SUNDAY REFLECTION

Today we hear once again of the deep connection between Jesus and Israel's prophets. In the reading from Jeremiah, God's curses at the opening are counterbalanced by God's blessings in the second part. In Luke's version of the Beatitudes, Jesus begins with blessings, then counterbalances with a "woe" section. The point is clear: the way we live our lives has a direct connection to whether we will experience curses and woes, or blessings instead. Of course, being among God's blessed ones (in Latin, beati, from which "beatitudes" comes) doesn't necessarily mean a life free of woe. Jesus, in his fully human nature, knew this. He also knew that when we seek happiness through our own devices, and trust only in ourselves, the woes are guaranteed to come. Let us follow the wisdom of Jeremiah and Jesus, along with the opening of the book of Psalms (echoed by Jeremiah today): "blessed are the ones who trust in the Lord."

I DON'T KNOW

There are times when the smartest, but most difficult, thing we can say is, "I don't know." While we often think of this as a sign of weakness, the amount of humility it takes to say this means that the word of God is alive and well in us. To say "I don't know" means that we look outside of ourselves to learn, and to find those who do know, and--ultimately--accept that we have to look to others and to God to help us, to guide us through life. To place our trust and hope only in this world, Paul tells the Corinthians (and us!), makes us people to be pitied. Jesus echoes this in the "woes" section of Luke's Beatitudes, when he points out that trusting in earthly wealth, full bellies, entertainments, and reputation will, eventually, not be enough when we are called beyond this life.

Hoy volvemos a escuchar la profunda conexión entre Jesús y los profetas de Israel. En la lectura de Jeremías, las maldiciones de Dios al principio se compensan con las bendiciones de Dios en la segunda parte. En la versión de Lucas de las Bienaventuranzas, Jesús comienza con bendiciones, y luego las contrarresta con una sección de "ayes". El punto es claro: la forma en que vivimos nuestras vidas tiene una conexión directa con el hecho de que experimentaremos maldiciones y ayes, o en cambio, bendiciones. Por supuesto, estar entre los benditos de Dios (en latín, beati, de donde viene "beatitudes") no significa necesariamente una vida libre de aflicciones. Jesús, en su naturaleza plenamente humana, lo sabía. También sabía que cuando buscamos la felicidad a través de nuestros propios recursos, y confiamos sólo en nosotros mismos, las desgracias están garantizadas. Sigamos la sabiduría de Jeremías y de Jesús con el comienzo del libro de los Salmos (del que se hace eco Jeremías hoy): "Bienaventurados los que confían en el Señor".

NO LO SÉ

Hay veces que lo más inteligente, pero lo más difícil, que podemos decir es: "No sé". Aunque a menudo pensamos que esto es un signo de debilidad, la cantidad de humildad que se necesita para que decir esto significa que la Palabra de Dios está viva y bien en nosotros. Decir "no sé" significa que buscamos fuera de nosotros mismos para aprender, y encontrar a los que sí saben, y --en última instancia-- aceptar que tenemos que mirar a los demás y a Dios para que nos ayuden, para que nos guíen por la vida. Poner nuestra confianza y esperanza sólo en este mundo, dice Pablo a los corintios (y a nosotros), nos convierte en personas dignas de lástima. Jesús se hace eco de esta idea en la sección de "ayes" de las Bienaventuranzas de Lucas, cuando señala que confiar en las riquezas terrenales, en las barrigas llenas, en los entretenimientos y en la reputación, finalmente no será suficiente cuando seamos llamados más allá de esta vida.

WEDNESDAY EVENING ADORATION

Beginning in February our Hispanic Group will be adding music to the Wednesday evening Adoration. This is meant to enhance our prayer and adoration. Welcome!

St. Angela Merici OPERATION RICE BOWL-2022

Operation Rice Bowl is coming to St Angela's for Lent.

- When: Sunday February 27 after all Masses.
- Set the bowl in the kitchen or dining table as a daily reminder.
- Use the bowls during Lent to set aside your alms.

Rice Bowl is a way of supporting the Lenten period of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. The simple bowl is a reminder of our care for each other and the less fortunate in the world. Lenten alms donated through CRS Rice Bowl support the work of CRS in more than 100 different countries each year. CRS Rice Bowl is a staple on the table of Catholic families; this simple cardboard box is a tool for collecting Lenten alms—and comes with a Lenten calendar guiding families through the 40 days of Lent with activities, reflections, and stories.

More than 40 years ago, Catholics in the United States wanted to respond to famine in Africa. The help came in the form of a small cardboard box, marking the beginning of "Operation Rice Bowl". In 1976, it was adopted by the United State Conference of Catholic Bishops as a national program.

Operation Rice Bowl at St. Angela's is sponsored by the Knights of Columbus council and PALS.

Turn bowls in with alms collected on Sunday May 1st (or write a check to Catholic Relief Services(CRS) for the amount in the bowl).

You can hear more stories of outreach, check Lenten recipes from around the world, and learn more about rice bowl at : <https://www.crsricebowl.org>.
