PARISH UPDATE

Happy Easter Season! Jesus Christ is risen! Alleluia!

It's great to see the number of Covid vaccinations going up (almost 600,000 fully vaccinated in Orange County) and the number of Covid cases coming down. In fact, the seven-day average of confirmed new cases in Orange County has dropped from 3,500 in January to less than 120 today. Given this low infection rate, the increased number of people who are vaccinated and the knowledge churches are not super-spreader locations, we are slowly and cautiously opening up for more activities. Our church office is now open every day from 8 to 11am and every evening from 4 to 7pm except Sunday evening.

The Diocese is also allowing church services to reduce the 6 feet safe distance between people from different households to 3 feet. This is based on the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention guidance for distancing in schools. There is no longer a capacity limit for people inside the church provided we wear masks and keep the minimum 3' safe distance rule. I've been taking informal poles about reducing the distance from 6 to 3 feet and there's about 20% of our parishioners who, for health reasons, want to maintain the 6-foot safe distancing rule. For this reason, and because our attendance allows us to maintain the 6' rule, I believe it's best to postpone reducing the safe distance from 6 to 3'. It's great to know that, in time, we have the option to sit closer to each other and still be safe.

Another exciting announcement is all of our ministry related groups are now allowed to meet inside, provided food is not served. This includes the Knights of Columbus, PALS, Social Justice, charismatic prayer groups, Fire, Ignite, Rosary, etc. Also, last week, the CDC issued a new study regarding the chance of COVID-19 being contracted through contact with a contaminated surface as being very low, or less than 1 in 10,000. As a safety precaution we will still continue to disinfect surfaces and as always, encourage people to sanitize their hands.

From Ash Wednesday into the Easter season, the church and all of our services were absolutely amazing. What a beautiful tribute to our Resurrected Lord Jesus Christ. It takes many hands and much hard work to coordinate the beautiful services celebrated. A special thank you to all those involved in ministry from our Priests, Deacons, Sacristans, Eucharistic Ministers, Cantors, Accompanist, Ushers, Knights of Columbus, our liturgy committee, environment committee, custodians, volunteers and many others. Without your support we could do nothing. With your support we can do everything.

This past month we kicked off our annual Pastoral Services Appeal, PSA. PSA provides an opportunity for us to join together as one Diocese of Orange church family in our support of many diverse ministries like; Catholic Education, Clergy Formation and Support, Outreach ministries to the poor and needy, and Parish and Diocesan Development. These ministries and services benefit our own parish as well as parishes and people all over Orange County. With funds from PSA, we will be able to address some significant needs here at St. Angela Merici Church. This year we have chosen to focus on refurbishing/replacing our church pews. With all the major improvements to our lighting system we can now see how our pews and kneelers have fallen into disrepair. In the months ahead we will hear how we can respond to this call to carry on the work of Christ in our community. Please prayerfully consider how you will be able to support this important appeal.

Resurrection Blessings to all, Fr. Dave

SUNDAY REFLECTION

JESUS CALLS US TO BE WITNESSES OF HIS TRUTH BY THE PRACTICE OF OUR FAITH

Pontius Pilate in St. John's Gospel (Jn. 18:38) responded to a statement by Jesus about truth with a rhetorical question: "Truth! What does that mean?" He probably believed truth is what one makes it, not the truth grounded in the very character and being of God which we who are baptized try to witness in our daily lives.

In this Third Sunday of Easter, both Jesus in St. Luke's Gospel and St. Peter in the first reading call us to be witnesses to truth in regards to Jesus' ministry, passion, death, and resurrection. To do that, we need to understand what that truth means to us and how to share it with others, both believers and non-believers. Depending on which Bible one is using, the word truth is listed as many as 235 times according to mathematicians who count such things. The number of times, however, is not as important as to the context in which the word truth is used as it references God's truth. The latter requires faith which is what we are called to witness on a personal level.

For me, it starts with prayer. If I am going to share truth about God through how I practice my faith, I need to understand God's message. Reading of the Hebrew Scripture (Old Testament) or from the New Testament, provides me with multiple answers to questions about truth. However, it is prayer that opens my mind and heart as to how that truth touches me in my faith journey.

Being touched by God through prayer and understanding helps me share openly about how God's message makes life real; not only when things are good, but in times of overwhelming darkness. The latter is particularly true when I cannot find a path to overcome in myself or through others. Only God has answers to my needs. Additionally, He proves it to me through His teachings of love, His suffering and death on a cross for the forgiveness of my sins, and His resurrection to open the gates of salvation to join Him in glory for everlasting life.

Recent examples of this have come through the devastation and sadness suffered by so many who have lost loved ones due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Though the Catholic Church offers several services to help comfort people at this time, institutions are handling these deaths with speed because they are out of room to store the bodies at either the hospitals or mortuaries. Relatives and friends are unable to get closure of any kind due to the swift progression of safety protocols. This is especially true when the time of separation between illness and death has been several months. Mortuaries pick up the deceased from the hospitals and deliver them directly to the cemetery for immediate burial, bypassing vigil, Mass, and committal services. Because of this, I combined some aspects of both the vigil and committal rites so relatives and friends can gather together sometime after the burial to express their thoughts about what the deceased person meant to them. They have come to realize how their lives have been changed because of their relationship and that there is so little time on earth to be with one another. Their sharing is more about God's presence through times of joy and peace, as well as when there are hardships. It opens them to the hope of an eternal life that truly is of benefit to practicing a faith as well as being in touch with God more often.

For me, it has given me an insight into how we are so connected no matter our background, ethnicity, faith, or anything else. We are all created by God out of His love to be one with Him in thought, word, and deed, as well as in faith, hope, and love. Our relationship with God is not just something we talk about, but practice as best we can as humans with a sinful nature. We also are more cognizant of our interface with all of God's creation as we are called to love others as Jesus loves us.

The witness of truth to which Jesus and Peter call us to is about that personal sharing of how God has touched us spiritually through the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit by the practice of our faith. It is our real-life experiences that speak so loudly of what being faith filled has done for us in good and bad times.

Let us take this Easter Season to look how we have been changed through the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus the Christ who in obedience to His Father's will gave Himself so we could be whole. Let us then, in turn, give ourselves to those with whom we come in contact, whether we know them or not. We are part of the same family of God. We just need to be reminded God is still here for us and will never let go. Let us be witnesses who never let go in sharing God's truth through our lived faith.

Deacon Jim Merle

TRUCK NEEDED

We are in need of a used truck for various maintenance purposes here at St Angela's. If you're thinking of getting rid of your old truck or know of someone who is.... perhaps we could use her here at St Angela's.

FUNERAL PLANNING

If you are planning a funeral, please call our Funeral Coordinator, Denise Bittel at (714) 269-3362, Denise will help you to schedule the Mass and gravesite service. Funerals will be held in the church.

CHURCH CROSS

One of the many projects we've been working on this past year has been the construction of a brand-new church cross.

When the bell tower was removed for seismic reasons the church cross was also removed. This occurred many years ago and left our church without a cross. The church cross provides a visible sign of our faith and an expression of our faith to the community at large. I'm very pleased to announce a very generous donor has paid for the construction of the 15' high cross mounted on a 15' high pedestal and the associated concrete work. A big THANKS goes to Teresita Pabalan, Jim Aube, Bill Morgan, Franz Liem, Juan Santana, Ferdinand Mata, and all involved in making this project possible. Thank you all! Fr Dave

FLOCKNOTE/ENGAGE

St. Angela's will be testing a new way to connect and engage with each parishioner! Flocknote/Engage helps churches find smarter ways to text and email their members. Churches using this platform can reach all of their members at a moment's notice and create a more engaged membership with relevant information along with access to amazing, inspiring content through the Word on Fire Institute. Our goal is to encourage our community to achieve higher attendance, increased stewardship, and a more connected church. Please take a minute to download the app. St. Angela's will be evaluating whether we will continue to use this app depending on how often it was used during Lent.

THE SOLEMNITY OF ST. JOSEPH, TRULY A SAINT FOR OUR TIMES

The Gospel of Matthew gives emphasis to St. Joseph, for it is through him that the legal, filial line passed from King David to Jesus. The following are virtues we all stand to learn from St. Joseph.

St. Joseph's Silence: If we look at Sacred Scripture, there is not one word uttered by St. Joseph that was recorded. God speaks to us in the depths of our hearts, for he knows our deepest desires. In our world full of distraction especially through social media and those plug into our ears, we pause for a while and look at the beauty of nature and see His masterpiece.

St. Joseph's Trust: An angel appeared to Joseph in a dream, explaining that the child in Mary's womb had been conceived by the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit, and so when he awoke, he "did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him" (Mt 1:24). Trusting in the Lord meant putting everything in His hands. We must choose not to worry ourselves with all the superficial things of daily life, but rather rely on His Holy Will, for He who is the source of everything will not let us go astray.

St. Joseph's Responsibility: "He rose, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel" (Mt 2:21). Being the earthly father of Jesus, he took the responsibility of raising the child of God with the help of Mary. It is in his arms that the child Jesus felt love and care. Responsibility means carrying out the task at hand wholeheartedly and with dedication. This piece was contributed to Catholic-Link by guest-author, Andrew Chanco.

A Family Man: Surely, St. Joseph would not have needed to discipline the child Jesus. Still, we were moved by this StoryCorps vignette about a strong, silent, hard-working father, and the kind of influence he wields, even without words (like St. Joseph). Listen as a son reflects back on his upbringing and his father, who – with a mere stern glance – and the gravitas that only a father who has earned his God-given authority, can manifest.

St. Joseph is a saint for all times, but truly and especially a saint for our times. In an age where the crisis in families, absentee fathers, proliferation of pornography, and any other number of distortions pertaining to masculinity seem to wound every family and community, surely Saint Joseph is a patron for us in many ways. Let us turn to him with our aches and intentions as a special intercessor.

THANK YOU!!

The parish Knights of Columbus council and SAM PALS group wish to express our sincere thanks to all the parishioners and their families who participated in the Lenten rice bowl drive. The proceeds of your generous Lenten almsgiving will be sent to Catholic Relief Services (CRS) to support their outreach to many countries that are affected by lack of food and resources.

This Lent CRS Rice Bowl reminded us of three countries - Madagascar, El Salvador, and Timor-Leste. Hunger and malnutrition, which happens when we do not get the right amount of nutrients, are challenges too many families face each day. One out of every 10 people worldwide do not have enough to eat. Sometimes this is caused by natural disasters like floods and droughts. Other times, families do not have enough money to buy the food they need, or the food they can get doesn't have all the vitamins and minerals they need to stay healthy.

CRS helps communities find solutions to each of these problems. Farming families learn new skills and grow stronger, healthier harvests. Communities train health care workers so children can get regular check-ups and parents can learn new nutritious recipes to make sure their families get a balanced diet. People in vulnerable areas prepare for unpredictable weather that could destroy crops.

Jesus calls us to help those in need. Your Lenten prayers, fasting, and sacrificial gifts helped us answer this call. If you missed the rice bowl drop off and still want to help, you can send your contributions directly to Catholic Relief Services

APRIL Is Child Abuse Prevention Month

Every April, Catholic parishes and schools across the United States participate in National Child Abuse Prevention Month.

The Effects of ABUSE

When a child is abused, the effects are grave and can last a lifetime. Some of the most common effects of abuse include:

- Loss of faith and trust in God.
- Post-traumatic stress disorder, psychological distress, and other indirect signs of trauma, such as anxiety, trouble sleeping, chronic stomach pain, and headaches.
- A greater risk of developing behavioral problems, substance abuse, and suicide.

The sense of violation goes deep into a person's psyche and feelings of anger, shame, hurt, and betrayal can build long after the abuse has taken place.

Steps to Prevent ABUSE

Communicate with Your Children

It is extremely important to communicate openly with your children. Let them know that they can talk to you about anything that bothers them. This will help you identify warning signs and grooming behaviors perpetrated by offenders before they escalate to abuse.

Educate Yourself and Your Children on Abuse

Learning how to identify, prevent, and report abuse is key. Parents and guardians should empower their children to protect themselves from harm and to report abuse. Ask your diocesan safe environment coordinator or parish delegate about opportunities for safe environment training.

Identify and Report Warning Signs of Child Abusers

Grooming behaviors are the actions abusers take to project the image that they are kind, generous, caring people, while their intent is to lure a minor into an inappropriate relationship. Offenders can be patient and may groom their victim, his or her family, or community for years.

Some abusers isolate a potential victim by giving him or her undue attention or lavish gifts, while others allow young people to participate in activities which their parents or guardians would not approve, such as watching pornography, drinking alcohol, using drugs, and excessive touching, such as wrestling and tickling. Abusers also often try to isolate their victims from family or friends and encourage their victims to keep secrets from their parents or other caring adults.

Holding Offenders ACCOUNTABLE

To help hold offenders accountable, report all suspected abuse to local public authorities. You can also contact your local diocesan victim assistance coordinator to make a report and seek outreach for the abused.

In accordance with diocesan policy, when a single act of sexual abuse is admitted or established, the offender is to be removed permanently from ministry.

"Let it be clear that before these abominations the Church will spare no effort to do all that is necessary to bring to justice whosoever has committed such crimes . . . To those who abuse minors I would say this: convert and hand yourself over to human justice, and prepare for divine justice."

—Pope Francis, Dec. 21, 2018
