REFLECTION FOR 21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The famous Russian novelist Fyodor Dostoyevsky said, “Love in action is a harsh and dreadful thing.” In the Gospel reading this week, Jesus does something harsh and dreadful — he watches his own disciples abandon him. What could possibly be loving about that? Well, we notice the context is Jesus’ teaching about eating and drinking his body and blood. His followers hear this and say, “This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?” (John 6:60). We shouldn’t imagine we’d do anything different, because not even the ones who stay, like Peter, seem to understand what Jesus is saying. Then we hear this devastating line, “Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him” (John 6:66). Besides the night of the Last Supper, only now do Jesus’ disciples abandon him. And, painfully, Jesus just lets them go. The best way to make sense out of this is love. Jesus is God’s love in action. He wants to become one with those whom He loves. He wants to love them as His own body. Yes, the oneness manifested in the Eucharist sounds harsh and dreadful because it is rooted in love which is willing to risk abandonment and separation to attain its goal: to be one body with the beloved. It is both terrifying and wonderful that Jesus will risk losing us in order to be one with us. Our response? Lord, we cannot grasp a love so great, but please help us never to abandon it, either.

— Father John Muir

REFLEXIÓN PARA 21º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Algunos de los seguidores de Jesús no pudieron creer lo que les dijo. Era demasiado para ellos: “Mi carne es verdadera comida y mi sangre es verdadera bebida” (Juan 6:55). A pesar de que Jesús lo explicaba de muchas maneras, algunos decidieron abandonarlo. Él no hizo nada por detenerlos, los dejó libres respetando su decisión. Después de esos acontecimientos de abandono, Jesús pregunta directamente a los doce: “¿Quieren marcharse también ustedes? Pedro le contestó: Señor, ¿a quién iríamos? Tú tienes palabras de vida eterna. Nosotros creemos y sabemos que tú eres el Santo de Dios” (Juan 6:67-69). Ahora, en la realidad que vivimos tan llena de ruido y modernidad, ¿sabemos a dónde vamos, a quién dirigirnos? Pedro, lo supo y el deseo de la Iglesia es que sepamos que solo Jesús tiene palabras de vida eterna. Y que su Pan de Vida se nos da gratuitamente en la Eucaristía.

“La Eucaristía y la cruz son piedras de tropiezo. Es el mismo misterio, y no cesa de ser ocasión de división. ¿Quieren marcharse también ustedes? (Juan 6:67): esta pregunta del Señor resuena a través de las edades, como invitación de su amor a descubrir que sólo Él tiene palabras de vida eterna (Juan 6:68), y que acoger en la fe el don de su Eucaristía es acogerlo a Él mismo”. (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, numeral 1335). Hagamos la prueba y veremos qué bueno es el Señor, como nos dice el Salmo de la liturgia de este domingo.

BISHOPS OF ORANGE STATEMENT REGARDING OLYMPICS OPENING CEREMONY

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Historically, the Olympics have been a time for all people to be united in the love of sport. The games provided an opportunity to set aside cultural differences, ideological opinions and view one another simply as fellow human beings. It was a time in which people from all over the world felt included and united.

Sadly, last week in Paris, instead of creating an event that unites and shows mutual respect, the organizers chose to use the opening ceremony to attack Christians. Many of you have seen the blasphemous scene in which the Last Supper was used by drag queens to mock the self-giving sacrifice of Christ — the sign of his love for all people. As if the blasphemy was not enough, the performance also included satanic imagery. The message from the organizers is very clear: Christians do not deserve respect and are not welcome at the Paris Olympics.

We echo the statement of French Bishops when they said that the opening ceremonies “unfortunately included scenes of derision and mockery of Christianity, which we deeply deplore.” We ask all Christians and people of good will to pray for the conversion of those involved in this sickening spectacle, to spend additional time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, to boldly proclaim your faith in the Eucharist, and consider boycotting the Olympics this year.

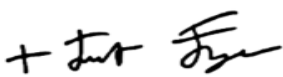

We encourage you to contact the International Olympic Committee by visiting <https://olympics.com/ioc/contact-us> to express your disappointment that they would promote division and blasphemy.

May the organizers of the Olympics realize that rather than mock and blaspheme, humanity is better served when we work for unity, respect and excellence in sport.

With love in our Eucharistic Lord,
Most Rev. Kevin W. Vann, J.C.D., D.D., D.Min.
Bishop of Orange

Most Rev. Timothy E. Freyer, D.

Most Rev. Thanh Thai Nguyen, D.D.
Auxiliary Bishop of Orange

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:
Históricamente, los Juegos Olímpicos han sido una ocasión para que todas las personas se unieran en el amor al deporte. Los Juegos brindaban la oportunidad de dejar a un lado las diferencias culturales y las opiniones ideológicas y de verse unos a otros simplemente como seres humanos. Era un momento en el que personas de todo el mundo se sentían incluidas y unidas. Lamentablemente, la semana pasada en París, en lugar de crear un evento que uniera y mostrara respeto mutuo, los organizadores optaron por utilizar la ceremonia de apertura para atacar a los cristianos. Muchos de ustedes han visto la escena blasfema en la que drag queens utilizaron la Última Cena para burlarse del sacrificio de Cristo, signo de su amor por todos los hombres. Por si la blasfemia no fuera suficiente, la representación incluía también imágenes satánicas. El mensaje de los organizadores es muy claro: los cristianos no merecen respeto y no son bienvenidos en los Juegos Olímpicos de París.

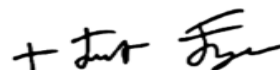

Hacemos eco a la declaración de los obispos franceses cuando afirmaron que las ceremonias de apertura «incluyeron desgraciadamente escenas de escarnio y burla del cristianismo, que deploramos profundamente». Pedimos a todos los cristianos y a las personas de buena voluntad que recen por la conversión de los implicados en este espectáculo repugnante, que dediquen más tiempo a la oración ante el Santísimo Sacramento, que proclamen con valentía su fe en la Eucaristía y que consideren la posibilidad de boicotear los Juegos Olímpicos este año.

Le animamos a que se ponga en contacto con el Comité Olímpico Internacional visitando <https://olympics.com/ioc/contact-us> para expresar su decepción por el hecho de que promuevan la división y la blasfemia. Ojalá los organizadores de los Juegos Olímpicos se den cuenta de que, en lugar de burlarse y blasfemar, se sirve mejor a la humanidad cuando trabajamos por la unidad, el respeto y la excelencia en el deporte.

Con amor en nuestro Señor Eucaristía,
Reverendísimo Kevin W. Vann, J.C.D., D.D., D.Min.
Obispo de Orange

Reverendísimo Timothy E. Freyer, D.D.
