SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me." - Mk 9:38-39

REFLECTION FOR 26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

If you show up to the gates of heaven completely whole, I kind of doubt you'll be let inside.

I know that sounds pretty awful, because what kind of God doesn't want all of you, exactly as you are? "Be yourself," we tell our kids. "If someone expects you to change to be their friend, you don't want to be that person's friend."

And sure, all of that is true ... to an extent. But I think if we really analyze our closest friendships, we'll see that we have been changed by them. We aren't the same person we were on the day we met our best friend or before we fell in love with our spouse.

The good relationships should always change us, form us. They should call us to some higher plateau on the mountain climb that is life. But to be nimble enough for the climb, there will be parts of ourselves that we have to jettison — preconceived notions, prejudices, selfish tendencies, habits that we cling to like a security blanket.

This is how we become who we are meant to be: by discerning what isn't helpful and good in our own nature, and letting it go.

"I saw the angel in the marble," Michelangelo once said of his artistic process, "and I carved until I set him free."

Would it not be a terrible tragedy if we all remained shapeless hunks of marble, untouched by the chisels of experience and relationship, thinking ourselves perfect exactly as we are?

God looks at us and he sees the angel hidden in the marble, imprisoned there by the constraints of earthly life: original sin, the weakness of our flesh, the unceasing enticement of the evil one.

He sees past what we need to excise, what we need to lop off, what we need to relinquish. He knows we are greatly attached to every part of ourselves, even those parts that lead us to sin.

He sees more than what is. He sees what can be.

"Cleanse me from my unknown faults!" — Psalm 19:13

REFLEXIÓN PARA 26º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Si llegas a las puertas del cielo completamente sano, dudo que te dejen entrar.

Sé que suena bastante horrible, porque ¿qué clase de Dios no los quiere a todos ustedes, exactamente como son? "Sé tú mismo," les decimos a nuestros hijos. "Si alguien espera que cambies para ser su amigo, no querrás ser amigo de esa persona." Y claro, todo eso es cierto... hasta cierto punto. Pero creo que, si realmente analizamos nuestras amistades más cercanas, veremos que ellas nos han cambiado. No somos la misma persona que éramos el día que conocimos a nuestro mejor amigo o antes de enamorarnos de nuestro cónyuge. Las buenas relaciones siempre deben cambiarnos, formarnos. Deberían llamarlos a alguna meseta más alta en la escalada de la montaña que es la vida. Pero para ser lo suficientemente ágiles para ascender, habrá partes de nosotros mismos que tendremos que desechar: nociones preconcebidas, prejuicios, tendencias egoístas, hábitos a los que nos aferramos como a una manta de seguridad.

Así es como nos convertimos en quienes debemos ser: discerniendo lo que no es útil ni bueno en nuestra propia naturaleza y dejándolo ir.

"Vi al ángel en el mármol," dijo una vez Miguel Ángel sobre su proceso artístico, "y tallé hasta dejarlo libre."

¿No sería una tragedia terrible si todos siguiéramos siendo pedazos de mármol informes, intocados por los cincelos de la experiencia y las relaciones, pensando que somos perfectos exactamente como somos?

Dios nos mira y ve al ángel escondido en el mármol, aprisionado allí por las limitaciones de la vida terrena: el pecado original, la debilidad de nuestra carne, la incesante seducción del maligno. Él ve más allá de lo que debemos eliminar, de lo que debemos cortar, de lo que debemos renunciar. Él sabe que estamos muy apegados a cada parte de nosotros mismos, incluso a aquellas partes que nos llevan al pecado.

Él ve más de lo que es. Él ve lo que puede ser.

"¡Límpiame de mis faltas desconocidas!" — Salmo 19:13

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS

BIBLE STUDY

The Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive him Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist. In his video-based study A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, Dr. Edward Sri explores the roots of the words and gestures we experience at Mass and explains their profound significance. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Join us for A Biblical Walk Through the Mass on eight Wednesdays from October 2 until November 20 from 7:00 to 8:30 pm in the Parish Hall. Registration costs $20 for the study guide. Register after all English Masses the weekend of September 7-8 and after that at the Parish Office. For more information call/text Nick Rawe (213-703-5220) or email rediscoverolg@gmail.com.

FAITH FAMILIES CELEBRATE INTERNATIONAL DOT DAY

SAM students gathered in their Faith Families to celebrate International Dot Day, a global celebration of creativity, courage and collaboration, based on Peter H. Reynolds' book, The Dot. The groups read this inspirational picture book and then completed their own dot project with a pixel art activity.

The Dot is the story of a caring teacher who dares a doubting student to trust in her own abilities by being brave enough to "make her mark." What begins with a small dot on a piece of paper becomes a breakthrough in confidence and courage.

SAM Faith Families consist of 8th grade leaders and a student from each grade in TK - 7th grade. They meet each month as a family to celebrate feast days, promote school service, clean up campus, spread kindness, and learn to work as a team. We call these Faith Families because these groups learn to authentically love by helping other members of their school and caring for needs above their own, just as in a family.

BIG CHEERS FOR GIRLS VOLLEYBALL!

Congratulations to our amazing SAM Cougars Girls A volleyball team who competed in the Parochial Athletic League's diocese-wide tournament at Servite High School and came out on top! A huge shout-out to our incredible players and coaches for their hard work, teamwork, and determination!

The Mission of St. Angela Merici Parish Catholic School is to proclaim the Gospel, celebrate through worship, build community, serve others and achieve academic excellence through the discovery of each student's gifts and talents.
