REFLECTION FOR
30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Leprosy and blindness and deafness — oh, my. The disabilities cured by Jesus in his public ministry really are quite something, aren't they? Vividly symbolic and rich food for reflection. It just wouldn't be the same if Jesus had cured eczema or athlete's foot or compulsive nail-biting.

Blind Bartimaeus, sitting by the side of the road, in particular captures my imagination. Because I have a confession to make, sometimes, I like to sit in the darkness, even though I know it isn't very good for me.

Well, listen: it's just easier, isn't it? You don't have to care about or fix the problems you can't see. No one expects you to rush to someone's aid if you don't see their injuries. The darkness is a good place to be, if you don't feel very brave or very smart or very able.

And when Jesus passes you by, if your whole world is darkness, it's easy enough to pretend you just didn't notice him at all.

But Bartimaeus chose not to stay in his darkness. More than that, he cried out to be released from it, even when everyone around him told him to shut up. He was so persistent that he caught the notice of Jesus, and when he heard those words — "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you!" — what did he do? He didn't stammer and run away. He had courage. He got up.

It takes courage to ask for what you need to follow Christ. Because if you ask for it, you'll get it. And then begins the terrifying, wonderful journey of discipleship — testifying to what you have seen. Life in the light, no longer sitting by the side of the road but on the road, journeying toward the greatest destination of all.

"What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus asks us.

Do we have the courage to answer him?

REFLEXIÓN PARA
30º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

La lepra, la ceguera y la sordera, ¡oh, Dios mío! Las discapacidades curadas por Jesús en su ministerio público realmente son algo muy importante, ¿no es así? Vividamente simbólicas y rico alimento para la reflexión. Simplemente no sería lo mismo si Jesús hubiera curado el eczema o el pie de atleta o el morderse las uñas compulsivamente.

El ciego Bartimeo, sentado al costado de la carretera, en particular, captura mi imaginación. Debido a que tengo una confesión que hacer, a veces, me gusta sentarme en la oscuridad, aunque sé que no es muy bueno para mí.

Bueno, escucha: es más fácil, ¿no? No tienes que preocuparte o solucionar los problemas que no puedes ver. Nadie espera que corras a ayudar a alguien si no ves sus heridas. La oscuridad es un buen lugar para estar, si no te sientes muy valiente o muy inteligente o muy capaz.

Y cuando Jesús pasa a tu lado, si todo tu mundo es oscuridad, es bastante fácil fingir que simplemente no lo notaste en absoluto.

Pero Bartimeo decidió no quedarse en su oscuridad. Más que eso, clamó para ser liberado de ella, incluso cuando todos a su alrededor le decían que se callara. Era tan persistente que llamó la atención de Jesús, y cuando escuchó esas palabras: "Ánimo; ¡Levántate, Jesús te está llamando!", ¿qué hizo? No tartamudeó ni huyó. Tenía valentía. Se levantó.

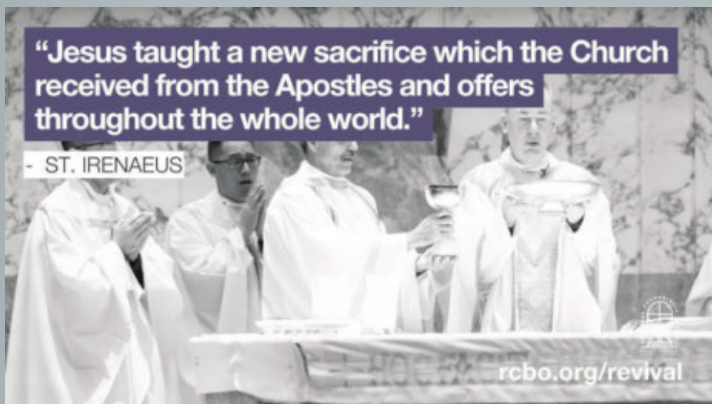

Se necesita valentía para pedir lo que necesitas para seguir a Cristo. Porque si lo pides, lo obtendrás. Y entonces comienza el aterrador y maravilloso viaje del discipulado, testificando de lo que has visto. La vida en la luz, ya no sentados al lado del camino, sino en el camino, viajando hacia el destino más grande de todos.

"¿Qué quieres que haga por ti?" Jesús nos pregunta.

¿Tenemos la valentía de responderle?

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Jeremiah 29:11

Jackie Macabuhay is a dynamic business entrepreneur but behind the success lies a powerful journey of faith and resilience. Growing up Catholic, she struggled with her faith and did not understand how God could possibly work in her life.

At the age of 24, a life-altering diagnosis of cancer shifted everything. This pivotal moment led her and her family to discover and embrace the Catholic Charismatic renewal. The experience began a deep and transformative relationship with God.

Over the last 35 years, in spite of numerous obstacles including several life threatening health issues and losing her home and belongings in the California wildfires, Jackie has dedicated her life to serving the Lord. While enduring these difficult trials, some would ask, “how are you able to praise God?”, in the end, her only response was, “there is no other option”. Jackie and her husband have worked together as a couple in Catholic youth ministry and she will share how the Lord has taken her from her comfort zone as an introvert, to now a Praise and Worship Leader, speaker and Coordinator for the Heart of Jesus Community in Glendale.
