SEPTEMBER 6, 2020

WELCOME TO OUR NEW PRINCIPAL

Dear St. Angela Merici Community,

I am very honored yet humbled to be your new St. Angela Merici Parish school principal. I am blessed to join the St. Angela Merici family, dedicated to a legacy of building community, celebrating through worship, and serving others. Rest assured I share your commitment to providing all St. Angela students with opportunities for high achievement within a secure and loving environment.

I return to St. Angela Merici Parish school again having once been a parent, a teacher, and part of the admin team. My first teaching position at St. Angela was fifth grade in 2001. I was so young and could only dream of one day becoming your principal. Now, here I am a seasoned school administrator beginning a new chapter at St. Angela, a school which inspired my love for Catholic education.

Many of you may remember me as the second grade teacher or the assistant principal seven years ago. I cherish all the memories St. Angela gave me and I am so blessed to have the opportunity to be back home. As an administrator, I have worked in many different capacities. During my tenure, I piloted a new curriculum, implemented new strategies for small group instruction such as Daily Five, Step Up to Writing, and Blended Learning, I hosted professional development for faculty and staff as well as being a mentor for new teachers. In addition, I am on the Diocesan Curriculum committee, the Leadership team for Multi-Tiered System of Support and continue to chair WCEA accreditation. Though these accomplishments are very noteworthy, I must admit my greatest accomplishment is raising my three children in the Catholic School system. I am an advocate for Catholic education and my priority is to continue to be an advocate for all students.

As I prepare our school for the 2020-21 school year, circumstances have changed with Covid-19. Planning for a safe return to school feels like a very long family road trip. We all have been on this road trip for almost six months and we just want to know when it will end and... Are we there yet? St. Angela Merici school has applied for the waiver and now we wait. I know for many of our families, this news is very frustrating as we are on hold. Like the little passenger in the backseat, it may feel like we may never get to our destination.

If the waiver is approved, we will begin in-class instruction for TK-6 students who would like to attend school in person (Option 1) or you may begin the school year at home (Option 2). Seventh and eighth grade students do not have the option of returning to campus and must begin with Distance Learning. If the waiver is not approved and/or the Covid-19 data is not in clear for a 14 day period, we will begin Distance learning for all. The Diocese of Orange hopes to give us an answer soon.

Believe me, I share your frustration. However, just like the 'family road trip' seemingly endless. We will arrive at our destination. We will not remain exiled in this strange land forever. We teach and live our virtues with our students at school, which we are called to live out in homes. Let faith, charity, and fortitude overcome the length of this trip and the sting of any frustrations we may feel now.

Again, I thank you for your support and please feel free to reach out to me as my door is always open for you. I pray for all our St. Angela Merici families as we continue on this road trip together.

In prayer,

Mrs. JoAnn Telles, Principal St. Angela Merici Parish School

SUNDAY REFLECTION

In writing to the Romans, St. Paul says the person who loves another has fulfilled the law. He is reiterating the teaching of Christ, indeed, his greatest commandment. The commandment to love, inclusive of one another, oneself, and God. This greatest of all Commandments is found in all four of the Gospels. Jesus is the love of God made flesh. He came out of love for love. He came to save us, to make us whole again, to make us holy. The love Jesus commands, and lives, is not a set of warm or fuzzy feelings. It is a profound willingness for our good, and a selfless desire we be who we are made to be. This is the love we also are commanded to live.

We are asked to will, to want, to seek, and to make happen the ultimate good of those God puts around us. This is not always easy, and it is not always pleasant. We see examples of this in both the reading from Ezekiel and in our Gospel. The Lord tells the prophet Ezekiel he will be held responsible for the death of the wicked if he does not speak out to dissuade them from their evil ways.

Now, I don't know about you but one of the things I least enjoy doing is confronting another person. It's just an uncomfortable situation. In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us instructions on how we should correct those who sin against us; how to raise our voices against wickedness, speaking out and speaking up when we see others living apart from God. To do so is to love, and it is a commandment. Jesus makes it clear we are not asked to do this from afar e.g., from behind computer screens or behind backs but one-on-one at first and always face to face. We are called to be present, to correct our brother who has sinned against us in person. We are called to be in relationship, to know of this sin in the first place because it is "against us" because we are close. Call it tough love, accountability, charitable or fraternal correction, or even speaking the truth in love, as Saint Paul says elsewhere (Ephesians 4:15).

It is a love that truly desires the good of the other, and will intervene out of love for the sake of another's salvation, just as the Father did in sending us His Son. Ultimately, the one who chooses evil over good has forged their own path away from God and one another. But in following the command to love one another in the ways just described, we can help others find the path toward life. I always encourage people to first "choose to forgive" as an act of the intellect because usually you're not going to "feel" like forgiving the person who wronged you. Secondly "ask God to bless them"and not with a lightning bolt.... but with God's mercy and compassion. This will help us to keep our side of the street clean as the saying goes. Indeed, we are our brother's keeper and Jesus, who is present here in the Eucharist, gives us the grace to do just that.
