Reflection

"Truly, truly I say to you, he who believes has eternal life" (Jn 6:47). Had the conversation stopped there, we would conclude that believing in Jesus was all that was necessary to gain eternal life. What more was necessary? The "more" comes in last Sunday's gospel, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is My flesh for the life of the world." (Jn 6:51). This bold statement caused an argument to break out and many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said, "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" That is this Sunday's gospel background.

We are dealing with two different worlds here: the temporary world that eat the bread and drink the wine, and the eternal world that eat the flesh and drink the blood of Jesus. How do we, as humans in this temporary world, have a glimpse of the eternal world? By eating the body and blood of Christ on this earth. Eating the bread and drinking the wine, which is transformed into the flesh and blood of Christ, is like entering a time tunnel. The host that we receive is the entrance of the time tunnel, he who believes and enters will see the eternal world. The power to operate the time tunnel is provided by the Holy Spirit. If Jesus wanted us to believe in him and have eternal life as just a mental activity, He would not have said more, but he repeatedly spoke in John chapter six and the last supper in the other three gospels about eating the bread/flesh and drinking the wine/blood so as to have eternal life.

Besides the two different worlds we are talking about, there is a third world, a world which is falsely created, protected by us. For example, when people go to mass, they like to sit in the same place each week. When somebody has already occupied that space, they get very angry. This is the world they are familiar with and they won't yield an inch for others. They expect the world to change for them. These people simply don't have the desire to leave their own world and to be transformed to see the eternal world. Jesus said, "No one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father". To have that desire to come to Jesus, we must be willing to come out of our own world falsely created, protected by us. The real presence of Christ in the bread and wine requires us to be present in his eternal world and be absent in our own created world to give its meaning. If we refuse to do that, we will be just like many of Jesus' disciples who returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied Him.

Father Francis

ST. ANGELA MERICI CHURCH AND SCHOOL
PROJECTED BUDGET FIGURES FOR THE YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2019

St Angela Merici Church

Dear Friends,

I've been here for a year now, and I've been listening to your concerns. One request which several have raised is to know the financial status of the parish. I personally think it's important because it speaks about transparency, and God knows our Church can do better in that regard. Provided below is the budget for fiscal year 2018/19. You'll notice that the budget includes a targeted goal for weekly income, this should help us to stay on track and financially healthy. One of the biggest blessings I've experienced has been the willingness of people to volunteer and donate not just time and talent but treasure as well. To all of you a big "THANK YOU". Loving Jesus, Fr Dave

My dear sisters and brothers in the Lord,

It is with the utmost sorrow that I write to you in this time of great scandal and tribulation in our Church. Many people in leadership, particularly among the episcopacy, have failed the people of God. There can be no ambiguity about this. As your spiritual father and the shepherd of this Diocese, I have prayed, struggled, and reflected a great deal these past few weeks in order to determine how I can best serve you. The release of the Pennsylvania's Grand Jury report yesterday confirms that we who lead the Church have a great responsibility to take action against a predation that can only be called satanic.

After I was appointed to our Diocese I began to meet regularly with our Oversight Review Board, whose charge it is to advise me on matters concerning accusations of sexual abuse of a minor perpetrated by a cleric. Based on the painful experiences in my home Diocese of Springfield, Illinois during Bishop Daniel Ryan's tenure which resulted in a devastating loss of trust, I wanted to take every opportunity to create a truly safe environment, including reviewing allegations involving adults, not just minors. In addition, I urge anyone who has been a victim of clerical abuse in our Diocese to report the abuse by calling our toll free number: (800) 364-3064.

In light of the revelations surrounding Archbishop McCarrick, not to mention the situations in Honduras and Chile, I now know that the review process needs to be expanded to include claims from seminarians and priests so that they, too, are protected from sexual abuse by those in power.

Canon law provides for judicial processes to try all clergy, including bishops, who are charged with canonical crimes. Make no mistake, sexual crimes against the faithful are serious violations of Church law. As a canon lawyer, I know also that these canonical processes were strengthened by Pope Francis as recently as 2016. It goes without saying that there are civil and criminal recourses, as well.

I appreciate the righteous anger expressed toward those who have failed to follow due process and the demands of accountability. I also want to assure you that I am committed to join with my brother bishops to address these failings. A competent independent national investigative body comprised of qualified professionals needs to be created so that if we have systemic issues within our Church, they can be thoroughly reviewed and addressed. I pledge my support to this and will allocate diocesan funds for this purpose.

Uequivocally, I join my brother bishops who have already spoken out to identify the root cause as a crisis in holiness. Shepherds who sincerely seek the Lord do not abuse the power that Our Lord has entrusted to them. Those who abuse this holy office fail Christ and his Church. In this difficult time, please join with me to pray that our Church be purified, that all the people who have been wounded by abuse on the part of the clergy experience healing, and that I, along with the rest of Church leadership, act with wisdom, courage, and humility to fulfill the office that the Lord has entrusted to us.

With gratitude for your support and appreciation for your continued prayers,

Bishop Kevin W. Vann

Body Posture Change after "The Lamb of God"

As many of you are aware, Bishop Kevin Vann has recently requested that all Catholics in the Diocese of Orange strive to foster a deeper devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. With this in mind, we're called to make an outward expression of our inward reverence and awe for the Most Holy Eucharist at every Mass. Therefore, by the end of this month, all of us will kneel (or sit if necessary) after the Lamb of God and will stay kneeling until their particular pew stands up and walks forward to receive Holy Communion.

Our Eucharistic Ministers, who help to distribute Holy Communion, have two options on when to approach the altar. Either they can come forward during the "Sign of Peace" and begin to kneel in the sanctuary area after the Lamb of God or they may remain in the pews if necessary and then approach the sanctuary after the Priest has consumed Holy Communion.

Does this practice sound familiar to you? Well it should, this is the way we did it years ago. I know many people are happy that we're returning to the old way/previous method. The presiding priest will help direct the congregation on when to kneel and I'm sure it'll go very smoothly. We receive the Real Presence of Jesus, to be the Real Presence of Jesus to others.

With much love, Fr Dave
