Reflection

I always love this Gospel reading with all of its twists and turns. It starts with a great question and insight for all of us. The text says, along the way Jesus asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" Well this is a paradigm for us on our journey through life...along the way of our lives Jesus will be asking us questions as well. Usually the question is "who do we say Jesus is?" Is Jesus just a holy man or just a prophet or just a religious rebel or is Jesus truly God? Peter gets it right when he says, "You are the Christ." In our journey to heaven and bringing heaven to earth we too will get it right when we stop trying to be god and let God be God. In our docility to the Holy Spirit we will proclaim as Peter did, that YES, Jesus, "You are the Christ." So the story of Peter is one that every Christian can glean something from.

Peter is rightly recognized as a great saint. Many see themselves reflected in his flawed humanity and find hope in the fact that, despite all his struggles, he ultimately became a saint. What makes Peter a great saint is not just his flaws, but his deep faith in Jesus Christ. It is the fact that he finally came to embrace the truth of Jesus' words: Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.

This truth is evident when we recall it was Peter who denied and deserted Jesus in his time of need. There, the one who declares Jesus to be the Messiah proved himself to be a fair-weather friend. So great is Peter's misunderstanding of Jesus and his mission that even he felt able to rebuke him? But in one of the most shocking Gospel interactions, Jesus turns on Peter in the strongest way: Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do. Strong words indeed! But deserved by Peter for he is totally out of step with Christ. Have you ever felt out of step with Jesus? Don't give up hope, Peter didn't, and neither should we.

As we hear this Gospel, it is good for us to ask what we believe about Jesus. If we simply see him as a prophet, can we truly believe in the reconciliation offered through his cross and Resurrection? Or, are we like Peter, happy to confess that he is the Christ but unable to embrace the fullness of what that means? To imitate Peter, it is best to see his whole story – his post-denial regret and tears, his declarations of love at the Sea of Galilee and his post-Pentecost courage to preach the risen Christ. These are what make Peter great and worthy of our admiration. We can learn much from Peter. Although we might be attracted by his flawed humanity, we should not ignore the work God has done in strengthening and empowering him to be a disciple and evangelist.

Like Peter, we too, need to let Christ change us if we are to let go of the human way of thinking. Yes, it's difficult but necessary. Baptism is never just a moment in time or a cultural expectation, but the beginning of a relationship with Christ. It's a relationship that lasts all of our lives and calls us to be always open to Christ and his Word. As we journey along the way, may we always find hope that although we may deny Jesus, He will never deny us. If we embrace His mercy, we too can become a great saint one day.

Blessings along the way, Fr Dave

Commitment to Providing a Safe Environment for our Children and Youth

These past several weeks I've preached about the reports of abuse in the Church and I'm sure we've all gone through many of the same emotions from shock, disgust and anger to grief and disappointment. So much hurt and pain that caused so many to suffer because of the horrible actions some priest's committed mostly from the 1960's to 1990's. And so on behalf of priesthood of Jesus Christ, I am truly sorry. Back then the Church believed that these predators could be healed. But unfortunately today we realize that such long term healing is almost impossible. Since the early 2000's the Church put into place safe guards to keep our children and youth safe from predators. This includes, but is not limited to requiring that all priests, deacons, employees, volunteers, and everyone who works with children and youth:

- ◆ Be fingerprinted according to our diocesan procedures by the Department of Justice;
- ◆ Be background checked by the Department of Justice;
- ◆ Undergo Safe Environment training and certification; with renewal every three years;
- ◆ Are mandated by law as mandatory reporters.

Additionally seminarians, (priests and deacons) undergo a comprehensive psychological evaluation before entering the seminary and undergo yearly human formation training and education throughout their ordained lives. Should an accusation of sexual abuse of any kind be reported, the accusation is sent to and investigated by law enforcement as well as the Diocese. Victims of sexual abuse by church staff in our Diocese are urged to report the abuse by calling the toll free number: (800) 364-3064. The Diocese of Orange has a zero tolerance policy as it applies to sexual abuse cases regardless of the position of the offender. The safety of our children and our youth is a commitment we must all undertake. As an example of our commitment and vigilance, this past year, windows were installed on our confessional doors. Let there be no doubt that our obligation to protect children and young people is our highest priority and flows from the mission and example given to us by Jesus Christ himself, in whose name we serve.

As a side, during my career in the Fire Service I served as the PIO, Public Information Officer, on many an incident and I hate to say that the incident we worked on scene and the story we read or heard about in the media were often 2 different stories. So we must be vigilant in our pursuit of truth. The Catholic League and Spirit Daily both have compelling reports and blogs which add a reassuring element to where the Church is today as compared to the 1960's to 90's.

I have also personally found Bishop Robert Barron's comments and reflections on this issue to be of great value. You can watch his latest video at: <http://bit.ly/2wADHho> and <http://bit.ly/2MUFQrp>

I'm a believer.... not because of Judas but because of Jesus. What some priests and bishops did was terribly evil, but for me leaving the Church Jesus started because of them would be like saying that evil wins.....evil finally caused me to leave Jesus in the Eucharist. All my life I've been fighting for good and so now today, how could I allow myself to leave Jesus in the Eucharist because of the horribly evil actions of a few? Yes, those who have broken laws, broken trust and broken innocent lives need to be held responsible for their crimes so that all the victims may have their day of justice and hopefully this never happens again. But for me, I just can't give into believing that the gates of hell and evil get to win.

So please keep the faith and make sure that our Parish is a Safe Environment for all people, young and old! Blessings in Christ Jesus, Fr Dave

Parish Life

PALS Begins this Week

Our Parish women's group PALS (Praise, Adoration, Learning & Sharing) is preparing to begin a new session. We invite all of the women of the Parish to join us for prayer and fellowship. ## FRIDAY NIGHT WITH FRIENDS

The Knights of Columbus look forward to seeing our loyal customers again and - and some new ones! - On Sept 21st, the 3rd Friday of September at our next Friday Night with Friends. Our customers always seem to enjoy the food and the company of friends so please come and join your family, friends and fellow parishioners. Enjoy one of our delicious fish dinners with your choices of sides and maybe add a glass of wine or a cold beer.

Senior discounts are offered. We look forward to seeing you!

Great Marriages Don't Just Happen, Couples Make Them

The world has a way of lulling us into a sort of rut. We end up developing a habit of hitting the snooze alarm on our marriages and rolling over for another few minutes. Years can go by and we can forget how great it feels to be fully awake and alive, fully intimate with our spouses. Come and snap out of it! Let a Marriage Encounter Weekend reignite the sizzle of your dating days!

The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends are September 21-23 and November 2-4. For an informational brochure or to sign up, contact John & Maggie Lee at 714/873-5136 or lee4wwme@att.net. Or visit our website: www.ocwwme.org.

El Comité de Justicia Social de la parroquia de Santa Angela Merici invita a todos los feligreses a interrumpir sus vidas con un llamado de Jesús a un discipulado más intencional, sabiendo que nuestro Sí a este llamado permitirá a nuestra comunidad reflejar mejor el mensaje del Evangelio. Al promover la misión social Católica, este comité permitirá a nuestra parroquia enriquecer la vida espiritual de sus miembros y servir a la comunidad en general haciendo lo que es correcto, amando lo que es bueno y caminando humildemente con nuestro Dios.

Empezaremos ayudando a nuestra comunidad a aprender más completamente la Enseñanza Social Católica.

“La Enseñanza Social Católica es un elemento central y esencial de nuestra fe. Sus raíces están arraigadas en los profetas Hebreos quienes anunciaron el amor especial de nuestro Diós por los pobres y quienes llamaron a la gente de Diós a un convenio de amor y justicia. Es una enseñanza fundada en la vida y palabra de Jesucristo, ... La Enseñanza Social Católica se basa en un compromiso con los pobres. Este compromiso surge de nuestras experiencias con Cristo en la Eucaristía.” (Conferencia de los Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos, Compartiendo la Enseñanza Católica: Desafíos y Direcciones)

Los Siete Pilares de la Enseñanza Social Católica representan los temas clave que los Obispos han identificado. Estos temas captan el corazón de la Tradición Social Católica.

Los invitamos a que esperen con ansias aprender más sobre estos temas durante todo el año. En particular, encontrarán oportunidades para ayudarnos a expresar estos temas a lo largo de la vida de nuestra comunidad Católica.

Padre Jose Arredondo

Padre Jose Arredondo nacido en un pueblo llamado Arroyo de la Plata en el estado de Guanajuato Mexico.

De una Familia de 5 hermanos tienen que emigrar al estado de Nayarit Mexico donde vivió hasta los 16 años, el Padre Jose decide emigrar a los Estados Unidos buscando un mejor futuro. Llega a California y comienza a trabajar en un restaurante de comida italiana por 5 años y ahí es donde un amigo de trabajo Luis Cabrera le hace una invitación a un grupo de jóvenes llamado Guerreros de Yavhe en la Iglesia de St Angela Merici en la ciudad de Brea Ca.

Padre Jose rechaza la invitación pero la insistencia de su amigo sigue hasta que un día Padre Jose decide ir al grupo de jóvenes Guerreros de Yavhe y es ahí donde el comienza a sentir el llamado de Dios, en su primer retiro de iniciación “Nueva Vida” con Guerreros de Yavhe y comienza a servir en el ministerio. Su llamado sigue siendo más fuerte al grado de que en un congreso católico conoce algunos religiosos de la orden de los Agustinos Recoletos y pide información y es ahí donde el decide irse al seminario en la ciudad de Oxnard CA. Despues de 3 años lo mandan a la ciudad de New Jersey, y luego a España regresa nueva mente a California para después ser ordenado Diácono y el pasado 26 de Agosto fue ordenado Sacerdote en la ciudad de Querétaro Mexico por el obispo de nuestra Diócesis de Orange Kevin W. Vann. El domingo pasado padre Jose celebro dos misas en nuestra Iglesia de St Angela Merici, donde lo recibimos con gran alegría, antes de ser enviado a misionar al país de Brazil.
