SUNDAY REFLECTIONS FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

REFLECTION FOR THE 29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

With little more than a year until the United States' national elections, I find myself feeling, like many Catholics, both dread and energized. Dread, because our democratic republic can be a messy endeavor and campaigns a long, nasty, and unedifying slog; energized, because hope for positive societal change can be enticing and engaging. As a pastor, I see similar conflicting attitudes in those whom I serve. How can Catholics best engage our political arena in a way which is truly helpful and worthwhile?

This week's gospel reading offers wisdom in this regard. Jesus says, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." This riddle forces us to answer for ourselves a hidden question: what is the relationship between political and divine authority? Two common but false answers lead to mischief. If we answer that the two are equivalent, politics becomes our absolute authority. This happens whenever religion is slave to the state, as in the travesty of the pro-Nazi German Christian movement in the 1930s and 40s. It also usually occurs when there is an official state religion. If we answer that the two are totally unrelated, we end up with an unchecked aggressive secularist state as we often experience now. Thus, religion becomes a weak and private pastime.

What's a better alternative? At our best, Christians hold that political authority does indeed have its own legitimate autonomy but is nested within God's all-encompassing authority. Think, for example, of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s respect for politics while also being able to criticize unjust human laws because he recognized a higher heavenly law. In other words, Caesar owns politics — and God owns Caesar. So, we should allow Jesus' words to lead us to have a deep respect and willingness to peacefully engage in politics without making that engagement our religion. We bring our faith to bear on our politics knowing confidently that Caesar isn't God — but he is indeed God's.

— Father John Muir

REFLEXIÓN PARA EL 29TH DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

¿Qué es una custodia?

Una custodia es un recipiente utilizado en las iglesias católicas romanas para exhibir en un altar algún objeto de piedad, como la hostia eucarística consagrada durante la adoración eucarística o la bendición del Santísimo Sacramento. También se utiliza como relicario para la exhibición pública de reliquias de algunos santos. La palabra custodia proviene del latín "monstrare" (mostrar) y se usa para los vasos destinados a la exposición del Santísimo Sacramento.

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

“¡Para ver a Jesús, primero debemos dejar que Él nos mire!”

“Tu fe te ayudará a darte cuenta de que es Jesús mismo quien está presente en el Santísimo Sacramento, esperándote y llamándote a pasar una hora específica especial con Él cada semana”.

“La Iglesia y el mundo tienen una gran necesidad del culto eucarístico. Jesús nos espera en este sacramento del amor. Seamos generosos con nuestro tiempo para ir a su encuentro en la adoración y en la contemplación llena de fe y dispuesta a reparar las grandes faltas y crímenes del mundo. Que nuestra adoración nunca cese”.

El 16 de octubre de 1978, los cardenales se reunieron bajo la guía del Espíritu Santo y eligieron Karol Cardinal Wojtyla como el 263º sucesor del Apóstol Pedro. Tomó el nombre de Juan Pablo II como su primer acto de enseñanza, enviando la señal de continuidad. Salió al balcón de la Plaza de San Pedro y proclamó: "¡No temáis! ## St. Angela Merici PARISH SCHOOL

MIDDLE SCHOOL SOCIAL & DANCE

Students in 6th-8th grade had a blast at the first middle school social and dance of the year. Our wonderful parents decorated the parish hall with a spooky fun Halloween theme, and middle school math teacher, Mr. C., served as DJ. Ahead of the dance, faculty members gave students some basic slow-dancing lessons - including how to leave room for the Holy Spirit!

BUDDING ARTISTS

Have you noticed the colorful flowers popping up on the fence at the back of the field? Since school started this August, our students have been busy painting this beautiful garden mural. Special gratitude to SAM parishioner and school grandparent, Crystal Eychaner, for painting the outlines of all the flowers and leading the project!

The Mission of St. Angela Merici Parish Catholic School is to proclaim the Gospel, celebrate through worship, build community, serve others and to achieve academic excellence through the discovery of each student's gifts and talents.
