REFLECTION FOR 25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I am fascinated by minor Gospel characters. These people — the rich young man, the adulterous woman, the teachers at the temple — share the stage with Jesus only briefly. They bear passing but powerful witness to crucial moments of his earthly ministry. They breathe the air he breathes. They hear the sound of his voice. Some of them feel the touch of his skin.

And then they go on with their lives and disappear into obscurity. They become just another one of us.

I think of the child who sat in Jesus' lap while he said those famous words: "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

What did the boy think? Did he understand the words, or did he only know that they were gently spoken? Did he only think to himself how kind was the face of this man, and how consoling and warm his embrace?

I picture this child growing up. Perhaps he married and loved his wife and children. Perhaps he was happy, or perhaps he was not. Perhaps he became wealthy or was even wealthy to begin with. Perhaps he, like so many other children of that era, had only a very short life, and returned quickly to the arms that enveloped him that day in Capernaum.

We don't know. But we know he was there: he saw Christ, he felt him, he heard him. We sigh to think of it. How lucky. If only we could, too. Then it would be easier. Then we could be holy.

But we are all this child in Capernaum. We are all the woman at the well. We are all the centurion at the cross. Every time we kneel before the Host and hear the words "This is my Body," we occupy the same earthly time and space as the Messiah, and he fixes upon us the same gaze he fixed upon them.

We all bear witness.

We receive him, and then we go back to our lives, our ordinary lives.

Do we carry him with us? Do we dare?

"I will praise your name, O Lord, for its goodness." — Psalm 54:6

REFLEXIÓN PARA 25º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Me fascinan los personajes menores del Evangelio. Estas personas (el joven rico, la mujer adúltera, los maestros del templo) comparten el escenario con Jesús sólo brevemente. Dan un testimonio pasajero pero poderoso de momentos cruciales de su ministerio terrenal. Respiran el aire que él respira. Escuchan el sonido de su voz. Algunos de ellos sienten el tacto de su piel. Y luego continúan con sus vidas y desaparecen en la oscuridad. Se convierten en uno más de nosotros.

Pienso en el niño que se sentó en el regazo de Jesús mientras decía aquellas famosas palabras: "El que recibe en mi nombre a un niño como este, a mí me recibe; y el que me recibe, no me recibe a mí, sino al que me envió."

¿Qué pensó el niño? ¿Entendió las palabras o sólo sabía que fueron dichas con suavidad? ¿Pensó sólo en lo bondadoso que era el rostro de este hombre y en lo reconfortante y cálido de su abrazo?

Me imagino a este niño creciendo. Quizás se casó y amó a su esposa e hijos. Quizás era feliz o quizás no. Quizás se hizo rico o incluso ya era rico para empezar. Quizás él, como tantos otros niños de esa época, tuvo una vida muy corta y volvió rápidamente a los brazos que lo envolvieron ese día en Cafarnaúm.

No lo sabemos. Pero sabemos que él estaba allí: vio a Cristo, lo sintió, lo escuchó. Suspiramos al pensar en ello. Que afortunado. Si tan sólo pudiéramos nosotros también. Entonces sería más fácil. Entonces podríamos ser santos.

Pero todos somos este niño en Cafarnaúm. Todas somos la mujer del pozo. Todos somos el centurión en la cruz. Cada vez que nos arrodillamos ante la Hostia y escuchamos las palabras "Este es mi Cuerpo," ocupamos el mismo tiempo y espacio terrenal que el Mesías, y él fija en nosotros la misma mirada que fijó en ellos.

Todos damos testimonio.

Lo recibimos y luego volvemos a nuestra vida, a nuestra vida ordinaria.

¿Lo llevamos con nosotros? ¿Nos atrevemos?

"Alabaré tu nombre, oh, Señor, por su bondad". — Salmo 54:6

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH
THE MASS

BIBLE STUDY

The Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive him Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist. In his video-based study A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, Dr. Edward Sri explores the roots of the words and gestures we experience at Mass and explains their profound significance. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Join us for A Biblical Walk Through the Mass on eight Wednesdays from October 2 until November 20 from 7:00 to 8:30 pm in the Parish Hall. Registration costs $20 for the study guide. Register after all English Masses the weekend of September 7-8 and after that at the Parish Office. For more information call/text Nick Rawe (213-703-5220) or email rediscoverolg@gmail.com.

PARISH SCHOOL

Thank you, Father Daniel, for giving our TK and kindergarten students a tour of the church!

CAMPUS MINISTRY HOSTS PRESENTATION ON THE MASS

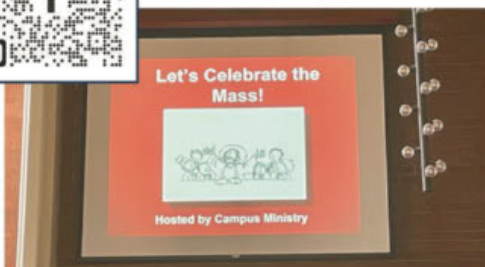

SAM Music teacher, Mrs. Halliday, and her amazing team of campus ministers hosted a special presentation to help students get ready for the first school-wide Mass of the year. Written by Mrs. Halliday to appeal to elementary age students, this presentation took students through the different parts of the Mass and explained how students can be active participants. The students learned how to enter the church, practiced prayers and responses of the Mass, joined together in several liturgical songs that will be used throughout the year, and much more. In addition to the "how," there was a special emphasis on the "why" so students could gain a better understanding of these sacred actions.

Get a peek of the presentation! Campus ministry students added additional information, songs, and audience participation!

FIRST SCHOOL MASS AND BACKPACK BLESSING

The SAM community gathered on Tuesday for the first school-wide Mass of the year. Father Daniel blessed the students' backpacks and students were given small cross key chains saying Faith, Hope and Love to keep on their bags throughout the year. SAM comes together each week to celebrate Mass as a school community.

The Mission of St. Angela Merici Parish Catholic School is to proclaim the Gospel, celebrate through worship, build community, serve others and achieve academic excellence through the discovery of each student's gifts and talents.
