REFLECTION FOR THE 32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Seeking Wisdom

I think if any of us were asked the question, "Do you love wisdom? Do you seek wisdom?" we would, at first, be a little taken aback. And then we would answer quickly "Of course!" with absolutely no doubt in our minds.

But a different way of asking the question is this: "Are you making wise choices?" That's a question that would put a fair few of us on the back foot.

The virgins who went out to meet the bridegroom were all the same. They had the exact same intentions. They had the exact same stamina, or lack of it. They had the exact same knowledge of the night being dark and lamps being necessary.

What made five foolish, and five wise?

It was their choices. Only their choices set them apart. We may rely upon the wisdom of another — the parent who reminds us to go to confession, the friend who demurs when we start speaking gossip, the priest who preaches boldly from the pulpit against an injustice we lack the courage to denounce ourselves. But even if we feel safeguarded by their good influence, their wisdom won't save us.

We may possess a little wisdom ourselves — we may know well that a dark night is hard to navigate, and that we need the assistance of a lamp. We may go to Mass once in a while, read the Bible when we have time and serve others when it's convenient.

But a lamp needs oil to burn in the darkness, just as wisdom requires action to be brought forth into the world. We may love God just as much as we should — our flesh may pine, our soul may thirst. But a parched field never brought rain on itself just by being dry.

We must make the choice.

"Thus will I bless you while I live; lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name." — Psalm 63:4

REFLEXIÓN PARA EL 32ND DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Buscando Sabiduría

Creo que si a alguno de nosotros se nos hiciera la pregunta: "¿Amas la sabiduría? ¿Buscas sabiduría?" Al principio, estaríamos un poco desconcertados. Y luego respondíamos rápidamente "¡Por supuesto!" sin ninguna duda en nuestras mentes.

Pero una forma diferente de hacer la pregunta es esta: "¿Estás tomando decisiones sabias?" Esa es una pregunta que pondría a algunos de nosotros en la retaguardia.

Las vírgenes que salieron al encuentro del novio eran todas iguales. Tenían exactamente las mismas intenciones. Tenían exactamente la misma resistencia, o falta de ella. Tenían exactamente el mismo conocimiento de que la noche era oscura y que las lámparas eran necesarias.

¿Qué hizo cinco descuidadas y cinco provisoras?

Fueron sus elecciones. Solo sus elecciones las distinguen. Podemos confiar en la sabiduría de otro: el padre o madre que nos recuerda ir a confesarnos, el amigo que pone objeciones cuando comenzamos a hablar chismes, el sacerdote que predica con audacia desde el púlpito contra una injusticia que no tenemos la valentía de denunciar. Pero incluso si nos sentimos protegidos por su buena influencia, su sabiduría no nos salvará.

Es posible que nosotros mismos poseamos un poco de sabiduría: podemos saber bien que una noche oscura es difícil de navegar y que necesitamos la ayuda de una lámpara. Podemos ir a Misa de vez en cuando, leer la Biblia cuando tenemos tiempo y servir a los demás cuando sea conveniente.

Pero una lámpara necesita aceite para arder en la oscuridad, así como la sabiduría requiere acción para manifestarse en el mundo.

Podemos amar a Dios tanto como deberíamos: nuestra carne puede sufrir, nuestra alma puede tener sed. Pero un campo reseco nunca trajo lluvia sobre sí mismo simplemente por estar seco.

Debemos hacer la elección.

"Podré así bendecirte mientras viva y levantar en oración mis manos." — Salmo 63:4

©LP

DO YOU KNOW...

What is Catholic Posture?

Each different posture during mass helps us get into a different mindset. Sitting is the posture of learning. That is why we sit during the readings and the homily.

Standing is the posture of reverence and prayer. Just like we stand when a judge enters a courtroom, we too stand when the priest processes in, and we listen to the Gospel, and join in the prayer of the faithful.

Kneeling is the posture of worship and humility. This posture is used during the Eucharistic prayer and after receiving Communion.

At a typical mass, you will sit four times, stand seven and kneel three. Not only do we worship with our hearts and minds, but we also use our bodies.

¿SABÍAS QUE...

¿Qué es la postura católica?

Cada postura diferente durante la masa nos ayuda a adoptar una mentalidad diferente. Sentarse es la postura del aprendizaje. Por eso nos sentamos durante las lecturas y la homilía.

Estar de pie es la postura de reverencia y oración. Así como nos ponemos de pie cuando un juez entra a la sala del tribunal, también nos ponemos de pie cuando el sacerdote entra en procesión, escuchamos el Evangelio y nos unimos a la oración de los fieles.

Arrodillarse es la postura de adoración y humildad. Esta postura se utiliza durante la oración eucarística y después de recibir la Comunión.

En una misa típica, te sentarás cuatro veces, te levantarás siete y te arrodillarás tres. No sólo adoramos con el corazón y la mente, sino que también utilizamos el cuerpo.

SAINTS IN TRAINING

Second graders celebrated the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls with a special mass on November 1. Students dressed as their favorite saints and sang special songs about these holy men and women. In the classroom, students made posters about their chosen saints and shared what they learned with their classmates.

SAM SPOTLIGHT

SPIRITUAL ROOM PARENTS

SAM introduced a new way for parents to get involved this school year - by volunteering as spiritual room parents! Spiritual room parents visit their child's class about once per month to lead the students in a special lesson and activity about our Catholic faith. During October, the month of the Rosary, many classes worked with their spiritual room parents to learn more about this beautiful prayer and make their own Rosaries or Chaplets. Thank you to our spiritual room parents!

The Mission of St. Angela Merici Parish Catholic School is to proclaim the Gospel, celebrate through worship, build community, serve others and to achieve academic excellence through the discovery of each student's gifts and talents.
