TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 21, 2020

PARISH UPDATE

Dear friends,

Our re-opening was a great success which couldn't have been achieved without the generous help of Rodger Huber, Jim Remley and boys, Jason Padilla, our ushers and the Knights of Columbus, Natalie Espada, Dcn. Mike and Sue de Grasse. Thank you all very much!

Please remember you are not required to attend Mass; Bishop Vann has granted dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass until further notice. If you choose to attend, our Mass times will be the same as before. Per the Governor there is a limit of 100 people in the Church and 100 in the hall if it is used. Holy Communion will be given in the hand; as the Bishop has strongly discouraged reception of Communion on the tongue to avoid the potential spread of the Covid Virus. Before receiving Communion, please sanitize your hands, then receive the Host in your hand and step six feet aside before lifting your mask to consume the consecrated Host. Holy Communion must be consumed immediately after receiving.

Drive up Communion

If you are over the age of 65, or sick, someone in your home is sick, you have a pre-existing health condition, or you're concerned about your health; you're encouraged to view the weekend Mass and then drive to St. Angela's to receive Holy Communion. Pull into the parking lot entrance closest to the school office off Walnut. An attendant will direct you where to park and when to get out of your vehicle to receive Communion. The Communion station will be in the parking lot lunch table area. Please wear a mask and sanitize your hands before receiving. Holy Communion for drive-ups will be available after each regularly scheduled Sunday Mass has ended from 6-6:15pm Saturday, 8:45-9, 10:30-10:45, 12:15-1pm, 1:45-2pm and 6:00-6:15 Sunday. Please exit the parking lot onto Fir and not Walnut.

Mass in the Church

If you choose to attend Mass in the church, we ask you to do the following:

1. Each person entering the Church must have an Attendance Card. These cards will be issued from a table outside the Church near Walnut 20 minutes prior to the beginning of each Mass. No cards will be issued for future Masses and there can be no saving of Attendance Cards.
2. The Attendance Cards will be issued on a first come, first serve basis. Each person wanting to attend Mass must be in line to receive the card and then hand the card to the usher at the entrance to the Walnut St. side of the church. There will be only one entrance to the church and hall, the main doors in the back of the church near Walnut and the main hall doors off the plaza. Additional entrance and exiting guidance will be provided. No other doors can be used to enter the church or hall.
3. Please follow the direction of the Ushers. Upon entering the church, another Usher will guide you to the appropriate area. The pews to either side of the main aisle will mostly be used for families of 3 or more. The side pews will be mostly used for couples and singles.
4. Ushers will guide you to receive Communion row by row. Please wait for the usher to direct you. Once you have received Holy Communion please return to your pew, keeping 6' safe distancing.
5. If you have any questions, please see a staff member or usher wearing an orange vest and they will gladly assist you. After Mass has concluded, please go directly to your vehicle, social gathering before or after Mass should be avoided. Please remember the importance of safe distancing and wearing your mask at all times. Your hands should be sanitized on the way into Mass and as you leave.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

The first reading of this twelfth Sunday in ordinary time is from one of the most remarkable chapters of the Old Testament. Jeremiah was a man of amazing faith and amazing endurance who loved and preached in Jerusalem about six hundred years before the time of Jesus. Jeremiah received a message from the Lord about the advancing armies of the Babylonians. The message was, because of the unfaithfulness and idolatry of the people of Israel, Yahweh would no longer protect them if they were to take up arms against the Babylonians. Their only hope would be, as an act of total trust in God's mercy, to put down their arms and make peace with their enemies.

Civic leaders began to claim Jeremiah's preaching was undermining the morale of the soldiers, and he was accused of treason. Then Jeremiah was imprisoned, put on trial, and eventually thrown into a dried up well and left there to die. A friend rescued him, and he bravely continued his preaching task right up to the day the Babylonians put Jerusalem to the torch and destroyed it utterly.

There was another side to Jeremiah's story – it is of the personal battle between the prophet and the God who had given him such a terrible and thankless mission. Because of the mockery and ridicule, he had suffered, Jeremiah made a decision not to speak in Yahweh's name any more. Then, the word of God became like a fire burning within him, and he couldn't hold it in any longer. We hear his ultimate confidence in God in spite of everything. "But the Lord is with me, like a mighty champion" and "my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph." Did God respond positively to Jeremiah's suffering, and to his brave efforts to hold onto his faith? It would appear not. In fact, on another occasion, after Jeremiah had complained once again, Yahweh said to him: "If running against men has wearied you, how will you race against horses?" (Jr 12:5).

The Book of Jeremiah is a marvelous story about a prophet with a mission, how he suffered because of that mission, and at the same time, he was conscious the Lord was at his side like a mighty warrior. It is the story of a tremendously intimate relationship between a human being and his God. Those of you who enjoy a close relationship with someone will know it is those we love the most who have the capacity to stir up the deepest kind of anger in us; it is they who can disappoint and hurt us the most. If we have a loving relationship with the Lord, there will be angry times too, but that's no reason to give up. Remember Jeremiah.

WHAT'S NEXT FOR THE CHURCH?

The COVID-19 pandemic has been, for countless people around the world, a great and unexpected trial. For Catholics, this trial is not only economic, social, or medical—it is spiritual. Plunged into a time of darkness and separated from the sacraments and their parish communities, the faithful are feeling isolated, disheartened, and uncertain about what the future holds.

This free eBook is an insightful and encouraging analysis of the coronavirus, shedding light not only on the Church's present moment or similar crises of the past but also on the immediate future.

WORK, SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY: GIVE EMERGENCY KITS TO PEOPLE WHO COUNT ON YOU (COLLEGE STUDENTS, ELDERLY PARENTS, ETC.)

Put together basic emergency kits for people who may not be able to do so for themselves or for those who may not think of doing it for themselves. Show them what is in the kit and talk to them about disasters.

Make sure the kit meets their specific needs. For instance, if someone takes prescription medicine, include a list of medications and dosages. For a college student, make sure the kit is small enough to store in the space they have available.

College Students

Talk to your college student about how you will stay in touch if a disaster occurs. Make sure they understand cell phones may not work during a disaster. Choose an emergency contact who does not live near you or the college. Arrange with your student to call that person if they cannot reach you during a disaster.

Visit the website for your student's college to find out about the school's disaster plans and procedures. Some colleges will provide a phone number that you can call in an emergency. If you don't find the number on the website, call the admissions office and ask. Add the number to your emergency contact list. Make sure your student knows to call you if there is an emergency on campus. Also, ensure your student is registered for any emergency notification system on their campus.

Insurance

Talk to your insurance agent to find out if your policy covers your student's belongings while they are away at school. You may need to buy an additional renter's policy. Also check with your health insurance carrier to find out where your student can find covered healthcare at school.
