Reflection

For the past several days, I was at a workshop that our Diocese requires for new pastors. There were about 50 new pastors/administrator's in attendance and there was one thing we all had in common; we were all concerned about the various problems and needs of our parishes. The one difference we had was how we dealt with those problems and needs and the type of attitude we have when dealing with the various problems. Often, we can approach our problems by saying that it's just not fair. How many times have we heard this from children or uttered these words about our boss, or even about God?

The Jewish community, in Judah and Babylon during the time of the prophet Ezekiel, certainly felt that way about God, at least until they came to a greater understanding of God's promises to them through Ezekiel's words of judgment and encouragement. Ezekiel speaks for God when he tells the people that it is because of sin, wickedness and lack of virtue that punishment has befallen them – not that suffering and difficulties have come to them because God is unfair. They learn they are responsible for their own actions: If they do what is right and just, they will live; if they do not, they will die.

The same encouragement – yes, encouragement! – comes to us from Saint Paul in his letter to the Philippians. For as we heard from Ezekiel, the promise of life is not based on things beyond human capability. In fact, it is based on our human free will and capacity to choose that which is good, right and just. Saint Paul tells us how. He says, and it's quite simple really, Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others. Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus.

Have the same attitude of Christ Jesus, who – remember – was fully human even as He was fully divine. This is encouraging because it means it is something we can do, with Christ's help. We can, through the practice of virtue and with God's grace, choose that which is good and which is life-giving. Even when our human faults and weaknesses cloud our understanding, we can still choose to follow God's command, as the first son in today's Gospel reading did. We may not know why he initially refused, but we know by his actions that he is the one who had the same attitude as Christ because he did as his father asked.

Let us do the same. Trust in God's promises, rely on Christ's help and allow the grace of the Holy Spirit to work in us – that in all we might do we have the attitude of Christ because it is no longer us who lives, but it is Christ who lives in us. Our true hope of Glory!

Much love in Christ Jesus, Fr Dave

October is Life and Dignity Month

Catholic Social Teaching & the Death Penalty: Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The first and foremost aspect of the Church's teaching that applies to the Death Penalty is the belief in the inherent dignity of the human person. Made in the image and likeness of God, the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society and stands at the heart of the Church's understanding of justice. As Catholics, we believe in a consistent ethic of life, from conception to natural death the sanctity of the human person cannot be diminished. By allowing the state to end a life before natural death, the death penalty contradicts this consistent ethic, and does not conform to our pro-life teaching.

The death penalty violates the sanctity of the human person, and it also threatens innocent life. Despite our best efforts, our criminal justice system is not perfect. According to a 2014 study, at least 4% of those sentenced to death in the United States are innocent. The 159 people and counting who have been exonerated due to their innocence since 1973 exemplify that fact. For every 9 people who have been executed since the death penalty was reinstated in 1976, 1 person has been exonerated after being proven innocent. The death penalty clearly violates the inherent dignity of the human person. For more information please visit: Catholicismobilizing.org. Information will also be available in the courtyard and any question can be discussed on October 14 & 15.

Children's Liturgy

It's Coming Back and we need Volunteers! Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 9:30 Mass is a dismissal program for school age children. The children are able to hear the readings from the Children's Lectionary worded so that they can understand. They leave Mass right before the first reading and return to church after the Universal Prayers. This is a great opportunity for adults who wish to share their Catholic faith through the Sunday readings. Training is available! Contact Debbie Kistler at 714/743-2978 for more information or stop by their table after 9:30 Mass on Welcome Back Sunday!

America Needs Fatima

The public rosary for the Fatima Centennial will be held on October 14th at Brea City Hall Park (down the street from our church) after the 8:00 AM mass. Meet at the pergola where you will see the Fatima banner. Please save the date and plan to come and pray publicly for our country. Contact Jude 714/348-6269 for more information.

Women's Group PALS

Our fellowship continues: AM PALS in the Olson Hall at 9:15 AM, PM PALS in the Sarah Room at 7:00 PM. Please feel free to come even if you were unable to make it last week.

We would like to welcome back our PALS members and any women who would like to join, or have been "meaning to join," our women's group. School Moms feel free to stop by and check us out after you drop off your kids.

Come see for yourself just how being part of this community is special and join your women's group in celebrating Christ's love.

For more information contact #'s are on back of bulletin under 'Women's Group.'

Eucharistic Ministers Needed!

"Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not take care of You?" (Mt 25:44)

St. Jude Medical Center is in need of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to the sick. This wonderful ministry allows you to serve once a month or once a week and you select the time convenient for you. Please contact Marie Barna at 714-992-3000 x3822 for more information.

A.C.T. Office

St. Angela Parishioners: We would like to thank you, on behalf of Active Christians Today, for your very generous donation of back packs and school supplies for our back to school program. Thank you for your support of our organization. Blessings, Maria Fulton, Coordinator

Sacred Heart Holy Hour of Reparation

On Thursday, October 5th @ 7 PM in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

"It is altogether impossible to enumerate the heavenly gifts which devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has poured out on the souls of the faithful, purifying them, offering them heavenly strength, rousing them to the attainment of all virtues...This devotion is a gift to us from God."

(Pope Pius XII, 1956 Encyclical)

We invite you to join in honoring the Sacred Heart of Jesus during this devotion. Prayer books will be provided.

Contact Joan Hosek at 714/983-7560 or joanhosek@att.net.

"Human life is sacred! From the beginning, it involves the creative action of God and remains forever in a special relationship with the Creator, who is life's sole end. God alone is the Lord of life from the beginning until the end: no one can under any circumstance claim for himself the right directly to destroy an innocent human being." Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2258

All Catholics are called to be pro-life – to defend and respect the dignity and sanctity of all human life from the moment of conception to natural death. That call is ignored in abortion. Since abortion was legalized in 1973, through all nine months of pregnancy, 58 million children have died in abortion. Fifty percent of women who have had abortions express serious regret and 44% are diagnosed with severe anxiety disorders as a result of their abortions. According to the Guttmacher Institute, Planned Parenthood's own research group, 91.7% of women seeking abortions report that their reasons were socioeconomic. In other words, if they had the proper resources, they would have kept their child and avoided so much heartbreak and pain!

Pro-life Crisis Pregnancy Centers provide this much needed support – material, spiritual and emotional. They receive donations of diapers, clothing and furniture, and provide services to women free of charge. Client advocates listen with love and concern, working with local shelters and counseling services to provide families the support and resources needed to keep families together and make them self-sufficient. Local parishes help with donations and prayer, for both the families in need and the staff at these centers, many of whom are professionally trained volunteers.

October is Respect Life Month, an opportunity to remember those whose lives are not respected, and a chance to redouble our efforts to promote the protection of those innocents who cannot speak for themselves. Please pray for all Crisis Pregnancy Centers, especially the La Habra Life Center, our closest center. They will also gladly receive donations of clothing, diapers and financial support. Checks should be made payable to St. Angela Merici, with a notation to be used for Crisis Pregnancy Centers. They can be dropped off at the Parish Office. Thank you so much for your prayers and help! This truly makes a difference and saves lives!

Any women or families in need are welcome to come, no appointment needed! For more information contact the center directly at 562/691-9395. The address is 860 E La Habra Blvd. La Habra, 90631.
