A Sending Forth: Father Anthony's Farewell Message

In this final piece of writing for St. Angela Merici parish bulletin, I would like to take this opportunity to say good-bye and to express my gratitude to the parish community. First of all, I would like to thank Fr. Michael the pastor, Fr. Dan, Fr. Ishmael, Deacons Ben and Mike, and the WHOLE parish community for all that you have given in the last three years I have been here. Three years went by rather quickly. It seems like it was only yesterday that I began to pack my stuff as I prepared for my transfer from St. John in Irvine to St. Angela Merici. And now I have been here for three years already! As part of our ministry, we Catholic ministers are come and gone. The Catholic Church does not go as its ministers go. No one minister is indispensable or irreplaceable in the Church. If in some cases, a Catholic priest is deemed indispensable either by himself or by his community, then his ministry might just have revolved around him. As I mentioned, we come and go: it is Christ who remains forever.

However, having said all that, I will miss this community when I go forth from here. I have had the opportunity to get to know the community over the last few years. I hope that at least some of the parishioners have come to embrace me too. I have come to love our school children through my time here. I am always a supporter of Catholic education. Thus, it is great to see the kids of St. Angela school and to celebrate Mass with them almost every week during the school year. Certainly I will miss them. And I will miss the parishioners here too. There is a reason why you are called "the Catholic faithful:" because you indeed are faithful. I am greatly indebted to you all. Thank you again for all you have given. And I do hope that you will welcome Fr. Loc Tran, currently a parochial vicar at La Purisima Church in Orange, as you have welcomed me. We all come with our strengths and limitations.

Recently I have spoken a lot about the idea of "sending forth." Within the few first Holy Communion celebrations that I had last month, I always taught the children the meaning of the word Mass. The Mass is essentially a sending forth. In fact, our whole faith is a sending forth. It all began with the sending of our father Abraham: "Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you," (Genesis 12:1). Our father in faith went as God directed him... The early disciples of Jesus were also called to be sent. We know that it was not always easy for them to be sent. In many cases, any sending forth involves some kind of crucifixion. Most of the apostles endured terrible forms of execution as they went forth to preach the Gospel of Jesus. There was a story in the apocryphal Acts of Peter: one day the risen Lord appeared to Peter, who asked him: "Where are you going Lord?" Jesus replied that he would go to Rome, to be crucified again. At this, Peter, who hesitated to go Rome before for fear of death, now felt shameful and gained the strength to go; and eventually be crucified there.

Now it is my turn to be sent forth. As I mentioned often in my homilies, sometimes it is not the priest sent who is crucified; but it is the people who work with him who are crucified. I know that a lot of Catholic faithful pray for a smooth transition for me and for all the priests who begin their new assignments in their respective parishes. But sometimes, it would also be a good idea to pray for the parishioners who have to put up with us ministers!!! I am sure that during my time here at St. Angela, I have crucified a few people... But all in all, that is part of our faith: we are constantly being sent forth to proclaim the good news of the Lord. May God bless you all. God loves you all, and so do I.

Year of Mercy Blood Drive

When: Sunday, June 26

Time: Appointments, 8:30AM~2:30PM

Where: Olson Hall

The American Red Cross continues to partner with the community of St. Angela Merici in an effort to bring hope to those in need of life saving blood. The honor, spirit and resources of the American people come forth with neighbors helping neighbors in need – during earthquakes, floods, fires, storms- and also for the deeply personal and often quiet disasters that require a gift of blood.

Please take this opportunity to make an appointment for your blood donation. Members of the Knights of Columbus will be available in the Plaza after all Eucharist's. Sign up early to get your preferred time. For information please contact the KofC Blood Drive Coordinator Jeff Draper at 714/981.5967 or jeffreydraper@netscape.net.

Eat well / Drink plenty of fluids / Be a hero!

Dear Fellow Stewards of God's Ministry:

One thing my parents always taught me, and I am sure all of us have heard it over and over again when we were young is: Say Thank You! It seems easy, these three little words which often became a matter of habit; however to cultivate a grateful heart is more than “saying thank you” it is a life-long challenge that hopefully becomes integrated into our lives so that a sense of gratefulness becomes intentional, deliberate, a gateway to loving and serving as Jesus did. In this Year of Mercy, we are reminded of the “great benefactor” who invites us to accept the risen Jesus into our lives ... even if we have been far away ... all we need do is take a step toward him; he awaits with open arms (Pope Francis). No matter how far we may feel we have created a distance within our selves, others, and God, God never abandons us nor does his generous love ever fail us!

Our experience of mercy moves and empowers us to extend ourselves to others that they too may come to know the Risen Christ and the all inclusive mercy of our God, and also moves us to regenerate with a grateful heart the sharing of our time and treasure. This year's Pastoral Services Appeal is not simply about a pledge or the sharing of treasure, it is a response to the mercy of God. We have all walked the Road to Emmaus ... the road of broken dreams, shattered hopes, and unbelievable disappointments and brokenness. Like the disciples whose lives seem to hit rock bottom, soon discover that the Risen Jesus was with them through the shadows of their lives, and ... their hearts filled with the joy moved them to realize that the mercy of God is not ever lost or exhausted. Their stewardship was one of proclamation: The Lord has Risen! We are invited to share from our own experience of despair and lost hope how the Risen Christ has never abandoned us even in our darkest hour, and it is ... opening the eyes of hearts, like the disciples on the Road to Emmaus we come to recognize the Risen Christ ... and say: ...Thank you Jesus! Thank you, Lord! As we journey together with Gratitude, we ask you to express the same mercy that we have all experienced, so others who still walk the road of Emmaus and seem lost and without hope will discover the Risen Christ by our support of our Diocesan and Parish Ministries and the development of Youth, and the maintenance of our facilities in order to share the mercy of God beyond our Saint Angela Merici through the Pastoral Services Appeal (PSA).

Our Parish assessment is $101,000. Please consider responding in mercy and gratefulness by sharing $350. PSA envelopes will be available in the pews or you may go to the Parish website and pledge on line. After we have met our goal, all stewardship is returned to Saint Angela Merici. Reflect on your own walk to Emmaus and extend mercy to those who are still making that journey. Be the very ... open arm of Jesus ... be the one who encourages someone to move toward Jesus ... be the one who assures our God never abandons anyone and it is His desire that no one is left on the side or excluded, or unloved. The Pastoral Services Appeal is an avenue of Gratefulness that enables us to lead others into the heart of God's mercy. Respond in Gratefulness. Respond in Mercy. Respond because we are apostles of mercy. Respond because by touching and soothing the wounds of today that affect the bodies and souls of many of our sisters and brothers, we profess Jesus and make him present and alive and allow others by the touch of his mercy to recognize Jesus and Lord and God!

Pastor

Pope Francis' document: Amoris Laetitia – The Joy of Love will be presented in a series each week during the Year of Mercy. It is an easy-reading document and inspires us to become a People of Mercy. We are presenting The Joy of Love in its original English translation without commentary as an avenue of reflection and prayer during this Liturgical Year of Mercy.

The Tenth in the Series

CHAPTER THREE LOOKING TO JESUS: THE VOCATION OF THE FAMILY

The Synod Fathers noted that Jesus, “in speaking of God’s original plan for man and woman, reaffirmed the indissoluble union between them, even stating that ‘it was for your hardness of heart that Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so’ (Mt 19:8). The indissolubility of marriage – ‘what God has joined together, let no man put asunder’ (Mt 19:6) – should not be viewed as a ‘yoke’ imposed on humanity, but as a ‘gift’ granted to those who are joined in marriage... God’s indulgent love always accompanies our human journey; through grace, it heals and transforms hardened hearts, leading them back to the beginning through the way of the cross. The Gospels clearly present the example of Jesus who... proclaimed the meaning of marriage as the fullness of revelation that restores God’s original plan (cf. Mt 19:3)”.⁵⁵

“Jesus, who reconciled all things in himself, restored marriage and the family to their original form (cf. Mt 10:1-12). Marriage and the family have been redeemed by Christ (cf. Eph 5:21-32) and restored in the image of the Holy Trinity, the mystery from which all true love flows. The spousal covenant, originating in creation and revealed in the history of salvation, takes on its full meaning in Christ and his Church. Through his Church, Christ bestows on marriage and the family the grace necessary to bear witness to the love of God and to live the life of communion. The Gospel of the family spans the history of the world, from the creation of man and woman in the image and likeness of God (cf. Gen 1:26-27), to the fulfillment of the mystery of the covenant in Christ at the end of time with the marriage of the Lamb (cf. Rev 19:9)”.⁵⁶

“The covenant of love and fidelity lived by the Holy Family of Nazareth illuminates the principle which gives shape to every family, and enables it better to face the vicissitudes of life and history. On this basis, every family, despite its weaknesses, can become a light in the darkness of the world. The Second Vatican Council, in its Pastoral Constitution Gaudium et Spes, was concerned “to promote the dignity of marriage and the family (cf. Nos. 47-52).” The Constitution “defined marriage as a community of life and love (cf. 48), placing love at the center of the family... ‘True love between husband and wife’ (49) involves mutual self-giving, includes and integrates the sexual and affective dimensions, in accordance with God’s plan (cf. 48-49). Christ the Lord ‘makes himself present to the Christian spouses in the sacrament of marriage’ (48) and he assumes human love, purifies it and brings it to fulfillment. By his Spirit, he gives spouses the capacity to live that love, permeating every part of their lives of faith, hope and charity. In this way, the spouses are consecrated and by means of a special grace build up the Body of Christ and form a domestic church (cf. Lumen Gentium, 11), so that the Church, in order fully to understand her mystery, looks to the Christian family, which manifests her in a real way.”

Cancer has touched many of us in some way, so we decided to fight back by raising funds and walking in our local American Cancer Society Relay For Life event.

As a team, we are taking action to help eliminate cancer as a major health problem. At our Relay event, we will take turns walking around the track to raise money and awareness to help the American Cancer Society in their life-saving mission.

Please join our team or make a donation. Saving lives from cancer starts one team, one participant, one dollar at a time.

*Relay for Life will be coming to St. Angela Parish and School on June 25/26... Join us in walking and/or donating to American Cancer Society. Please click on the link and sign up to join Saint Angela Merici Parish and School to walk to fight back against cancer or to make a donation:
