Twenty-Second Sunday of
The Liturgical Year
September 3, 2017
Last week, Jesus asked Peter “who do you say I am” and Peter nailed the answer. “You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God.” Peter nailed the answer because he was open to Divine Inspiration. But in today’s Gospel what happens? Peter blows it....back to the end of the line Peter. Jesus even tells Peter that he’s a devil and an obstacle to him. That he’s only thinking as a selfish human would think and not as a human who has been gifted and empowered by God’s Spirit.

Isn’t that the way we can be in our lives as well? As long as everything is going fine in our lives and the way we want things to go then we’re OK, but as soon as a challenge presents itself, we tend to close ourselves off to God’s wisdom and only think of ourselves. And then, like Peter, we become an obstacle, we make it hard for God’s plan to be fulfilled in our lives and the lives of others.

We see this in our first reading, the prophet Jeremiah had many trials and experienced much suffering. There were many occasions where he wanted to throw in the towel and just give up. He wanted to just follow his own selfish ways and not follow God’s ways. But he knew that he was called by God for a special purpose. And although Jeremiah suffered as a result of his fidelity to God’s call to serve as a prophet, he also experienced an inexplicable joy as a result of being faithful to God’s plan for his life. Jeremiah went on to be a great prophet for God because he chose to follow God’s will.

This theme of Christian sacrifice is also highlighted in our second reading. St Paul speaks of sacrifice as a fundamental requirement for leading lives which are holy and pleasing to God. Saint Paul urges us not to be conformed to this present age but to be transformed by knowing and then doing God’s will. This requires making the decision each day to set aside personal ambitions and desires and to make our number one priority that of being faithful to God’s will for our lives.

And finally, the teaching of Jesus in today’s Gospel says that whoever wishes to be a disciple of Jesus Christ must take up their cross and follow him. This leaves no room for doubt, that sacrifice is a fundamental and non-negotiable requirement for being a faithful disciple. If we want to live as faithful disciples of Jesus and come to experience the inexhaustible treasure and blessings of the kingdom of God more fully, we have no choice but to take up our cross each day and follow Jesus.

You see we can’t say we love God, or family or friends without recognizing that true love means sacrifice, it means there will be times we must take up our crosses. Loving sacrifice is almost always required in order to accomplish things that are important. We as Christians have seen and know this most profoundly in the love Jesus Christ poured out on the cross of Calvary....and now, it’s up to us to do the same.

Blessings always, Fr Dave

Dear Friends,

With the 100th anniversary of the Visitation of Our Lady of Fatima in 1917, Fr. Ben Tran and I knew we wanted to make a pilgrimage to see Our Lady. We have a great love for the Virgin Mary and we know so many people do too. For this reason, we decided not to take a private pilgrimage, but one that would be open to family and friends. We will visit a number of wonderful places detailed in this brochure. The main focus is to visit the beautiful shrine of Our Lady of Fatima in Portugal and renew our love and loyalty to the Mother of God. What a wonderful way to grow in your love of the Virgin and her Son, Jesus Christ! We hope you will join us in this pilgrimage of love, filled with blessings, and powerful prayer experiences!

Youth Music Ministry

We’re Sydney Alcaraz and Jenna Cushing and for the past two years, we have led the Youth Music Ministry. We are writing to you, our St. Angela Merici family, to thank you for singing with us at the Youth Mass and to introduce you to the new Youth Music Ministers, Andre Kemps and Samantha Fabris.

It has been our greatest pleasure selecting music that reflects the readings and Gospel and leading the Youth Mass congregation in praise and worship. When we first started singing in high school, the Youth Music Ministry provided a wonderful opportunity to deepen our faith and grow within the church community. Now, almost 10 years later, we have realized that we aren’t able to make the commitment that Youth Music Ministry requires and deserves.

We’re excited to announce the new Youth Music Ministers, Andre and Sam. Andre joined as a guitarist in 2012 as a sophomore at Brea Olinda High School and Sam as a singer in 2013 as a Sophomore at Troy High School. We’re confident that Andre and Sam will be wonderful leaders, both musically and spiritually. We hope that with this transition, you will provide support, good intentions, and prayers to Andre, Sam, and the rest of the Youth Music Ministry.

We would also like to invite all Confirmed singers and musicians who feel called to be more active at St. Angela Merici to join. The Youth Music Ministry is always looking for new singers and musicians, high school and young adult aged parishioners.

If you have any questions for Sydney and Jenna or if you would like to welcome Andre and Sam, email us at samyouthmusic@gmail.com.
