FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

REFLECTION FOR THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Vanity of vanities. All is vanity. Those words provide the same message but with different words that are found at the beginning or the first reading: "ALL things, absolutely all things, are but vain illusions."

It is worth commenting that vanity as such is pride in or admiration of one's own appearance or achievements. We remain fixed and determined to have more and more, and those things make us great and powerful, forgetting all things come to an end. Beginning with death, the absolutely inevitable, and from this life we can take nothing except our good deeds.

Today's Gospel passage speaks to us very clearly about a certain person who had accumulated great wealth and property. Thinking he could have more than sufficient and superfluous abundance forever, but suddenly finds himself facing imminent death. He now has no idea what to do with all he had gotten, and worse, who will all of this be for? Who will enjoy it? What was the purpose of all his effort and work?

What happens to this Stunned individual in the parable narrated by Jesus is possible in the life of any person who gives in to the feverish desire to have more. It is often asserted and often proven that authentic happiness and well-being in nearly everyone consists of being at peace with yourself, with others, and above all with God.

Obviously, it is important to have earthly goods, but this must never be at the expense of overlooking the importance of attaining and gaining access to the true gift from above; which never perishes, and are not passing but eternal.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, I wish you all have a blessed Sunday and a blessed week for you and your families.

Deacon.

Ben Flores

REFLEXIÓN PARA 17º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Vanidad de vanidades. Todo es vanidad." Eso mismo, dice, pero con otras palabras, el inicio de la primera lectura: "todas las cosas absolutamente todas, son vana ilusión." No está demás comentar que la vanidad como tal, es aquello que es simplemente vano, sin consistencia, que sólo es apariencia, pero que aún así, sabiéndolo el hombre, igualmente se afana por tener, tener, y tener, creyendo que las cosas lo hacen grande y olvidando que todo termina con la muerte y que de aquí nada se lleva si no las buenas obras.

Hoy el pasaje del Evangelio nos habla precisamente de un personaje que hay habiendo acumulado muchos bienes, muchas cosas, y creyendo tener ya lo suficiente para vivir holgadamente por mucho tiempo de pronto se encuentra con que ella va a morir y no sólo eso, sino que todo lo que junto, para quien va a ser? Quien lo disfrutará de qué sirvió tanto esfuerzo? Lo qué pasa al personaje de la parábola que narra Jesús, le puede pasar a más de una persona que fácilmente puede dejarse llevar por la fiebre de querer tener, tener y tener.

Se dice, y es verdad, la auténtica felicidad y bienestar de toda persona consiste en estar en paz con uno mismo, con los demás y sobre todo con Dios. Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo es muy importante la búsqueda de los bienes terrenales, los de aquí abajo. ¡Como no! Pero sin descuidar que es más importante todavía alcanzar y llegar a poseer los verdaderos bienes de arriba, que no se destruyen ni son pasajeros, si no eternos. Al igual que nuestro señor Jesús nos enseña a ser misericordioso con otros es para nosotros nuestra misión también es de ser como él, misericordiosos con todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Qué Dios te bendiga a ti ya toda tu familia y les deseo un feliz y bendecido domingo.

Diácono.

Ben Flores

SHARING YOUR FAITH

Question:

My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!
