REFLECTION FOR
OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST,
KING OF THE UNIVERSE

I read an article, years ago, about an American filmmaker who decided to step away from a wildly successful film franchise that had been requiring him and his family to live abroad.

It stuck in my mind because of the tongue-in-cheek reasoning he gave for the surprising decision, "My kids were starting to speak in British accents."

Sometimes, we just want to go home, don't we?

Returning from a recent family vacation, I burst into tears at the airport, overcome with relief when I saw my sister's van pulling into the pickup lane. It didn't matter that I had had fun on this trip and that I was even looking forward to taking another one. In that moment, I was so tired, and all I wanted was my own bed. The smell of my own house. The feeling of not being "away."

If Jesus is our king, and his kingdom is not of this world, then we live our lives as perpetual aliens. This should reassure us in some ways. The world so often feels cold and cruel and strange to us because it is. We were not made for this world. We were made for heaven. We were made to yearn for the face, the presence, the protection of our King. But this understanding of ourselves as strangers in a foreign land should also be a caution to us.

We can't get too comfortable here. We cannot become too wrapped up in the world and its temptations, its rewards, its comforts. We cannot start speaking in the language, the accent of our adopted homeland. Not if we ever want to return home and belong there.

Our King looks for our return.

REFLEXIÓN PARA
NUESTRO SEÑOR JESUCRISTO,
REY DEL UNIVERSO

Leí un artículo, hace años, sobre un cineasta estadounidense que decidió alejarse de una franquicia cinematográfica de gran éxito que le había exigido a él y a su familia vivir en el extranjero.

Se me quedó grabado en la mente por el razonamiento irónico que dio para la sorprendente decisión: "Mis hijos estaban empezando a hablar con acento británico".

A veces, solo queremos irnos a casa, ¿no?

Al regresar de unas vacaciones familiares recientes, rompí en llanto en el aeropuerto, abrumada por el alivio cuando vi que la camioneta de mi hermana se detenía en el carril de recogida. No importaba que me hubiera divertido en este viaje y que incluso estuviera deseando hacer otro. En ese momento, estaba tan cansada y todo lo que quería era mi propia cama. El olor de mi propia casa. La sensación de no estar "lejos".

Si Jesús es nuestro rey, y su reino no es de este mundo, entonces vivimos nuestras vidas como extranjeros perpetuos. Esto debería tranquilizarnos de alguna manera. El mundo a menudo se siente frío, cruel y extraño para nosotros porque lo es. No fuimos hechos para este mundo. Fuimos hechos para el cielo. Fuimos hechos para anhelar el rostro, la presencia, la protección de nuestro Rey.

Pero esta comprensión de nosotros mismos como extranjeros en una tierra extranjera también debería ser una advertencia para nosotros.

No podemos sentirnos demasiado cómodos aquí. No podemos involucrarnos demasiado en el mundo y sus tentaciones, sus recompensas, sus comodidades. No podemos empezar a hablar en el idioma, el acento de nuestra patria adoptiva. No si alguna vez queremos volver a casa y pertenecer allí.

Nuestro Rey espera nuestro regreso.

"It's time for faithful Catholic to stop trying to live for God. Instead, we should start living from him. The body and blood of the Lord are the source of our life, our energy, and our joy. And let's rush out into a starving world and tell everybody we meet, starving people, listen: We found where the food is. We found where the food is!"

- MSGR JAMES SHEA

"Es hora de que los fieles católicos dejen de intentar vivir para Dios. Más bien, deberíamos empezar a vivir de él. El cuerpo y la sangre del Señor son la fuente de nuestra vida, nuestra energía y nuestro gozo. Y corramos hacia un mundo hambriento y digamos a todos los que encontremos, gente hambrienta, escuchen: encontramos dónde está la comida. ¡Encontramos dónde está la comida!"

"Listen, and let it penetrate your heart... Do not be troubled or weighed down with grief. Do not fear any illness or vexation, anxiety or pain. Am I not here, I who am your Mother?" — Words of Our Lady of Guadalupe from the Nican Mopohua, which remind us of her loving care and constant presence.

The Fiesta Guadalupana is approaching, and it has been a great joy to celebrate this event for three consecutive years with the participation of our bishops, priests, and thousands of faithful. On behalf of Bishop Kevin Vann, I invite all of you to the 2024 celebration, which will take place on Saturday, December 7, 2024, at Christ Cathedral, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

This year's celebration will include:

- Solemn Mass at 11:15 a.m., where all priests are invited to concelebrate.
- Amazing speakers
- A Fiesta Celebration at 12:15 p.m., with traditional Mexican food, music, and dances.
- The Holy Rosary and Procession at 3:00 p.m.

This event is being organized by the Office of Hispanic Ministry and the Hispanic Priest Comité, and we invite all priests serving in parishes with Hispanic communities to actively promote participation. Please encourage your entire parish community to join us on this special day. Additionally, we ask that religious education programs direct their students and families to attend, so that together we may honor Our Lady of Guadalupe as a diocesan family.

We encourage all parishes with Hispanic Communities to participate in this beautiful experience of faith and devotion. If possible, please make every effort to cancel or reschedule your Saturday morning parish activities so your community can attend and celebrate together with our diocesan family.

I also ask that you please pray for the success of this event and for all the countless volunteers and organizers, including members of the Hispanic Presbyteral Council, who are working hard to ensure this is a grace-filled celebration. If there is anything we can do to assist you in promoting this event with your communities, do not hesitate to reach out to Armando Cervantes, Director of Hispanic Ministry, at acervantes@rcbo.org.

May Our Lady of Guadalupe continue to intercede for you and your ministry,

Most Rev. Timothy Freyer, D.D.

"Escucha, ponlo en tu corazón... No te aflijas ni te atormentes por dolor alguno. No temas ninguna enfermedad, molestia, angustia o pena. ¿No estoy yo aquí, que soy tu madre?" — Palabras de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe del Nican Mopohua, que nos recuerdan su amorosa protección y constante presencia.

La Fiesta Guadalupana se acerca, y ha sido una gran alegría celebrar este evento durante tres años consecutivos con la participación de nuestros obispos, sacerdotes y miles de fieles. En nombre del Obispo Kevin Vann, los invito a la celebración del 2024, que se llevará a cabo el sábado 7 de diciembre de 2024, en la Catedral de Cristo, de 9:00 a.m. a 4:00 p.m.

La celebración de este año incluirá:

- Misa Solemne a las 11:15 a.m., en la cual todos los sacerdotes están invitados a concelebrar.
- Conferencistas Espectaculares
- Una Fiesta a las 12:15 p.m., con comida tradicional Mexicana, música y danzas.
- El Santo Rosario y Procesión a las 3:00 p.m.

Este evento está siendo organizado por la Oficina del Ministerio Hispano y el Comité de Sacerdotes Hispanos, y los invitamos a todos los sacerdotes que sirven en parroquias con comunidades hispanas a promover activamente la participación. Les pedimos que animen a toda su comunidad parroquial a unirse a nosotros en este día tan especial. Además, pedimos que los programas de educación religiosa dirijan a sus estudiantes y familias para que asistan, para que juntos podamos honrar a Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe como una familia diocesana.

Les pedimos a todas las parroquias con comunidades hispanas que participen esta hermosa experiencia de fe y devoción. Si es posible, por favor hagan todo lo posible para cancelar o reprogramar las actividades parroquiales de la mañana del sábado, de modo que su comunidad pueda asistir y celebrar junto con nuestra familia diocesana.

También les pido que por favor oren por el éxito de este evento y por todos los innumerables voluntarios y organizadores, incluidos los miembros del Consejo Presbiteral Hispano, que están trabajando arduamente para asegurar que esta celebración esté llena de gracia. Si hay algo que podamos hacer para ayudarlos a promover este evento en sus comunidades, no duden en ponerse en contacto con Armando Cervantes, director del Ministerio Hispano, en acervantes@rcbo.org.

Que Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe siga intercediendo por ustedes y su ministerio,

S.E. Mons. Timothy E. Freyer

A sign of healing

Dealing with the emotions of grief

Support as you move through the grief process

We are forming a GriefShare group beginning Thursday evening, Jan. 16, at St. Angela's.

GriefShare is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. Through this 13-week program, you will discover what to expect in the days ahead, and what's "normal" in grief. Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, you will learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability – and gain solid support each step of the way.

If you are interested in joining us, please call the parish office at 714-529-1821 and leave your name and phone number. Our GriefShare team will contact you.
