REFLECTION FOR THE 31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A Heavy Burden, Hard to Carry

"Mommy, you haven't been making any sacrifices." My daughter was peering through the little opening in the plastic cover of the "sacrifice jar" we made for Lent this year. The repurposed oatmeal container, jazzed up with glitter glue and pictures of St. Therese of Lisieux, was more than half-filled with little slips of paper bearing descriptions of the various sacrifices family members had made for one another.

But she was right: every piece of paper bore the childlike scrawl of herself and her brother. I had not added anything to the sacrifice jar.

"If I wrote down every sacrifice I made for you in just a single day, the jar would explode," I retorted, and even though my daughter giggled, I instantly regretted the comment, sighing as I realized I did it again. I let a snide, self-pitying thought form on my lips and make its way into the world because for a brief moment I thought someone didn't appreciate my (imagine me sniffing injuredly here) hard work.

We sneer at the scribes and the Pharisees as Jesus describes them in the Gospel, lengthening their phylacteries and coveting the places of honor. But then I remember: nobody starts out meaning to be a jerk.

We want to do good things. We try to be holy. But it's hard, that burden weighs heavy on our back. So, we murmur about it here and there. We stop to catch our breath. We glimpse other people looking at our burden with approval and admiration, and we breathe a little harder, groan a little deeper. And somewhere along the way the burden becomes an idol and our labor a performance. We dare not ask for help bearing it, for we prize too greatly the sweat of our own brow.

"The greatest among you must be your servant." — Matthew 23:11

REFLEXIÓN PARA EL 31ST DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Una Carga Pesada, Difícil de Llevar

"Mami, no has estado haciendo ningún sacrificio."

Mi hija estaba mirando a través de la pequeña abertura en la tapa de plástico de la "jarra del sacrificio" que hicimos para la Cuaresma de este año. El recipiente de avena reutilizado, adornado con pegamento brillante e imágenes de Santa Teresa de Lisieux, estaba más de la mitad lleno con pequeños trozos de papel con descripciones de los diversos sacrificios que los miembros de la familia habían hecho unos por otros.

Pero tenía razón: cada hoja de papel tenía el garabato infantil de ella y su hermano. Yo no había añadido nada a la jarra del sacrificio.

"Si escribiera cada sacrificio que hice por ti en un solo día, el frasco explotaría," repliqué, y aunque mi hija se rió, me arrepentí al instante del comentario, suspirando al darme cuenta de que lo había vuelto a hacer. Dejé que un pensamiento sarcástico y de autocompasión se formara en mis labios y se abriera paso en el mundo porque por un breve momento pensé que alguien no apreciaba mi arduo trabajo (imaginenme lloriqueando lastimada aquí).

Nos burlamos de los escribas y fariseos como Jesús los describe en el Evangelio, alargando sus filacterias y codiciando los lugares de honor. Pero luego recuerdo: nadie comienza con la intención de ser un cretino.

Queremos hacer cosas buenas. Tratamos de ser santos. Pero es duro, esa carga pesa mucho sobre nuestra espalda.

Entonces, murmuramos sobre eso aquí y allá. Paramos para recuperar el aliento. Vislumbramos a otras personas mirando nuestra carga con aprobación y admiración, y respiramos un poco más fuerte, gemimos un poco más profundo. Y en algún punto del camino la carga se convierte en un ídolo y nuestro trabajo en una actuación. No nos atrevemos a pedir ayuda para soportarlo, porque apreciamos demasiado el sudor de nuestra propia frente.

"Que el mayor de entre ustedes sea su servidor." — Mateo 23:11

DO YOU KNOW...

What is Canon Law?

Canon law is a code of ecclesiastical laws governing the Catholic Church. In the Western Church, the governing code is the 1983 Code of Canon Law, a revision of the 1917 Code of Canon Law.

When the revised Code of Canon Law was promulgated by St. Pope John Paul II in 1983, it contained eighty-four canons that call for or permit legislative action by episcopal conferences. Since that time the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (designated the National Conference of Catholic Bishops) has acted on twenty-nine canons, thereby establishing legislation for the Dioceses of the United States.

¿SABÍAS QUE...

¿Qué es el Derecho Canónico?

El derecho canónico es un código de leyes eclesiásticas que rigen la Iglesia católica. En la Iglesia occidental, el código que rige es el Código de Derecho Canónico de 1983, una revisión del Código de Derecho Canónico de 1917.

Cuando el Papa Juan Pablo II promulgó el Código de Derecho Canónico revisado en 1983, contenía ochenta y cuatro cánones que exigen o permiten la acción legislativa por parte de las conferencias episcopales. Desde entonces, la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos (designada Conferencia Nacional de Obispos Católicos) ha actuado sobre veintinueve cánones, estableciendo así legislación para las diócesis de los Estados Unidos.

Fr. Robert Spitzer S.J. Ph.D. NEAR DEATH EXPERIENCES

Father Robert Spitzer, S.J., Ph.D. is President of the Spitzer-Magis Center of Reason and Faith (www.magiscenter.com).

He was President of Gonzaga University from 1998 to 2009. Fr. Spitzer is a Catholic Priest in the Jesuit order
"NEAR DEATH EXPERIENCES provide powerful testimony of the immortality of the soul and the existence of God."

"What is a near death experience?"

A near death experience occurs when someone has limited brain function, yet is able to have a sensory experience without full use of their physical senses.

This indicates some non-physical aspect to the person, which we call a soul.

How can subjective experiences be studied?

Since NDEs often happen in hospital settings with professional medical oversight, thousands have been sufficiently well-documented for scientific study.

This documentation often includes relevant information that can be verified by those present.

Rest in Peace, Bishop Emeritus Tod David Brown

I am deeply saddened to announce the passing of Bishop Emeritus Tod David Brown. Bishop Brown died October 15 at St. Joseph Hospital.

With his tireless spirit and witness to Christ, Bishop Brown faithfully served the people of the Diocese of Orange since 1998 when Pope St. John Paul II appointed him bishop and ordinary of our diocese. I remember especially his kindness to me when I was a newly ordained priest years ago, and we were together at the Casa Santa Maria in Rome (The North American College) in the Fall of 1981. I ask for your prayers for the repose of his soul and for thanksgiving to God for his many years of ministry and evangelization.

Let us pray: Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he and all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.
Amen.

With faith in our Risen Lord,
Bishop Kevin Vann
