FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

REFLECTION FOR THE TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

"You cannot serve both God and mammon." Merriam-Webster defines mammon as material wealth or possessions, especially having a debasing influence. While God does not take issue with our need to use money for the business of our lives, there can be a problem with the attitudes we bring to it. We can easily become so preoccupied and obsessed with money that it becomes the real "god" we worship. Do we serve mammon instead of God? In their book, Wealth, Riches and Money, Craig Hill and Earl Pitts outline symptoms of mammon's influence in our lives. Some of these are worry and anxiety over money, money mismanagement, fear over "never having enough," an "I can't afford it" mentality, impulse buying, stinginess, greed, debt, and discontent.

Many of the things on that list can consume us to the point that we are distracted from what we really need to be doing. Many people spend an inordinate amount of time worrying about money and it becomes the source of their worst fears. If we are honest with ourselves, we need to admit that we place far more emphasis on our material securities than we ought. In fact, we have actually convinced ourselves that we cannot live without it. Are we that certain about the presence of God? Many of the world's problems, especially those involving inequity and injustice, result from conflicts about money. Many equate money with happiness. Those successful in accumulating large amounts of it quickly realize just how wrong they are.

"Your ultimate allegiance is not to the government, not to the state, not to nation, not to any man-made institution. The Christian owes his ultimate allegiance to God, and if any earthly institution conflicts with God's will it is your Christian duty to take a stand against it. You must never allow the transitory evanescent demands of man-made institutions to take precedence over the eternal demands of the Almighty God (Martin Luther King, Jr.)." This is the point Jesus is trying to make. Unfortunately, when we look around our man-made kingdoms are far more prevalent than God's kingdom. When we start seeing greater evidence of justice, equity, dignity, respect, opportunity, gentleness, holiness, solidarity, honesty, simplicity, care for creation, and a decrease in ambition, then we will know that God's kingdom is being served. We will be doing what we are supposed to do.

REFLEXIÓN PARA 25° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

La Carta de San Pablo a Timoteo nos cae como anillo al dedo en nuestros días presentes. ¿Se han dado cuenta ustedes que nuestros gobernantes a nivel mundial necesitan de nuestras oraciones? Las autoridades sin nuestra ayuda no pueden cumplir con sus promesas. No se trata solo de criticar y juzgar sus acciones, hay que cuestionar a la vez. Para lograr una vida tranquila y en paz el deber es de todos. La oración y el compromiso individual cuenta mucho para vivir libres de divisiones.

El Evangelio, por su parte, habla del administrador astuto. Sabemos bien, que a todos nos gusta el dinero porque cubre nuestras necesidades. Pero, la situación está en que amamos más lo material que a Dios. Confiamos más en lo que tenemos que en la Divina Providencia. Ahí está el secreto para dejar ver nuestro amor por el prójimo. Nunca se debe de explotar a la persona por dinero y luego darse golpes de pecho diciendo y creyendo que así se ama a Dios. No nos engañemos, Jesús lo pone muy claro: "Ningún siervo puede servir a dos patrones, porque necesariamente odiará a uno y amará al otro o bien será fiel a uno y despreciará al otro. Ustedes no pueden servir al mismo tiempo a Dios y al dinero" (Lucas 16,13). Existen muchas personas corruptas, con gran facilidad estafan a los ancianos, a las viudas y a los niños. El tráfico humano está a la orden del día. ¡Cuidado! No seamos ninguno de ellos, seamos astutos, pero para realizar el bien.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading:

Hear this, you who trample upon the needy
and destroy the poor of the land! (Am 8:4)

Psalm:

Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor. (Ps 113) Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth. (1 Tm 2:3-4)

Gospel:

"No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon." (Lk 16:13)

Please contact Natalie, Youth Minister, if you have any questions natalie.espada@stangelabreachurch.org or at 714-366-3534.

SHARING YOUR FAITH

Question:

My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!
