FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

REFLECTION FOR THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

People who are concerned with their own advancement and agenda have little room for anyone else. With an almost addictive pursuit of esteem and acknowledgment from others, they become little more than entitled embodiments of the vice of pride. Public humiliation or embarrassment can hit them hard. While avoiding humiliation and embarrassment may be advantageous to obtaining worldly success, they are much less desirable motivations for entering the Kingdom of God. Avoiding embarrassment is a self-serving motivation. Pride and all of its manifestations have no place on God's agenda, neither do worldly success and fulfillment. In fact, we have been clearly told that if we love our lives, we will lose them. Therefore, if you really want to find your true station in life, learn to give yourself away.

While this may sound foolish to secular ears, it actually makes perfect sense. God, who is love, makes each of us in His image. Love, and therefore God, is in our DNA. That being the case, love is never love if it is kept to oneself or hoarded. Love needs to be shared and given away. Therefore, it is the only proper motivation for entering the Kingdom of God. The door to happiness is only opened when we realize that all we are and all we have is due only to God's grace. Without God we are nothing.

Love is the remedy for pride and protects us from ourselves. God asks us to be humble. Only when we are free from the traps of pride and arrogance that we can begin to follow the path to true humility. Only one who is humble can rightly love and be of service to God. "God makes use only of the humble as his instruments (Jean-Pierre de Caussade)." The humble one does not need others to give them worth and value. Their self-esteem comes from the much more secure foundation of God. Only those who are entirely free can give themselves freely to others. Love must always be our motivation for doing all things. Be content that God has invited you to the banquet of life. Concern yourself with accepting the invitation, and don't worry about where you will sit.

REFLEXIÓN PARA 22º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

En alguna ocasión o tal vez en varias, habremos oído y visto personas que explican la palabra de Dios de forma sencilla, clara y amena, que da gusto escuchar, tanto que llegan a conmovir a las oyentes que hasta puede venir el pensamiento de, ¡Que bien habla! Que dón de palabra tiene! Si todos explicaran así, habría más concurrencia!... Hemos escuchado hoy "Vayan por todo el mundo y prediquen el evangelio. Eso de "ir por todo el mundo, significa que en cualquier lugar donde se esté, ya la sola presencia de un cristiano, con su conducta ejemplar de cristiano, dice mucho más que mil explicaciones o predicaciones.

Para predicar el evangelio no necesariamente tiene que hacerse cursos intensivos de oratoria, o de retórica o de dicción para hablar correctamente de Dios a las gentes. En la vida ordinaria, una palabra amable, una buena acción... Hablan de Dios y pueden ser más convincentes que muchas palabras aún bien dichas. En otras palabras: "predicar el evangelio es misión para todo discípulo de Cristo y la forma más eficaz de hacerlo es haciendo el bien. El evangelio es muy directo." Apártense de mí todos ustedes los que hacen el mal". Por tanto no es suficiente hablar bien de Dios, sino ser hacedores de bien.

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo que Dios me los bendiga a todos ustedes y sus familias y tengan una feliz y bendecida semana.

Dn Ben Flores

SHARING YOUR FAITH

Question:

My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!
