REFLECTION FOR THE 5TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

My parents' garage is full of old junk that no longer serves any purpose in my life. As a 46-year-old man, I admit that's pretty lame. Either due to my sentimentality or laziness (or both, probably), I just couldn't get myself to throw things away. But a few days ago, by a grace of God, I thought: "I'll hire my nephew Ryan to throw a bunch of my stuff away — he couldn't care less about my junk!" And you know what? It worked. In one day, Ryan chucked the majority of his uncle's useless stuff. I feel so free, ready for a new junk-free chapter in my life.

This kind of thing happens in this Sunday's Gospel. Peter's net is full of useless junk. Luke says he and the others are cleaning their nets after catching no fish. Imagine them dejectedly and impatiently removing a nasty assortment of seaweed, sticks and muck. The Lord teaches and calls them once their nets are cleared out. So it goes with us. Spiritual life begins by removing that which is useless and merely taking up space in our hearts, minds and lives. Then Jesus teaches and acts in a marvelous way in our lives, too.

So what's junking up your net? What habits, attachments, possessions, preoccupations? If, like me, you struggle to clean your nets by yourself, ask the Lord to send you someone like my nephew to be your "Peter" and help you clean it out. It is well worth it. Once Peter's net is clean, he is free to make a wonderful catch.

REFLEXIÓN PARA EL 5º DOMINGO
DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

¿Cuántas veces en la jornada laboral nos hemos decepcionado, trabajamos mucho, nos cansamos y pareciera que no avanzamos nada? Qué decepción nos embarga cuando esto pasa, nos lamentamos diciendo, lástima de cansancio. Y, a empezar de nuevo. Algo parecido le pasó a Pedro en su jornada laboral, había sido inútil el esfuerzo. De tal forma que, cuando Jesús le dice que navegue de nuevo mar adentro, Pedro le dice: "hemos trabajado toda la noche y ha sido en vano. No hemos pescado nada. Pero, confiando en ti, lo haré". Y se obtuvo el resultado de la pesca milagrosa. "Y pescaron tal cantidad de peces, que las redes se rompían" (Lucas 5:6).

La respuesta de Pedro fue impetuosa y se arrojó ante Jesús: "Señor, apártate de mí, que soy un pecador. Dios siempre se adelanta, y siempre nos espera. Jesús es el Señor, es la manifestación de Dios, y por ello Simón Pedro piensa que debe de haber una distancia entre el pecador y el Santo. Y es por su condición de pecador por lo que Jesús no se aleja de él. Si eres pecador, el Señor te espera aún más" (Papa Francisco). ¿Por qué será que la bondad y la misericordia de Dios nos asustan? Pedro, en lugar de correr y abrazar a Jesús y darle las gracias, le dice; "Señor, apártate de mí, que soy un hombre pecador" (Lucas 5:8). Sin embargo, la respuesta de Jesús es atrayente: "No temas; en adelante serás pescador de hombres" (Lucas 5:10). ¡Señor, quédate en mí, aunque soy pecador!

The OCIA is the process through which adults and older children who are not baptized become Catholic. Those baptized as Catholics or in another Christian faith but have not received Eucharist (Communion) and Confirmation are also prepared through this process.

Team OCIA

There are many moving parts in OCIA not only discussion topics of the Catholic faith, but dismissals, Breaking Open the Word, rituals, etc. This involves many individuals such as yourself to support and guide those seeking to be full active members of the Catholic Church.

Dismissal Leaders*: Do you love discussing the Sunday Readings? Dismissal leaders are needed to help with Breaking Open the Word. Catechumens are led out after the homily (9:30AM Mass) by a leader to St. Paul room to discuss the readings.

Sponsors/godparents*: Many of our catechumens and candidates need someone to support them on their journey at the OCIA sessions, rituals and Easter Vigil. You may feel a special calling to walk with one of these individuals as they become full members of the Catholic Church.

Support Team*: These are individuals who attend the OCIA sessions and show “support” by their presence and shared experience of the Catholic faith.

*All the above require that individuals be adults fully initiated
(Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation) practicing Catholics.

If you would like to discover more about OCIA, becoming Catholic/completing your sacraments or be a support at our sessions please contact:

Dealing with the emotions of grief

Support as you move through the grief process

We are meeting as a Griefshare group in the St. Paul room every Thursday at 7:00PM.

GriefShare is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. Through this 13-week program, you will discover what to expect in the days ahead, and what's "normal" in grief. Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, you will learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability and gain solid support each step of the way. If you are interested in joining us, please call the parish office at 714-529-1821 and leave your name and phone number.

Our GriefShare team will contact you.
