Reflection

In the book of Wisdom today, God is preparing us to understand that a person has to suffer in this life. He prepares us to understand how Jesus was persecuted and handed over to be killed.

In the letter to St. James, he reminds us, where jealous and selfishness exist, there is disorder, but the wisdom from God is pure, peaceful, gentle, compliant and full of mercy and good fruit. In order for us to sow peace and good fruit in our hearts and in our daily lives, we have to cultivate that peace. The hard part is figuring out how to do that daily. We have to allow ourselves to be guided by him and not by this world.

In today's Gospel, Jesus shows us how he traveled with his disciples. Sometimes the best way to get to know someone is to travel with them and walk with them every step of the way. He was trying to teach them, not one but all are important. All they were thinking about was who is going to be first in the kingdom. They still didn't understand, they kept discussing amongst themselves who was going to be the best. They were physically close to Jesus but not spiritually. They had a long way to go before they really understood. Then he reached out for a child, and told them they had to be like a little child. A child doesn't have expectations. Children trust and have unconditional love. That is what they had to do. This is what we have to do also, trust and have unconditional love for each other.

Jesus doesn't ignore any one of us. We all eat at His table, consuming the word of God and bread of life. The world of a child is full of small things which we do not consider important, but maybe we should. Jesus lets us know the greatest and the most important, is the one who is willing to serve with humility and generosity.

May God bless all of you as we travel together on this journey that God has given. May we be willing to love and serve on another as He serves and loves us.

Deacon Ben Flores

Commitment to Providing a Safe Environment for our Children and Youth

These past several weeks I've preached about the reports of abuse in the Church and I'm sure we've all gone through many of the same emotions from shock, disgust and anger to grief and disappointment. So much hurt and pain that caused so many to suffer because of the horrible actions some priest's committed mostly from the 1960's to 1990's. And so on behalf of priesthood of Jesus Christ, I am truly sorry. Back then the Church believed that these predators could be healed. But unfortunately today we realize that such long term healing is almost impossible. Since the early 2000's the Church put into place safe guards to keep our children and youth safe from predators. This includes, but is not limited to requiring that all priests, deacons, employees, volunteers, and everyone who works with children and youth:

- ◆ Be fingerprinted according to our diocesan procedures by the Department of Justice;
- ◆ Be background checked by the Department of Justice;
- ◆ Undergo Safe Environment training and certification; with renewal every three years;
- ◆ Are mandated by law as mandatory reporters.

Additionally seminarians, (priests and deacons) undergo a comprehensive psychological evaluation before entering the seminary and undergo yearly human formation training and education throughout their ordained lives. Should an accusation of sexual abuse of any kind be reported, the accusation is sent to and investigated by law enforcement as well as the Diocese. Victims of sexual abuse by church staff in our Diocese are urged to report the abuse by calling the toll free number: (800) 364-3064. The Diocese of Orange has a zero tolerance policy as it applies to sexual abuse cases regardless of the position of the offender. The safety of our children and our youth is a commitment we must all undertake. As an example of our commitment and vigilance, this past year, windows were installed on our confessional doors. Let there be no doubt that our obligation to protect children and young people is our highest priority and flows from the mission and example given to us by Jesus Christ himself, in whose name we serve.

As a side, during my career in the Fire Service I served as the PIO, Public Information Officer, on many an incident and I hate to say that the incident we worked on scene and the story we read or heard about in the media were often 2 different stories. So we must be vigilant in our pursuit of truth. The Catholic League and Spirit Daily both have compelling reports and blogs which add a reassuring element to where the Church is today as compared to the 1960's to 90's.

I have also personally found Bishop Robert Barron's comments and reflections on this issue to be of great value. You can watch his latest video at: <http://bit.ly/2wADHho> and <http://bit.ly/2MUFQrp>

I'm a believer.... not because of Judas but because of Jesus. What some priests and bishops did was terribly evil, but for me leaving the Church Jesus started because of them would be like saying that evil wins.....evil finally caused me to leave Jesus in the Eucharist. All my life I've been fighting for good and so now today, how could I allow myself to leave Jesus in the Eucharist because of the horribly evil actions of a few? Yes, those who have broken laws, broken trust and broken innocent lives need to be held responsible for their crimes so that all the victims may have their day of justice and hopefully this never happens again. But for me, I just can't give into believing that the gates of hell and evil get to win.

So please keep the faith and make sure that our Parish is a Safe Environment for all people, young and old! Blessings in Christ Jesus, Fr Dave Welcome Eric!

St. Angela Merici Church would like to congratulate Eric Le Van in his new position as Director of the 11:15 Chorale Choir. Eric is a world renowned pianist who accompanies singers at all the weekend English Masses. He has performed at major festivals in the United States and Europe, notably the Weimar Franz Liszt Festival and the Beethovenfest in Bonn, as well as the Kennedy Center and the Library of Congress in Washington D.C. He holds degrees from the University of Southern California and graduate diplomas from the Musik-Akademie in Basil, Switzerland and the University of Paris, La Sorbonne. As a Fulbright scholar, he studied at the Hochschule für Musik in Hannover, Germany.

He has released widely acclaimed recordings with many record labels as well as being the artistic director of the Franz Liszt Festival in Alsace, France from 1997 to 2003. Afterwards, he moved back to the United States. He lives in Orange County with his family and has enjoyed being part of the St. Angela community since then. Eric has worked with many singers throughout the years as an accompanist and coach. We are extremely blessed to have Eric and his daughters as part of our musical family here at SAM. So please welcome and congratulate Eric in his new position as Music Director!

SAM is Helping the A.C. T. Office

This month St. Angela Merici School will help collect items for the ACT office. We are in need of Pasta Sauce, hot and cold cereals, snack sized cookies, small bags of chips, small bottles of Gatorade, small bottles of water, complete pancake mix, cooking oil, syrup, diced peaches, canned soup, canned meats, canned fruits, toothbrushes, toothpaste and deodorant. You may bring your donation to the A.C.T. office on Monday, Wednesday or Friday from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. If you have further questions give us a call at 714/529-1821 x143

Beware of Gypsies/Panhandlers

Please be aware that this past weekend we had Gypsies begging for money on the Church grounds. Usually they just want money, often the scam is that the money will be used to feed their infant children. In my discussions with the local Police Departments the presence of gypsies on site results in a higher rate of car's being broken into, purses being stolen at Communion time, pick pocketing, and false slip and fall claims against the Church. I recommend not engaging them in conversation or contributing money to them. Please always refer persons in need to our ACT office for assistance.

E.G. Hall in his article Gypsies: Kings of Con reports that the Gypsy crime families are directly responsible for an estimated $15 billion dollars in varying forms of thievery annually in the United States.

If you notice gypsies/panhandlers on the premises please immediately advise our Church ushers, Fr Dave or call the Brea Police Dept. at 714/990-7911.

Great Marriages Don't Just Happen, Couples Make Them

The world has a way of lulling us into a sort of rut. We end up developing a habit of hitting the snooze alarm on our marriages and rolling over for another few minutes. Let a Marriage Encounter Weekend re-ignite the sizzle of your dating days!

El Comité de Justicia Social de la parroquia de Santa Angela Merici invita a todos los feligreses a interrumpir sus vidas con un llamado de Jesús a un discipulado más intencional, sabiendo que nuestro Sí a este llamado permitirá a nuestra comunidad reflejar mejor el mensaje del Evangelio. Al promover la misión social Católica, este comité permitirá a nuestra parroquia enriquecer la vida espiritual de sus miembros y servir a la comunidad en general haciendo lo que es correcto, amando lo que es bueno y caminando humildemente con nuestro Dios.

Empezaremos ayudando a nuestra comunidad a aprender más completamente la Enseñanza Social Católica.

“La Enseñanza Social Católica es un elemento central y esencial de nuestra fe. Sus raíces están arraigadas en los profetas Hebreos quienes anunciaron el amor especial de nuestro Diós por los pobres y quienes llamaron a la gente de Diós a un convenio de amor y justicia. Es una enseñanza fundada en la vida y palabra de Jesucristo, ... La Enseñanza Social Católica se basa en un compromiso con los pobres. Este compromiso surge de nuestras experiencias con Cristo en la Eucaristía.” (Conferencia de los Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos, Compartiendo la Enseñanza Católica: Desafíos y Direcciones)

Los Siete Pilares de la Enseñanza Social Católica representan los temas clave que los Obispos han identificado. Estos temas captan el corazón de la Tradición Social Católica.

Los invitamos a que esperen con ansias aprender más sobre estos temas durante todo el año. En particular, encontrarán oportunidades para ayudarnos a expresar estos temas a lo largo de la vida de nuestra comunidad Católica.

Padre Jose Arredondo

Padre Jose Arredondo nacido en un pueblo llamado Arroyo de la Plata en el estado de Guanajuato Mexico.

De una Familia de 5 hermanos tienen que emigrar al estado de Nayarit Mexico donde vivió hasta los 16 años, el Padre Jose decide emigrar a los Estados Unidos buscando un mejor futuro. Llega a California y comienza a trabajar en un restaurante de comida italiana por 5 años y ahí es donde un amigo de trabajo Luis Cabrera le hace una invitación a un grupo de jóvenes llamado Guerreros de Yavhe en la Iglesia de St Angela Merici en la ciudad de Brea Ca.

Padre Jose rechaza la invitación pero la insistencia de su amigo sigue hasta que un día Padre Jose decide ir al grupo de jóvenes Guerreros de Yavhe y es ahí donde el comienza a sentir el llamado de Dios, en su primer retiro de iniciación “Nueva Vida” con Guerreros de Yavhe y comienza a servir en el ministerio. Su llamado sigue siendo más fuerte al grado de que en un congreso católico conoce algunos religiosos de la orden de los Agustinos Recoletos y pide información y es ahí donde el decide irse al seminario en la ciudad de Oxnard CA. Despues de 3 años lo mandan a la ciudad de New Jersey, y luego a España regresa nueva mente a California para después ser ordenado Diácono y el pasado 26 de Agosto fue ordenado Sacerdote en la ciudad de Querétaro Mexico por el obispo de nuestra Diócesis de Orange Kevin W. Vann. El domingo pasado padre Jose celebro dos misas en nuestra Iglesia de St Angela Merici, donde lo recibimos con gran alegría, antes de ser enviado a misionar al país de Brazil.
