SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FEBRUARY 16, 2020

REFLECTION

You have heard some people say, "I have donated thousands of dollars to charity," but I say to you, they donated it not because they care about the poor, but because they want to have the tax deduction. You have heard politicians say they are pro this or anti that, but I say to you, they did that not because they care about the well-being of the society, but because they just want to get the vote. Motives defining our actions can be moral or immoral.

This Sunday's reading from Matthew's Gospel shows Jesus wants us to take a closer look at the ten commandments and how our innermost motives can prompt our action or inaction (to do nothing). Matthew clarifies that Jesus had no intention to overturn the law of Moses, but to fulfill it (5:17). This clarification was necessary to satisfy the Jewish audience among the Christian community during Matthew's time. Even though Matthew's gospel reflected a strong Jewish background, more Gentiles were converting to Christianity and were learning from Matthew's teachings. Matthew chose Jesus's teachings carefully to not offend the Jews and yet, at the same time, encourage more Gentiles to convert by not over-emphasizing the Jewish law. Matthew highlights this point when he records Jesus's words, "Amen, I say to you, that until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law until all things have taken place." (5:19)

Jesus wants us to think about our motives for following the ten commandments. Is it because we want to look good or be known for being an honorable or righteous person or does it go deeper? When Jesus says, "You have heard it said (by God to Moses), but I say to you," Jesus wants his listeners to dig deeper into their own behaviors and understand what the commandments mean to them personally. When Jesus said, "you shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment," (5:22), he took that commandment to a deeper meaning and said "whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment" (5:23) and you must be reconciled to your brother before you can bring your gifts to the altar.(5:23) He further says that whoever even looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.(5:29)

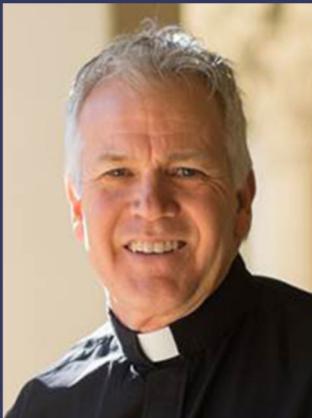

These things are hidden from others because they are based on motives, which can be concealed deep inside a person. However, the character of a person can be seen by the consistency of the values a person holds. For example, this consistency of values means if I love the poor, I will find a way to love them and to help them, regardless of whether I am rich or poor. If this love is genuine and is from the teaching of Christ, it extends not only to the poor, but to all. It is consistent in all circumstances and in all conditions. Jesus has set the example of consistency. He consistently forgives his enemies, cures the sick and teaches about love, even at the most inconvenient times. The whole Gospel is full of examples of Jesus's love and consistency. When we examine our own conduct, are our motives pure and our values consistent with the teachings of Christ about loving one another? Or, do we choose our values to fit our own perceptions and for our own convenience?

CREDIBLE CATHOLIC

*Successive PEW surveys have shown that religion is on a steep decline. Our youth is particularly hard hit. In 2016, those aged 18-29 selected “none” as their affiliation 39% of the time (hence the nickname “nones”.). This is up from 23% in 2006. This will grow to 50% by 2023 if left unabated.

EXAMPLES OF REASONS WHY PEOPLE ARE UNAFFILIATED

DON'T BELIEVE

- "LEARNING ABOUT EVOLUTION WHEN I WENT AWAY TO COLLEGE."
- "TOO MANY CHRISTIANS DOING UN-CHRISTIAN THINGS."
- "RELIGION IS THE OPIATE OF THE PEOPLE."
- "RATIONAL THOUGHT MAKES RELIGION GO OUT THE WINDOW."
- "LACK OF ANY SORT OF SCIENTIFIC OR SPECIFIC EVIDENCE OF A CREATOR."
- "I JUST REALIZED SOMEWHERE ALONG THE LINE THAT I DIDN'T REALLY BELIEVE IT."
- "I'M DOING A LOT MORE LEARNING, STUDYING AND KIND OF MAKING DECISIONS MYSELF RATHER THAN LISTENING TO SOMEONE ELSE."

AUGUST 2016 PEW SURVEY

*Credible Catholic (CC) is NOT just another provider of Catholic content. Credible Catholic is a force designed to stem the atrophy from within our Church and theism in general. Credible Catholic marks the return of apologetics in our education channels (as preferred by our Bishops). Interested in finding out more? Credible Catholic is 7 essential modules developed by Fr. Robert J. Spitzer, S. J., Ph.D. (EWTN Fr. Spitzer's Universe) to help us understand more clearly that faith and science do not collide but are compatible with each other.
