REFLECTION FOR 23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

One of the most touching YouTube videos I've ever seen is one in which a deaf woman receives new technology to heal her hearing. She hears her husband's voice for the first time — and her own, too — and bursts into tears of overwhelming joy. It must have been like an immovable wall between her and her loved ones came tumbling down.

We are all like this woman, to some degree. We believe in the presence of God's love, but we can't hear Him. We can't speak well about Him. The deaf man who can't speak properly in the Gospel today is an image of what God wants us to experience again and again. Jesus takes the man aside to a private place away from the crowd, touches his ears and tongue, and says, "Ephphata!" The man's ears are opened, and he speaks clearly. Contact with Christ has this effect on us.

This experience happens to us in our baptism, almost exactly. It happens to us in the liturgy. It happens in our private prayer. It happens when we hear the voice of God in our conscience. The more we engage these privileged channels of Jesus' healing, the more we are empowered to hear and speak of the presence of God's perfect love.

— Father John Muir

REFLEXIÓN PARA 23º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Se imaginan que, en la familia, papá y mamá con sus hijos, lo hicieran todo bien. Que los servidores públicos se esmeraran por el bien social y comunitario, en fin, que cada uno de nosotros nos preocupáramos por el bien de la otra persona. Les aseguro que el mundo sería diferente. No habría tanto problema familiar, ni tanta violencia en las calles de las ciudades, ni en el mundo. La Palabra de Dios nos dice hoy que la gente se expresaba de Jesús de la mejor manera y comentaban entre ellos lo siguiente: "Todo lo ha hecho bien; hace oír a los sordos y hablar a los mudos" (Marcos 7:37). Muchas veces, por evitar problemas, preferimos hacernos los desentendidos, fingiendo que no vemos y no podemos hablar. "No te metas en problemas, mejor no digas nada de lo que viste". Y así aceptamos la violencia familiar, los robos y las mentiras entre la familia y la sociedad.

Con esas actitudes, nunca llegaremos a un diálogo que permita conocer las situaciones que vive nuestro prójimo y comprender con la mente y el corazón lo que está pasando a nuestro alrededor, y lo más importante dejar que la persona sienta que nos importa. También nos puede pasar lo mismo cada domingo que asistimos a Misa, que, por estar distraídos en otros pensamientos y otras situaciones, evitamos escuchar la voz de Dios. Porque Dios nos habla de mil formas en nuestra vida. Un modo especial en el que Dios nos habla es por medio de la oración. ¿Lo escuchamos?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Caterina Volpicelli

St. Caterina Volpicelli (1839-1894) left a life of elegant Neapolitan society to serve the Lord. She adhered to the Apostleship of Prayer, dedicating each day to the Sacred Heart. Her order, the Servants of the Sacred Heart, opened an orphanage, a lending library, and nursed cholera victims.

Santa Caterina Volpicelli (1839-1894) dejó una vida de elegante sociedad napolitana para servir al Señor. Ella se adhirió al Apostolado de la Oración, dedicando cada día al Sagrado Corazón. Su orden, los Siervos del Sagrado Corazón, abrió un orfanato, una biblioteca de préstamos, y cuidó a las víctimas del cólera.

The Eucharist is the "source and summit" of the Christian life. This year, we will be learning more about Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati's motto, "Verso l'alto" or "to the heights," and what it means for us to climb our own mountains to reach the heights of holiness, in particular through the Sacrifice of the Mass.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL FUN

Students and parents have been enjoying lots of fun activities as the school year begins!

1-2) Students and parents had a chance to meet their teachers, visit the classrooms, and enjoy Kona Ice before school began; 3-4) First graders settled into the school year with a book called Jitter Juice about being nervous on your first day of school and then drank their own Jitter Juice (Hawaiian Punch) to calm any butterflies in their stomachs; 5) Parents were invited to a social in downtown Fullerton to catch up with old friends, meet new ones, and ask any questions about school activities and procedures; 6) Student council members were ready to welcome students on the first day with some extra SAM spirit; 7) Students got fired up about reading at the book fair. Thank you to Mrs. DeRousse and her team for organizing this amazing event!

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS

EDWARD SRI

BIBLE STUDY

The Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive him Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist. In his video-based study A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, Dr. Edward Sri explores the roots of the words and gestures we experience at Mass and explains their profound significance. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Join us for A Biblical Walk Through the Mass on eight Wednesdays from October 2 until November 20 from 7:00 to 8:30 pm in the Parish Hall. Registration costs $20 for the study guide. Register after all English Masses the weekend of September 7-8 and after that at the Parish Office. For more information call/text Nick Rawe (213-703-5220) or email rediscoverolg@gmail.com.
