FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

REFLECTION FOR THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Since God created human beings, we have struggled to keep our focus on God. We wrestle with the question of “who is God” and foolishly believe some of God’s job description can be better completed by us. We wander in different directions, lose our way, think that happiness can be found elsewhere and even construct golden calves to worship. Are we simply too independent or just blatantly stubborn? It’s a good question to ask. Even with all of our silliness and distractions, God compassionately and patiently waits. He lets us assert our wills and knows that perhaps one day we will actually wake up and realize how lost we are.

“Since happiness is nothing other than the enjoyment of the highest good and since the highest good is above, no one can be made happy unless he rises above himself, not by an ascent of the body but of the heart. But we cannot rise above ourselves unless a higher power lifts us up ... Divine aid is available to those who seek it from their hearts, humbly and devoutly; and this means to sigh for it in this valley of tears, through fervent prayer (St. Bonaventure).” One of the biggest human struggles is discerning what, exactly, is the highest good. We are ordered to achieve it but if we pursue it with clouded vision, we will never truly find it.

One of the greatest obstacles to God’s power and love is a stubborn, closed heart of stone. When we are fiercely determined to set our sights elsewhere for happiness or simply ride the popular currents of the day, we will never satisfy the deep ache and longing within. We know that ache well. It is precisely why we scurry all over the place, attempting to find the next best thing to take away its pain. Nothing in the created world ever can or will. We continue our journey. One day, people may wake up and realize that they are grazing in the wrong pasture and putting themselves in harm’s way. When this awakening occurs, it will be a most joyous day as we will see God’s wide-open arms waiting to receive us. “Lead me, Lord, in your path, and I will enter in your truth. Let my heart rejoice that it may fear your name (St. Bonaventure).”

REFLEXIÓN PARA 24º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

En cada uno de los domingos pasados, la Palabra de Dios nos invitaba a ser mejores seguidores de Jesús. La liturgia de hoy no se queda atrás, hay que seguir con mucho entusiasmo y fidelidad su enseñanza. Atrévete, nos dirá el Señor, levántate y ponte en camino hacia el Padre. El Papa Francisco en sus excelentes catequesis nos exhorta a lo siguiente: “Dios espera siempre que reanudem el viaje, nos espera con paciencia, nos ve cuando todavía estamos lejos, sale a nuestro encuentro, nos abraza, nos besa, nos perdona. ¡Así es Dios! ¡Así es nuestro Padre! Y su perdón borra el pasado y nos regenera en el amor”.

¿Has experimentado el perdón de Dios? Me imagino que sí. Porque si has perdonado a alguien que te ha ofendido, de seguro que has gozado del perdón de Dios en tu vida. El Evangelio, en este domingo, es rico en alegría y perdón. Las cien ovejas y la búsqueda de una sola que estaba perdida: “Alégrense conmigo, porque he encontrado la oveja que se me había perdido” (Lucas 15,6). La mujer que pierde una moneda de las diez que tiene, y su alegría de encontrarla: “Alégrense conmigo, porque hallé la moneda que se me había perdido” (Lucas 15,9). Estas dos parábolas indican la iniciativa de Dios, quien busca, encuentra y se alegra. En la tercera parábola, la del hijo pródigo, la iniciativa de Dios se basa en la libertad y el respeto por el ser humano.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading:

So the LORD relented in the punishment
he had threatened to inflict on his people. (Ex 32:14)

Psalm:

I will rise and go to my father. (Ps 51)

Second Reading:

This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance:
Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. (1 Tm 1:15)

Gospel:

"I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance." (Lk 15:7)

SHARING YOUR FAITH

Question:

My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!
