REFLECTION FOR
31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I didn't realize how much my arms would hurt when I became a mom. It occurred to me first during Mass when my daughter was just a few weeks old. She was the kind of kid who could only sleep in someone's arms. I desperately wanted her to stay quiet during the service, so I held the swaddled bundle in front of me like it was a bomb, not daring to move. By the homily, my arms were on fire. I quickly realized this was a common scenario of my new life as a parent. Holding, rocking, bouncing, restraining, dragging — honestly, my weak little chicken-arms had never been worked out like this before. It took all my strength. But isn't that the way it is with everything that's worthwhile? It takes all your strength. Not some of it. Not most of it. All of it.

I am a fairly active Catholic. My faith impacts a lot of areas of my life. But there are still boundaries that I've drawn around God. There are places I haven't let Him in. Things I keep "for myself." Experiences that are just so full of me, so full of my own plans and my own desires. But God desires everything. Not because He is selfish, but because He is good, and wise. Because He knows that the places we keep from Him will become filled with something else. He wants to get there first. He wants to lay His claim. He wants all our strength. All our heart. All our soul. All our mind. Not most of it. All of it.

Can we give it to Him?

REFLEXIÓN PARA
31º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

No me di cuenta de lo mucho que me dolerían los brazos cuando me convirtiera en madre. Se me ocurrió por primera vez durante la misa cuando mi hija tenía solo unas semanas de edad. Era el tipo de niña que solo podía dormir en los brazos de alguien. Deseaba desesperadamente que se quedara callada durante el servicio, así que sostuve el paquete envuelto frente a mí como si fuera una bomba, sin atreverme a moverme. Para el tiempo de la homilía, mis brazos estaban en llamas. Rápidamente me di cuenta de que este era un escenario común de mi nueva vida como madre. Sostener, mecer, rebotar, sujetar, arrastrar: honestamente, mis débiles bracitos de pollo nunca antes habían sido trabajados de esta manera. Tomo todas mis fuerzas. Pero, ¿no es así con todo lo que vale la pena? Se necesita toda tu fuerza. No solo una poca. No la mayor parte. Toda.

Soy una católica bastante activa. Mi fe impacta muchas áreas de mi vida. Pero todavía hay límites que he trazado alrededor de Dios. Hay lugares en los que no lo he dejado entrar. Cosas que guardo "para mí". Experiencias que están tan llenas de mí, tan llenas de mis propios planes y mis propios deseos. Pero Dios lo desea todo. No porque sea egoísta, sino porque es bueno y sabio. Porque Él sabe que los lugares que guardamos de Él se llenarán con algo más. Él quiere llegar primero. Él quiere hacer Su reclamo. Él quiere todas nuestras fuerzas. Todo nuestro corazón. Toda nuestra alma. Toda nuestra mente. No la mayor parte. Todo.

¿Podemos dárselo a Él?

5TH GRADERS CREATE BEATITUDES POSTERS

Our SAM 5th graders closed out their unit on The Beatitudes by creating their own Beatitudes posters using the web-based graphic design program, Canva. Student combined their Gospel knowledge with their creative and artistic talents to create posters that explain how to live out the Beatitudes in daily life. Thank you to Ms. Melodia, our 5th grade teacher, for planning this fun and unique project.

SAM SPOTLIGHT

MRS. SANTANA

Meet Mrs. Santana, SAM's incredible kindergarten teacher. Mrs. Santana graduated from UCLA and earned her Master's degree from CSU LA. Mrs. Santana's interest in teaching stems from her childhood. Her parents taught Catechism, and most of her siblings helped. She followed in their footsteps, teaching confirmation classes for several years, with her husband as co-teacher.

"I feel blessed to be a part of our St. Angela Merici Parish School community as the Kindergarten teacher. I enjoy teaching my students in a spiritual environment where God welcomes and loves them. My students learn about their faith and live it."

Thanks for all you do, Mrs. Santana!

The Mission of St. Angela Merici Parish Catholic School is to proclaim the Gospel, celebrate through worship, build community, serve others and achieve academic excellence through the discovery of each student's gifts and talents.

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Jeremiah 29:11

Jackie Macabuhay is a dynamic business entrepreneur but behind the success lies a powerful journey of faith and resilience. Growing up Catholic, she struggled with her faith and did not understand how God could possibly work in her life.

At the age of 24, a life-altering diagnosis of cancer shifted everything. This pivotal moment led her and her family to discover and embrace the Catholic Charismatic renewal. The experience began a deep and transformative relationship with God.

Over the last 35 years, in spite of numerous obstacles including several life threatening health issues and losing her home and belongings in the California wildfires, Jackie has dedicated her life to serving the Lord. While enduring these difficult trials, some would ask, “how are you able to praise God?”, in the end, her only response was, “there is no other option”. Jackie and her husband have worked together as a couple in Catholic youth ministry and she will share how the Lord has taken her from her comfort zone as an introvert, to now a Praise and Worship Leader, speaker and Coordinator for the Heart of Jesus Community in Glendale.
