FOURTEENTH SUNDAY OF
THE LITURGICAL YEAR

JULY 3, 2016
YEAR OF MERCY

I can remember the excitement of my mom and dad around the time we were preparing for summer camp ... even more than ourselves! I often had the distinct impression our time away from home became an opportunity for refreshment for my parents and under the guise of summer or sports camp or some major education endeavor, was seen by them as their “mini vacation” from the routine of home life! They were able to “unload” us even if it was just for a few weeks! I too, thought “getting away” was an opportunity to put our worries, anxieties, and cares on hold, at least for the time we were away so we could focus and put our energy into the new adventure we were about to embark upon. As a youngster this notion was dispelled when I reached the airport. I saw the faces of people: they were stressed, worried, upset, and sometimes extremely impatient with one another! Many were overloaded with trunks and boxes and I could not help but overhear the arguments at the check-in counter with the agents. It seems our need to “overload” rather than “reduce” was not effected at all by the imposing fees for check-in and carry-on luggage. I soon realized the old saying was not necessarily true: We can’t take it with us, but we will sure make a good try at it!

We can only imagine how we might personally react to Jesus’ traveling instructions to his disciples: Carry no moneybag, no sack, no sandals (Luke 10). This is opposite and certainly contrary to our way of thinking. I do not for a minute believe Jesus wanted his disciples to “go without” as much as he didn’t want them weighted-down by their dependence on possessions. It seems to me, it is not a matter of “over packing” as much as the importance we place on the need to bring everything short of the kitchen sink, when we journey through life. Let’s not be side-tracked by this notion. This is not just a spiritual thing. I believe how much we “pack” when we travel or what bundles we take on vacation has a relationship to just how much baggage we carry when it comes to God! You see, it’s easy to follow Jesus when we have something to fall back on. It is not difficult to make an unmapped journey when we have our GPS in our hip pocket or on the dash of our automobile. However, it is risky to venture far and almost inconceivable for us to be open to an alternative itinerary that says we do not need to pack as much as we think we may need. We like “sticking to the plan,” but the implications of our willingness to follow Jesus, presumes that we ... go on our way like lambs among wolves (Luke 10). A bit less comfortable, isn’t it?

I like to think Jesus’ reference to laborers has a different twist we may not have considered. Could it be that it is not a matter of less laborers as it is our unwillingness to journey where God is leading us without thinking we need more than what He will provide for us? This inevitably leads to less laborers because of our insistence that we “need to pack just one more thing!” It seems to me, ... God wants us to nurse others with the finest of life, with the milk of comfort and fondle his people in his lap ... (Isaiah 66), but this sometimes becomes impossible when we are side-tracked with what we think will serve our purposes when we are being sent out. The seventy-two returned rejoicing and said, Lord, even the demons are subject to us ... Jesus responded ... do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven (Luke 10). Today we are invited and sent out as were the seventy two. Paul tells us: ... may I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus ... (Galatians 6). Perhaps this is the challenge of this week’s word: Who and what do we boast of and exactly what do we stuff into our luggage in life ... which inevitably determines not only our ability to accept or not accept Jesus’ call, but more importantly, whether we will be able to even hear his invitation ...

Father Michael-Dwight

Welcome Father Loc!

My full name is Tran Quang Loc, in that order according to the Asian centuries- old tradition of giving prime importance to the family & clan over the individual. The name Loc, derived from the Chinese character which means, originally, salary paid to imperial officials in feudal China in the form of rice baskets, then gradually "prosperity," then "blessing grace." Born and raised in Vietnam, I lived for years in or near the city of Saigon. In the spring of 1975 as a young boy, my family and I escaped the country when the Communists took over the capital. Among the first wave of "boat people" as political refugees from that troubled land, my family was welcomed to Fort Chaffee military base (Arkansas), and eventually we settled down in the big-shouldered and big-hearted city of Chicago.

I earned my undergraduate degree in Social Work from Loyola University. Over the years, religious discernment took me to diocesan seminary, and to a wonderful, blessed life in two different religious communities, the Benedictines in Lacey, WA and the Divine Word Missionaries in Chicago. In May of 2000, I completed my theological study and taught religion at Resurrection High School until 2006.

In June of 2006, I said farewell to the Windy City and joined the Diocese of Orange. Msgr. Wilbur Davis, the Vocation Director at the time, sent me to St. Joseph in Placentia for my first internship. The parish and faithful people were wonderful. I loved my time there and consider the parish my home. Ordained on June 7, 2008, I was sent to St. Edward the Confessor for four years, St. Timothy in Laguna Niguel for three and following that, to La Purísima in Orange. I have had eight blessed years with the privilege, the honor of walking with people on their journey with the Lord, their joy and heartbreak, blessings and challenges. Daily I am grateful to God for the gift of priestly ordination. Daily I am grateful to the People of God in welcoming, supporting and working with me in the vineyard of our Lord.

With honor and hope, I look forward to serving the Lord at St. Angela Merici. What brings me joy and satisfaction is the honored opportunity to work along a brother priest, with our shared love for the Lord and the Church, Getty Museum, Philippe's French-dipped sandwiches, New Orleans, Corona, the History Channel, circles of friends, and a household stocked with barrels of goodwill and laughter. Please feel free to call me at 714/529-1821 and may we work together to build up the Body of Christ.

Father Loc Tran - Parochial Vicar

Dear Fellow Stewards of God's Ministry:

One thing my parents always taught me, and I am sure all of us have heard it over and over again when we were young is: Say Thank You! It seems easy, these three little words which often became a matter of habit; however to cultivate a grateful heart is more than "saying thank you" it is a life-long challenge that hopefully becomes integrated into our lives so that a sense of gratefulness becomes intentional, deliberate, a gateway to loving and serving as Jesus did. In this Year of Mercy, we are reminded of the "great benefactor" who invites us to accept the risen Jesus into our lives ... even if we have been far away ... all we need do is take a step toward him; he awaits with open arms (Pope Francis). No matter how far we may feel we have created a distance within ourselves, others, and God, God never abandons us nor does his generous love ever fail us!

Our experience of mercy moves and empowers us to extend ourselves to others that they too may come to know the Risen Christ and the all inclusive mercy of our God, and also moves us to regenerate with a grateful heart the sharing of our time and treasure. This year's Pastoral Services Appeal is not simply about a pledge or the sharing of treasure, it is a response to the mercy of God. We have all walked the Road to Emmaus ... the road of broken dreams, shattered hopes, and unbelievable disappointments and brokenness. Like the disciples whose lives seem to hit rock bottom, soon discover that the Risen Jesus was with them through the shadows of their lives, and ... their hearts filled with the joy moved them to realize that the mercy of God is not ever lost or exhausted. Their stewardship was one of proclamation: The Lord has Risen! We are invited to share from our own experience of despair and lost hope how the Risen Christ has never abandoned us even in our darkest hour, and it is ... opening the eyes of hearts, like the disciples on the Road to Emmaus we come to recognize the Risen Christ ... and say: ...Thank you Jesus! Thank you, Lord! As we journey together with Gratitude, we ask you to express the same mercy that we have all experienced, so others who still walk the road of Emmaus and seem lost and without hope will discover the Risen Christ by our support of our Diocesan and Parish Ministries and the development of Youth, and the maintenance of our facilities in order to share the mercy of God beyond our Saint Angela Merici through the Pastoral Services Appeal (PSA).

Our Parish assessment is $101,000. Please consider responding in mercy and gratefulness by sharing $350. PSA envelopes will be available in the pews or you may go to the Parish website and pledge on line. After we have met our goal, all stewardship is returned to Saint Angela Merici. Reflect on your own walk to Emmaus and extend mercy to those who are still making that journey. Be the very ... open arm of Jesus ... be the one who encourages someone to move toward Jesus ... be the one who assures our God never abandons anyone and it is His desire that no one is left on the side or excluded, or unloved. The Pastoral Services Appeal is an avenue of Gratefulness that enables us to lead others into the heart of God's mercy. Respond in Gratefulness. Respond in Mercy. Respond because we are apostles of mercy. Respond because by touching and soothing the wounds of today that affect the bodies and souls of many of our sisters and brothers, we profess Jesus and make him present and alive and allow others by the touch of his mercy to recognize Jesus and Lord and God!

Pope Francis' document: Amoris Laetitia – The Joy of Love will be presented in a series each week during the Year of Mercy. It is an easy-reading document and inspires us to become a People of Mercy. We are presenting The Joy of Love in its original English translation without commentary as an avenue of reflection and prayer during this Liturgical Year of Mercy.

The Twelfth in the Series

Sexual union, lovingly experienced and sanctified by the sacrament, is in turn a path of growth in the life of grace for the couple. It is the “nuptial mystery”.⁶⁹ The meaning and value of their physical union is expressed in the words of consent, in which they accepted and offered themselves each to the other, in order to share their lives completely. Those words give meaning to the sexual relationship and free it from ambiguity. More generally, the common life of husband and wife, the entire network of relations that they build with their children and the world around them, will be steeped in and strengthened by the grace of the sacrament. For the sacrament of marriage flows from the incarnation and the paschal mystery, whereby God showed the fullness of his love for humanity by becoming one with us. Neither of the spouses will be alone in facing whatever challenges may come their way. Both are called to respond to God’s gift with commitment, creativity, perseverance and daily effort. They can always invoke the assistance of the Holy Spirit who consecrated their union, so that his grace may be felt in every new situation that they encounter.

“The Gospel of the family also nourishes seeds that are still waiting to grow, and serves as the basis for caring for those plants that are wilting and must not be neglected.”⁷³ Thus, building on the gift of Christ in the sacrament, married couples “may be led patiently further on in order to achieve a deeper grasp and a fuller integration of this mystery in their lives.” “The light of Christ enlightens every person (cf. Jn 1:9; Gaudium et Spes, 22). Seeing things with the eyes of Christ inspires the Church’s pastoral care for the faithful who are living together, or are only married civilly, or are divorced and remarried. Following this divine pedagogy, the Church turns with love to those who participate in her life in an imperfect manner: she seeks the grace of conversion for them; she encourages them to do good, to take loving care of each other and to serve the community in which they live and work... When a couple in an irregular union attains a noteworthy stability through a public bond – and is characterized by deep affection, responsibility towards the children and the ability to overcome trials – this can be seen as an opportunity, where possible, to lead them to celebrate the sacrament of Matrimony.”

“When faced with difficult situations and wounded families, it is always necessary to recall this general principle: ‘Pastors must know that, for the sake of truth, they are obliged to exercise careful discernment of situations’ (Familiaris Consortio, 84). The degree of responsibility is not equal in all cases and factors may exist which limit the ability to make a decision. Therefore, while clearly stating the Church’s teaching, pastors are to avoid judgements that do not take into account the complexity of various situations, and they are to be attentive, by necessity, to how people experience and endure distress because of their condition”.

Restorative Justice

Pope Francis sent a video message on June 21st, to the Sixth World Conference against the Death Penalty which took place in Oslo Norway.

"The Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy is an auspicious occasion for promoting more evolved forms of respect for the life and dignity of each person worldwide. It must not be forgotten that the inviolable and God-given right to life also belongs to the criminal. Today I would encourage all to work not only for the abolition of the death penalty, but also for the improvement of prison conditions, so that they fully respect the human dignity of those incarcerated."
