SUNDAY REFLECTION

Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Thomas Merton entered the Monastery of Gethsemani on December 10, 1941. He was happy to put the world behind him and to devote his life to prayer and solitude. Many years later when he visited Louisville as a Trappist monk, he was fearful about returning to the "world". He stood on the corner of Fourth and Walnut in the shopping district and his eyes were opened.

It was like waking from a dream of separateness...
I have the immense joy of being a member of the race in which God Himself became incarnate.

There is no way of telling people that they are all walking around shining like the sun.

Thomas Merton's eyes were opened to the mystery of God, dwelling in our midst. Deacon Ephrem in the fourth Century said that we see the world through the eye of Eve or the eye of Mary. Through the eye of Eve, we see the world as a dark place of sin and death. Through the eye of Mary, Our Mother, "We behold the Lamb of God."

The world you see has two eyes fixed in it:
Eve is its left eye, blind,
while the right eye, bright is Mary.

Inmediatamente recuperó la vista y lo siguió por el camino.

Thomas Merton ingresó al Monasterio de Getsemaní el 10 de diciembre de 1941. Estaba feliz de dejar el mundo atrás y dedicar su vida a la oración y la soledad. Muchos años después, cuando visitó Louisville como monje trapense, temía regresar al "mundo". Se paró en la esquina de Fourth y Walnut en el distrito comercial y sus ojos se abrieron.

Fue como despertar de un sueño de separación ...
Tengo la inmensa alegría de ser miembro de la carrera en la que
Dios mismo se encarnó.

No hay forma de decirle a la gente que todos están caminando brillando como el sol.

Los ojos de Thomas Merton se abrieron al misterio de Dios, que habitaba entre nosotros. El diácono Ephrem en el siglo IV dijo que vemos el mundo a través del ojo de Eva o del ojo de María. A través del ojo de Eva, vemos el mundo como un lugar oscuro de pecado y muerte. A través de los ojos de María, Nuestra Madre, "Contemplamos al Cordero de Dios".

El mundo que ves tiene dos ojos fijos en él:
Eva es el ojo izquierdo de i, ciega, mientras que el ojo derecho, brillante es María.

Saint Ephrem the Syrian, 4th Century.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

Our Ministry to the Sick and Homebound consists of a team of Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist and needs people to help. St. Angela's EM's bring Christ's Eucharistic Presence to over 100 of our sick and homebound brothers and sisters in 6 nearby care facilities and in their homes weekly. We bring our own as well as Jesus' love, compassion, commitment, and presence to others in their times of need. You too can help with a commitment of as little as ½ hour a week. Step out of your comfort zone and into the Sacred work of Christ. Contact Frank Waclawik for more information or to sign up for a ride along as part of your discernment process. Come and say YES! Call Frank at (714) 815-0656.

HEALING MASS

Please join us at the Healing Mass on Monday, October 18 at 7:15pm. Fr. Ben Tran will be our celebrant. Come experience the healing power of Christ.

CAUTION!

Please do not respond to requests for help or money from Fr. Randy. Scammers have been contacting parishioners by phone making these requests. If you receive a message from an unknown number do not respond! Contact the parish office if you have any questions.

ALL SOULS DAY

In honor of the Feast of All Souls, St. Angela Merici Parish will celebrate a special bilingual Mass of Remembrance on Tuesday, November 2, at 7:00 PM in the church. This Mass will be offered for all those souls from our parish who were born into eternal life during the past year and for the souls in purgatory. Due to the All Souls Mass, there will not be a 6 pm Mass that day.

All are welcome to attend, and families and friends of the deceased are encouraged to join us in this special All Souls Bilingual Mass. Parish families will be invited to come forward with a flower (provided by the church) and place it at the altar in memory of their loved one when his or her name is presented.

For questions, please contact Denise Bittel dlbittel@aol.com or at 714-269-3362.

JOHN & MAGGIE LEE

This past September 24, our own John Lee and 21 other classmates stood in front of the Altar of Christ Cathedral and were officially accepted by Bishop Kevin Vann as Candidates for, God willing, for ordination to the Diaconate. John and Maggie Lee have been involved in a process of diaconate formation: attending classes several nights a week in subjects such as Old and New Testament Studies, Moral Theology, and learning how to pray the Liturgy of the Hours. They have also participated in one Sunday a month of spiritual formation days, and an annual retreat for the past two and a half years.

Their spiritual formation has centered around whether God is calling them, and specifically John, to service as an ordained deacon for the Diocese of Orange, and again, God willing, for our parish. As candidates, they will continue in a more intense process of discernment of the Holy Spirit. Their classes and formation will continue, and if they are called by the bishop, will be ordained in October, 2023.

John and his wife Maggie have been parishioners of St. Angela since they were married here in 1988. John grew up in Malaysia; Maggie grew up in New Jersey. They met at a Beach Mass here in Southern California. They have been involved in various ministries over the years: Music, Marriage Encounter, Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Bread of Angels, Religious Ed, and RCIA. They are both retired (John was a Family Physician; Maggie was a Software Engineer). They have lived in Fullerton for most of their married life. John enjoys gardening, cooking, and eating; Maggie enjoys reading, baking, and eating; they both love to travel.

Let us pray for their class and for John and Maggie, our own candidate couple from St. Angela Merici as they journey towards ordained service in our parish!
