

Holy Hour of Reparation to THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

7:00 to 8:00 PM

The Thursday before First Friday of the Month
Blessed Sacrament Chapel

Behold the heart which has so loved men.”

“Can you spend one hour with me?”

Our Lord appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in France (1671 to 1690), and revealed to her His Sacred Heart wounded by the lack of respect for the Blessed Sacrament --His Body and Blood-- and wounded by the many other sins of the world. For that reason Our Lord requested her to originate a Holy Hour of Reparation to His Sacred Heart.

In Pope Pius XI's' Encyclical called Miserentissimus Redemptor, he often refers to the conversations between Jesus and Saint Margaret, and the pressing need for all Catholics to perform acts of reparation and expiation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus for the sins that the whole human race offers constantly to God.

Pope Pius's' description of the decadent times in which he issued this great plea for devotion and reparation appears to be strikingly like our own, especially in the matters of attacks on the Catholic Church and the erosion of morals and religious liberty. Let us not think that the words of Popes are not valuable just because they were uttered decades ago. Time and time again, Popes are found to be prophetic and right. Their voices don't fade like echoes, they get stronger once we have tuned our ears to hear them again.

Please join us in this beautiful Holy Hour of Reparation as Jesus requested. We will and use a booklet titled, Holy Hour of Reparation (copies supplied). For information contact Joan Hosek at 714-983-7560 or joanhosek@att.net

The Sacred Heart of Jesus promised to Saint Margaret Mary that he would reward abundantly with his graces all those who should render this honor to His Heart.
