Sunday Reflection and Weekly Readings FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

REFLECTION FOR THE 21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Isn't it a bit weird that Catholics call the Pope "papa," father? This Sunday provides us with essential Scriptural background on the papacy, the petrine office. Jesus gives Peter the "keys to the kingdom of heaven," after witnessing to the special grace Peter has to know Jesus' true identity. Many have pointed out that the "keys" refer back to the figure of Eliakim, King David's prime minister. True enough. But notice this is not mere authority or power. It's a family relationship. The Lord says to Eliakim, "He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem" (Isaiah 22:21). David's prime minister was a spiritual father to the family of Israel. Peter, and his successors, will be spiritual fathers in the family of the Church.

This means we have a serious obligation to not only recognize the Pope's authority, but also to love him with the affection of children for their papa. We should never speak about him with disrespect or rancor. We should listen to him with trusting hearts, and ignore the slander thrown at him in various media. When we show the world we are loving and obedient to our Holy Papa, perhaps they'll see more clearly that the Church is indeed God's beloved family.

— Father John Muir

REFLEXIÓN PARA EL 21ST DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Jesús les preguntó: "¿Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy yo? (Mateo 16:15). Esta pregunta es válida en la actualidad, no está pasada de moda. Mucha gente se sigue preguntando quien es Jesús y quien es la Iglesia. La respuesta es individual, ya que viene de acuerdo a la fe de cada persona. Hay un dicho popular que dice: "Obras son amores y no buenas razones". Con hechos, no con palabrería, demos razones de ejemplo, de vida cristiana. El Señor desea que participemos en su misión de hacer crecer su Reino. Entonces, confesémosle nuestro compromiso de amor y de fe.

"Confesar a Jesús es una gracia del Padre. Decir que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios vivo, que es el Redentor, es una gracia que nosotros debemos pedir: Padre dame la gracia de confesar a Jesús (Papa Francisco 08/23/20). Tal como Pedro lo hizo: "Tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo del Dios vivo". Y fue felicitado, como la mujer cananea del domingo pasado: "Feliz eres, Simón Barjona, porque esto no te lo ha revelado la carne ni la sangre, sino mi Padre que está en los Cielos" (Mateo 16:17). Señor, cuando me dejes guiar por el Espíritu Santo, de seguro mis pensamientos, palabras y deseos son llevados a tomar acciones buenas. Gracias por tu presencia en mi vida. Tanto en las cosas difíciles como en las más sencillas de la vida diaria. Ayúdame a perseverar en la justicia y honestidad tan urgentes en la sociedad actual.

Baptism Ministry

We are looking for volunteers to help at monthly Saturday baptisms in English. Duties involve setting up the baptismal tray, greeting and checking-in families and assisting the celebrant at the baptism. The time requirement is approximately 1 ½ - 2 hours per month (This would be on a rotational basis - one volunteer per month). For more information please contact: Andrea Draper @ (714) 529-1821 ext. 136 OR andrea.draper@stangelabreachurch.org

First Saturday Rosary

Here at St Angela Merici it has been a practice for many years to pray the Rosary on the First Saturday of the month. A group of parishioners has gathered in the church after the 8 am Mass to pray the rosary with special intentions. When the rosary is finished, those who desire to do so can also stay for an additional few minutes to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy for the poor souls in Purgatory. In recent years our Knights of Columbus council has also designated this event as the venue for their monthly council rosary.

Additionally, those who are able to attend daily Mass can find a group of parishioners who stay after the daily 8AM Mass to pray the rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

All parishioners are invited to join in this beautiful prayer to our Lady. Just show up and join us. Praying the Rosary on the first Saturday of the month is a long-standing Catholic tradition based on our Lady's revelation at Fatima.

"Look, My daughter, at My Heart, surrounded with thorns with which ungrateful men pierce Me at every moment by their blasphemies and ingratitude. Do you, at least, try to console Me and announce in My name that I promise to assist at the moment of death, with all the graces necessary for salvation, all those who, on the first Saturday of five consecutive months shall confess, receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the Rosary, and keep Me company for fifteen minutes while meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary, with the intention of making reparation to Me."

(Revelation of Our Lady of Fatima to Sr. Lucia)

10 Things That Happen When You Go To Adoration More Often

1. You develop a sense of awe and wonder. There is nothing like the atmosphere of a quiet chapel or church, the smell of incense and the splendor of the monstrance to help you understand the truth of what is happening in Adoration. We are truly before Jesus Christ, His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. The more you sink into that silence in front of the Host, the more you'll realize the only response is awe and wonder at the greatness of our God.

2. You experience peace in other areas of your life. Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you." (John 14:27) The outward peace we can experience in Adoration (the quiet and the stillness) reaches much deeper. It leads to an inner peace that affects all areas of our lives. It doesn't mean everything in our life will be perfect and without suffering, but Christ's peace means we know the storms of life can't shake us.

3. You begin to look outwardly. Jesus told us to "love one another as I have loved you". (John 13:34) Spending time in Adoration connects us to the whole world – after all, we're spending time with the Creator of all things! More time praising and adoring God means you can look beyond your own concerns and see the needs of others in your life and in the world, we live in.

4. You get bored sometimes. There are going to be times when Adoration can feel anything but glorious. You get distracted, your mind begins to wander, you can hear someone else sniffing next to you. Maybe in the beginning, Adoration was full of wonderful feelings! Regular Adoration is when daily life sets in, and it can make it feel not so special. But that doesn't devalue or take away from the truth of what Adoration is. Our faith is more than feelings and God will still be working in you. This is the beauty of the Incarnation—God made man, coming into all our stresses, fears, problems—and yes, boredom. Know that even if an hour spent in Adoration is a continual returning to Him every few minutes when your mind wanders, you are still giving God the best gift you can—your time and company.

5. But you become excited going to Adoration. The more time you spend in Adoration discovering that God is a God who loves you and wants to spend time with you, the more you begin to actually want to go. If Adoration once felt like a chore, you might even find yourself becoming excited to go! Adoration is addictive, not just because of the things we can gain for ourselves, but because we were created to adore. As we say in the Mass, it is "right and just" that we should give thanks to the Lord! Adoration is imprinted on our hearts and "our hearts are restless until they find our rest in Him"! (Thanks, St. Augustine!)

6. Grace enters your life. It's amazing how a simple act of committing to even a short time of regular Adoration makes such a huge difference to the rest of your life. You can carry that moment of being in His presence with you long after you've left the church or chapel. His grace sustains you in every moment, especially in moments of temptation. Temptation becomes easier to resist when you're spending more time in Adoration. Sometimes, it really is that straightforward.

7. You realize how fortunate you are. If it is as simple for you as getting in the car and driving to Adoration at church, or even walking to the chapel nearby, you realize how much you can take it for granted. There are those who would love to spend more time with Jesus in Adoration but who are housebound, sick, or busy parents. Then there are those around the world who risk their lives for the Eucharist, in places where they are persecuted for their faith. When you remember those who walk for hours or days in dangerous situations in order to be present with Jesus, you realize what a gift it is to be able to pray openly, not to mention having a priest to minister the sacraments.

8. You realize God has a sense of humor. The more you are able to sit and let God speak to you (instead of spending all your time filling the silence with talking to Him), you'll find that God has a really good sense of humor. He likes a joke or two, and sometimes these moments are funny enough to make you want to laugh out loud. Surprising, maybe, but don't the best fathers show you their love by affectionate good humor?!?

9. You want to go to Confession more. This might sound scary, but it's not. Confession allows us to experience the mighty boundless ocean that is God's mercy. His mercy swallows up all our sins and gives us a true kind of freedom, a freedom without fear, which allows us to make the leap into His love and goodness, complete with all His perfect plans for our life. Time and time again, going to Confession re-enforces the knowledge that we are jumping into the arms of a Father who loves us very much and "never tires of forgiving us." (Pope Francis)

10. You fall in love! Ultimately, you can't help this one! When you spend more time with an open heart in Adoration and just let Christ love you, then you'll fall in love too. That love will define you and allow you to be yourself. "I came that they may have life, life in all its fullness." (John 10:10)
