Reflection

"For whoever is not against is for us."

A few weeks ago during a Mass I was at, I heard someone ask for prayers for his kids who have fallen away from the Catholic Church, from our faith. I could tell that this man was in pain because his very own kids, his flesh and blood, had, in his eyes, deserted the Church. Whether his kids had just stopped going to church all together or were going to some "other" church, we don't know. Whether his kids didn't feel nourished by the Catholic Church that his family attended or decided they had enough of the corruption and abuse that we hear so much about today, he was hurt that they weren't following his choice, they weren't following his expectations of where he wanted them to practice their faith.

God made us so wonderfully, with so much love, that he created each one of us to question him. To rebel. To be a rebel. To be different. In our first reading, we hear about the followers of Moses telling him that there were people who were trying to be like Moses and therefore, being prophets, spreading God's message. Moses said, wouldn't it be great if all God's followers were prophets? Moses is speaking about us here. Wouldn't it be great if we lived our lives as those who lived to spread the Word? This is what we are all called to do by our baptism, by receiving the Eucharist. The Spirit impels us to live and preach the Word, the Good News of the Kingdom.

In Mark's Gospel, we continually hear Sunday after Sunday that his apostles and disciples just don't get it. Last week, the Gospel starts with Jesus telling his disciples that he will be arrested, brutalized, killed and in three days, will rise from the dead. While Jesus is describing this, his friends, the ones he knows he can't count on, are thinking and arguing about who is the greatest, who is better than the others. They didn't get it last week and they're not getting it this week. Yet, the Lord Jesus loves them more than they will ever know. He forgives them, and loves them more, loves us more.

Jesus speaks to us about our egotistic ways of living. He speaks to us about opening our eyes to the goodness of others. We Catholics don't have a good history dealing with those we don't understand. We have caused wars and fought crusades against Muslims and others who don't believe as we believe. Today, we kill people by the way we look at them because they're not as good as us; because they don't think like us or don't look or speak like us. We do that and we can't hide from it.

At this Mass, let's acknowledge our sinfulness, and those ways that make others sin and hate because of us. Let's, you and me, put sinfulness on the altar of sacrifice. Because of God's love, poured out on the altar, not just for you and me but for all humanity. Let's be changed today in how we see others and the good they do. Even if they're not part of our faith, or if they are part of our faith but don't believe like our group believes, let's bless and pray for them today. Let's understand the words of Jesus: if they're not against us, they're for us.

Have a wonderful Sunday because this is the day the Lord has made!
Deacon Mike

Dear Parents,

I would like to address the current situation within the Catholic Church in regards to the reports of abuse. For starters, our Diocese settled it's abuse cases 15 years ago and now Pennsylvania's settling their cases and next month it'll be another Diocese and this will go on for years until all cases have been settled. What do we know about all these cases? First, the overwhelming bulk of these cases date back from the 1960's to 1990's. Back then the Church and modern psychology believed that these abusers could be healed. But unfortunately today we realize that such long term healing is almost impossible. Since this revelation in the early 2000's the Church has put into place safe guards to keep our children and youth safe from predators. These safeguards include, but is not limited to requiring all Bishops, priests, deacons, employees, volunteers, and anyone who works with children and youth:

- ♦ Be fingerprinted according to Diocesan and Department of Justice procedures;
- ♦ Be background checked by the Department of Justice;
- ♦ Undergo Safe Environment training and certification; with continuing education every three years;
- ♦ Are mandated by law as mandatory reporters.

Additionally seminarians, (priests and deacons) undergo a comprehensive psychological evaluation before entering the seminary and undergo yearly human formation training and education throughout their ordained lives. Should an accusation of sexual abuse be reported, the complaint is sent to and investigated by law enforcement and the Diocese immediately. Victims of sexual abuse by church staff are urged to report the abuse by calling the toll free number (800) 364-3064. The Diocese of Orange has a zero tolerance policy as it applies to sexual abuse cases regardless of the position of the offender. Implementing these safeguards has dramatically reduced the number of reported abuse cases.

Since abuse cases have come to light we've all gone through many of the same emotions; from shock, disgust and anger to grief and disappointment. So much hurt and pain because of the horrible actions of some priest's. And so on behalf of the priesthood of Jesus Christ, I say to you that I am truly sorry and will continue to pray for the healing of all persons effected.

The complete story about the abuse cases in Pennsylvania has not been reported in the media. For this reason we must be vigilant in our pursuit of truth, to get the full story. The Catholic League and Spirit Daily both have compelling reports and blogs which add a reassuring element to where the Church is today as compared to the 1960's through the 90's. I have also personally found Bishop Barron's comments and reflections on this issue to be of great value.

Please watch his latest video's at: <http://bit.ly/2wADHqo> and <http://bit.ly/2MUFQrp>

As I've said, I'm a believer....not because of Judas but because of Jesus. What some priests and bishops did was terribly evil, for me to leave the Church Jesus started because of them would be like saying that evil wins. All my life I've been fighting for good and so now today, how could I allow myself to leave Jesus in the Eucharist because of the horribly evil actions of a few? Yes, those who have broken laws, broken trust and broken innocent lives need to be held responsible for their crimes so that all victims may have their day of justice and hopefully this will never happen again. As Christians we believe that good will always triumph over evil. Our calling is to be part of the solution, to help bring God's goodness, God's kingdom to earth.

Let there be no doubt that our obligation to protect children and young people is our highest priority. So please keep the faith and be assured that our Parish is a Safe Environment for all people, young and old! If you'd like to discuss the abuse issue more please contact me at (714) 529-1821 X116.

Blessings always in Christ Jesus, Fr Dave

Parish Life

PALS Has Begun

Our Parish women's group PALS (Praise, Adoration, Learning & Sharing) is preparing to begin a new session. We invite all of the women of the Parish to join us for prayer and fellowship. PALS meet weekly. Our Morning PALS meets from 9:15 to 11:30 and evening PALS from 6:45 to 9:00PM every Tuesday. Classes will begin for the Sept 11th morning and Sept 18th evening. Welcome Eric!

St. Angela Merici Church would like to congratulate Eric Le Van in his new position as Director of the 11:15 Chorale Choir. Eric is a world renowned pianist who accompanies singers at all the weekend English Masses. He has performed at major festivals in the United States and Europe, notably the Weimar Franz Liszt Festival and the Beethovenfest in Bonn, as well as the Kennedy Center and the Library of Congress in Washington D.C. He holds degrees from the University of Southern California and graduate diplomas from the Musik-Akademie in Basil, Switzerland and the University of Paris, La Sorbonne. As a Fulbright scholar, he studied at the Hochschule für Musik in Hannover, Germany.

He has released widely acclaimed recordings with many record labels as well as being the artistic director of the Franz Liszt Festival in Alsace, France from 1997 to 2003. Afterwards, he moved back to the United States. He lives in Orange County with his family and has enjoyed being part of the St. Angela community since then. Eric has worked with many singers throughout the years as an accompanist and coach. We are extremely blessed to have Eric and his daughters as part of our musical family here at SAM. So please welcome and congratulate Eric in his new position as Music Director!

SAM is Helping the A.C. T. Office

This month St. Angela Merici School will help collect items for the ACT office. We are in need of Pasta Sauce, hot and cold cereals, snack sized cookies, small bags of chips, small bottles of Gatorade, small bottles of water, complete pancake mix, cooking oil, syrup, diced peaches, canned soup, canned meats, canned fruits, toothbrushes, toothpaste and deodorant. You may bring your donation to the A.C.T. office on Monday, Wednesday or Friday from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. If you have further questions give us a call at 714/529-1821 x143

Beware of Gypsies/Panhandlers

Please be aware that this past weekend we had Gypsies begging for money on the Church grounds. Usually they just want money, often the scam is that the money will be used to feed their infant children. In my discussions with the local Police Departments the presence of gypsies on site results in a higher rate of car's being broken into, purses being stolen at Communion time, pick pocketing, and false slip and fall claims against the Church. I recommend not engaging them in conversation or contributing money to them. Please always refer persons in need to our ACT office for assistance.

E.G. Hall in his article Gypsies: Kings of Con reports that the Gypsy crime families are directly responsible for an estimated $15 billion dollars in varying forms of thievery annually in the United States.

If you notice gypsies/panhandlers on the premises please immediately advise our Church ushers, Fr Dave or call the Brea Police Dept. at 714/990-7911.

Great Marriages Don't Just Happen, Couples Make Them

The world has a way of lulling us into a sort of rut. We end up developing a habit of hitting the snooze alarm on our marriages and rolling over for another few minutes. Years can go by and we can forget how great it feels to be fully awake and alive, fully intimate with our spouses. Come and snap out of it! Let a Marriage Encounter Weekend reignite the sizzle of your dating days!

The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is November 2-4. For an informational brochure or to sign up, contact John & Maggie Lee at 714/873-5136 or lee4wwme@att.net. Or visit our website: www.ocwwme.org.

Social Justice

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Mark 9:35

Be a warrior for justice and a transporter of God's Grace by interrupting your life for another human being this week. You can get started by learning a new name. Learn and use the name of someone you have just met, maybe someone who, prior to this interruption, you may not have even noticed. Our names are important; they identify us and are the first sign of our individuality, our specialness, our Sacredness. We can be the servant of all; lifting up those who may be overlooked by friending them in a real way. Learn their names!

El Comité de Justicia Social de la parroquia de Santa Angela Merici invita a todos los feligreses a interrumpir sus vidas con un llamado de Jesús a un discipulado más intencional, sabiendo que nuestro Sí a este llamado permitirá a nuestra comunidad reflejar mejor el mensaje del Evangelio. Al promover la misión social Católica, este comité permitirá a nuestra parroquia enriquecer la vida espiritual de sus miembros y servir a la comunidad en general haciendo lo que es correcto, amando lo que es bueno y caminando humildemente con nuestro Dios.

Empezaremos ayudando a nuestra comunidad a aprender más completamente la Enseñanza Social Católica.

"La Enseñanza Social Católica es un elemento central y esencial de nuestra fe. Sus raíces están arraigadas en los profetas Hebreos quienes anunciaron el amor especial de nuestro Diós por los pobres y quienes llamaron a la gente de Diós a un convenio de amor y justicia. Es una enseñanza fundada en la vida y palabra de Jesucristo, ... La Enseñanza Social Católica se basa en un compromiso con los pobres. Este compromiso surge de nuestras experiencias con Cristo en la Eucaristía." (Conferencia de los Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos, Compartiendo la Enseñanza Católica: Desafíos y Direcciones)

Los Siete Pilares de la Enseñanza Social Católica representan los temas clave que los Obispos han identificado. Estos temas captan el corazón de la Tradición Social Católica.

Los invitamos a que esperen con ansias aprender más sobre estos temas durante todo el año. En particular, encontrarán oportunidades para ayudarnos a expresar estos temas a lo largo de la vida de nuestra comunidad Católica.
