chrissy Spittell, Gloria Pena and Carolyn Lamka took care of all the behind the scene details. Our ushers got everyone where they needed to be. Andrea Draper, RCIA, Leticia Garcia, and all our teachers did great on Sacrament preparation. The Knights of Columbus helped out everywhere there was a need from Fish Fry's to parking. I've received numerous compliments about all our music ministries from our Family Mass at 9:30am Easter, great job Vanessa Halliday and SAM school kids, to the Le Van family and 11:15 Chorale, Nancy Peralta and our Singers at Easter Vigil and more, Javier and Coro, the Youth Ministry Mass band and our youth leadership Danny Serna, Shannon Trott, Kelly Spies and Alicia McAlister, and our Cantors, singers and musicians. Our PALS gals and Fr. Francis, Dcn. Ben, Cole Buson, John and Maggie Lee, our Social Justice group, Boy Scout Troop 811, Amy Hinz, and our altar servers.....the list goes on and on. It couldn't be done without you and all those other good folks who made the Liturgies so special. Thank you all very much! Awesome job! Praise the Lord, Jesus is risen from the grave! Fr Dave

Holy Relics

Dear friends,

It is with great joy that I announce our reception of the relics of three Holy Saints from May 25th - 27th, 2019. The holy relics of St. Rafael Guizar, Mexican Martyr, St. Charles Garnier, North American Martyr, and St. Junípero Serra, Apostle of California will be made available to as many people as possible to venerate after all Masses. After the relics have toured some of the Catholic Churches in Orange County, they will be enshrined in the new altar of our soon to be dedicated Christ Cathedral. This is a great opportunity to celebrate our heroes of the faith and personally connect us to our new Cathedral. Additional details will be forthcoming, but please mark your calendars for May 25th - 27th.

Altar Society Ministry

Get in on the ground floor of our new Altar Society Ministry! Father Dave would like to have this very important and sacred Ministry to assist in the preparation and celebration of the Mass. The Altar Society is responsible for the linens, vessels, bread, wine, vestments, candles, flowers and other items needed for the altar of worship.

Apologetics for Beginners

Which Bible should I read? Why does a Protestant bible have 7 fewer books than a Catholic Bible? How did we get the Bible? Which translation is most accurate? Why do Catholics believe in Tradition? Isn't the Bible enough? What is Sola Scriptura? We will compare translations and learn the history of how we got the Bible. Bring your Bible and a friend! We will meet Wednesday, May 15, 6:30 to 8:30pm in St. Paul room. Go to youtube and type in "Catholic Apologetics for beginners" and click subscribe!

IT'S PSA TIME!

We have had a great kick off to our Pastoral Services drive! Thank you to the 180 families who have already donated! Through the Pastoral Services Appeal we are supporting the mission of the Diocese of Orange as well as our own Parish goals. PSA supports many diverse ministries like; Catholic Education, Clergy Formation and Support, Outreach ministries to the poor and needy, and Parish and Diocesan Development.

Our Parish goal for the diocese is $106,000, but we are hoping to reach $200,000 to replace our church doors. Unfortunately, our doors are in such disrepair they've become a safety and security risk. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this important appeal.

Journey Thoughts: Nathaneal Batchelor

My journey into Catholicism started several years ago when my wife, Brianna and I were looking for a school to send our son. The experience began with us walking into the Parish Center Office with my family to meet with Fr. Dave in the Saint Paul Room. Little did I know at the time, over the next few years, Brianna and I would be sitting in the same room for Baptism class for our two young children; and we would be sitting there each Sunday with the amazing RCIA team preparing for our own Baptisms. Brianna and I cannot thank everyone enough for being supportive, kind, and most of all, the insightful guides they were along this journey.
