REFLECTION FOR THE SECOND
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I once ran out of pizza at my kid's birthday party. Everyone told me it wasn't a big deal but come on. It was a disaster. I had invited all these people over. They showed up with presents and sang "Happy Birthday" and stood around patiently while my kid ripped through his cache of gifts. The very least they were expecting was to be fed sufficiently.

I'll tell you what, I sure could have used the Blessed Mother that night.

I love the story of the wedding at Cana because it's such a silly little miracle. I don't mean to be disrespectful — of course it's an incredibly important moment in Christ's public life. But it's not healing a leper. It's not raising the dead. It's not even walking on water. It's saving a young couple from embarrassment. I think sometimes we forget, or even refuse, to bring small concerns and inconveniences to God because we think we should be able to handle them on our own.

What a ridiculous attitude that is — as if we could handle anything on our own. It's so fitting that Mary, ever the observant Mother, is the one to bring the matter to Jesus' attention. He asks her what this problem has to do with him. She doesn't answer him, because, between you and me, I don't think he's asking her. I think he's asking us. All she does is tell the waiters what I consider to be the best piece of advice in all of Scripture: "Do whatever he tells you."

I'm so quick to throw up my hands and feel sorry for myself when I encounter a barrier in my life. What I should be doing is taking the matter to God, and then doing whatever He tells me.

REFLEXIÓN PARA EL SEGUNDO
DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Una vez me quedé sin pizza en la fiesta de cumpleaños de mi hijo.

Todos me dijeron que no era gran cosa, pero vamos. Fue un desastre. Había invitado a toda esta gente. Se presentaron con regalos y cantaron "Feliz Cumpleaños" y se quedaron pacientemente mientras mi hijo revisaba su alijo de regalos. Lo mínimo que esperaban era que se les alimentara lo suficiente.

Te diré una cosa, por seguro que podría haber usado a la Santísima Virgen esa noche.

Me encanta la historia de las bodas de Caná porque es un pequeño milagro tan inocente. No quiero ser irrespetuosa, por supuesto que es un momento increíblemente importante en la vida pública de Cristo. Pero no es curar a un leproso. No se trata de resucitar a los muertos. Ni siquiera es caminar sobre el agua. Es salvar a una joven pareja de la vergüenza.

Creo que a veces nos olvidamos, o incluso nos negamos, a llevar pequeñas preocupaciones e inconvenientes a Dios porque pensamos que deberíamos ser capaces de manejarlos por nuestra cuenta. Qué actitud tan ridícula es esa, como si pudiéramos manejar cualquier cosa por nuestra cuenta. Es muy apropiado que María, siempre la Madre observante, sea la que llame la atención de Jesús sobre el asunto. Él le pregunta qué tiene que ver este problema con él. Ella no le responde, porque, entre tú y yo, no creo que él le esté preguntando a ella. Creo que nos lo está preguntando a nosotros. Todo lo que hace es decirles a los sirvientes lo que considero el mejor consejo de toda la Escritura: "Hagan lo que él les diga."

Soy tan rápida para levantar las manos y sentir lástima por mí misma cuando me encuentro con una barrera en mi vida. Lo que debería estar haciendo es llevar el asunto a Dios, y luego hacer lo que Él me diga.

STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT NATIVE CALIFORNIANS AT BOWERS MUSEUM

Third graders attended a field trip to the Bowers Museum to supplement their social studies curriculum on the indigenous peoples of California. Docents led the students in four interactive learning rotations:

- Basket-weaving demonstration and project
- Hunter/gatherer civilizations
- Tribal legends and folklore
- How archaeologists help us learn about past cultures

The Mission of St. Angela Merici Parish Catholic School is to proclaim the Gospel, celebrate through worship, build community, serve others and achieve academic excellence through the discovery of each student's gifts and talents.

The OCIA is the process through which adults and older children who are not baptized become Catholic. Those baptized as Catholics or in another Christian faith but have not received Eucharist (Communion) and Confirmation are also prepared through this process.

Team OCIA

There are many moving parts in OCIA not only discussion topics of the Catholic faith, but dismissals, Breaking Open the Word, rituals, etc. This involves many individuals such as yourself to support and guide those seeking to be full active members of the Catholic Church.

Dismissal Leaders*: Do you love discussing the Sunday Readings? Dismissal leaders are needed to help with Breaking Open the Word. Catechumens are led out after the homily (9:30AM Mass) by a leader to St. Paul room to discuss the readings.

Sponsors/godparents*: Many of our catechumens and candidates need someone to support them on their journey at the OCIA sessions, rituals and Easter Vigil. You may feel a special calling to walk with one of these individuals as they become full members of the Catholic Church.

Support Team*: These are individuals who attend the OCIA sessions and show “support” by their presence and shared experience of the Catholic faith.

*All the above require that individuals be adults fully initiated (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation) practicing Catholics.

If you would like to discover more about OCIA, becoming Catholic/completing your sacraments or be a support at our sessions please contact:

Andrea Draper at: 714-529-1821 Ext. 8808 OR andrea.draper@stangelabreachurch.org

Grief Share Ministry

Support as you move through the grief process

We are forming a GriefShare group beginning Thursday evening, Jan. 16, at St. Angela's.

GriefShare is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. Through this 13-week program, you will discover what to expect in the days ahead, and what's “normal” in grief. Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, you will learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability and gain solid support each step of the way.

If you are interested in joining us, please call the parish office at 714-529-1821 and leave your name and phone number. Our GriefShare team will contact you.

Last Chance! The final day to register for Adult Confirmation is Friday 1/24!!

Are you an adult and would like to prepare for the sacrament of Confirmation?

If you have received baptism and communion in the Catholic Church and would like to prepare in English:

Registration will take place online from Nov 4, 2024 – Jan 24, 2025

Please visit www.stangelabreachurch.org and click on “Adult Confirmation”.

Space is limited to 15 people!

Classes begin: February 4 – May 20
Tuesday evenings 6:00PM – 8:00PM

For further information please contact:
