REFLECTION FOR
THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Have you ever wondered why the magi had gold, frankincense, and myrrh? Matthew's Gospel tells us, "Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh" (Matt. 2:11). Why are these things their "treasures"? One possible answer is they were magicians and astrologers, and these three items were the tools of their questionable trade. In offering them to Christ, they demonstrate that they will cease using such items to predict or control life. They place this baby-king, the God of Israel, at the center of their lives, and not their own devices of control, manipulation and prediction.

Isn't that what we need to do, too? Consider, for example, the magical power of money, symbolized by the magi's gold. Seemingly whatever we ask of money, it does. It wields a god-like power over the world. It can predict the future by guaranteeing better outcomes for us — which is why it is such a tempting alternative to trusting in God. The problem is such absolute trust in money enslaves us to the economic forces that make money so powerful. In paying homage to Jesus with "gold" (i.e., tithing), we participate in his authority over (and therefore freedom from) the magical sway of money.

What things in your life do you use to predict or control your future? What in your life seems to give you power over the world? Those are your treasures. Are you tired of feeling enslaved to them? Find a way to open them and give them to Christ, and you will be freer.

— Father John Muir

REFLEXIÓN PARA
LA EPIFANÍA DEL SEÑOR

Estamos aún en un ambiente navideño, la alegría perdura todavía en nuestro corazón y en el ambiente. El Evangelio nos narra que los Magos, obedeciendo la voz de su conciencia y guiados por una estrella, se ponen en marcha. Deseaban reconocer a Dios para ofrecerle sus regalos de oro, incienso y mirra. Después de investigar y preguntar, se aseguran de continuar el camino. Su esfuerzo no fue en vano, ellos fueron capaces de encontrarlo: "Al entrar a la casa vieron al niño con María, su madre; se arrodillaron y le adoraron" (Mateo 2:11). ¿Cuáles han sido mis esfuerzos en esta Navidad para encontrar a Dios? ¿A quien he preguntado para ser guiado y llegar a Él?

Para ver el misterio de Dios, debemos prepararnos. Esto implica movimiento, bondad, y sencillez. Solo así, experimentaremos la grandeza de Dios y lograremos ver nuestra pequeñez. Callar y percibir el ambiente del Evangelio de esta Liturgia es esencial para una limpieza del corazón. Es tiempo de abandonar la terquedad de nuestra vida, la desconfianza e hipocresía que a veces tenemos guardada como Herodes. "Se dejaron guiar por el impulso de la luz celeste y mientras acompañaban con atenta contemplación la luz que los precedía, eran guiados al conocimiento de la verdad por el esplendor de la gracia" (San León Magno, Primer sermón de la Epifanía). Todos estamos invitados y tenemos derecho de mirar al cielo como los Magos y buscar la estrella que nos guía en el camino: ¡Jesús!

Exciting New Opportunity

Cor Formation for Men

Tuesday, Jan 7th, 7:00 pm

Following the success of our recent men's retreat at St. Angela's, we are excited to introduce Cor, a new formation and fraternal opportunity for the men of St. Angela Merici Parish and their friends. Cor is dedicated to forming and strengthening Catholic men in faith and virtue as missionary disciples. Through prayer, formation, and fraternity, we aim to draw men into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ.

Join us for the inaugural gathering of Cor on January 7th at 7:00 pm in the Our Lady of Guadalupe (OLG) Room. Enjoy homemade treats and fellowship—no charge. To help us plan, please send a quick text to Paul Hinz at (562) 253-8902. If you can't make the inaugural meeting, we welcome you to join us for future sessions.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is becoming OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults).

The OCIA is the process through which adults and older children who are not baptized become Catholic. Those baptized as Catholics or in another Christian faith but have not received Eucharist (Communion) and Confirmation are also prepared through this process.

Order= meaning a collection of Rites

Rites= meaning a church tradition on how the sacraments are celebrated

The OCIA is a process of conversion, not a program.

Not only does the OCIA Team take an active role in supporting these individuals but the Church (community) is an integral part of the formation of these seekers.

If you would like to discover more about OCIA, becoming Catholic/completing your sacraments or be a support at our sessions please contact:

Dealing with the emotions of grief

Support as you move through the grief process

We are forming a GriefShare group beginning Thursday evening, Jan. 16, at St. Angela's.

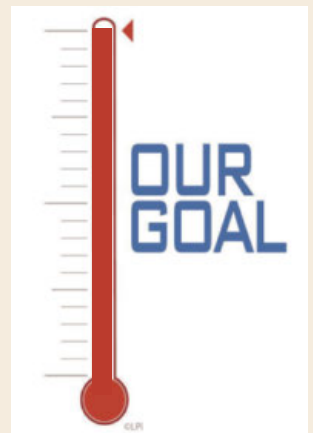

GriefShare is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. Through this 13-week program, you will discover what to expect in the days ahead, and what's "normal" in grief. Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, you will learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability and gain solid support each step of the way.

If you are interested in joining us, please call the parish office at 714-529-1821 and leave your name and phone number. Our GriefShare team will contact you.

Congratulations St. Angela's
We have met our PSA goal of $120,000.

All further PSA donations will come directly to our parish and will be used to update our church flooring.

"Thank you for all your generosity!"
