REFLECTION FOR THE 6TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

When I was a teenager, the priest I would go to for confession used to tell me, over and over: "In the end, we all get the same dirty hole in the ground."

What he meant was, it doesn't matter how rich or smart or well-liked we are. We're all heading to the same place. This life comes to an end for every man. All the money he earns, all the stuff, all the worldly esteem, will at some point be of no further use. We all get the same dirty hole in the ground. It was an important message for me to hear, because at the time, it all seemed so important: my after-school job and my FAFSA application and my grades. The admiration of my friends and teachers. I was so consumed with what I was going to become that I wasn't spending a lot of time thinking about who I was going to become. But the who is the only thing that lasts until the next life.

And to be honest, it's all still too important to me. Avoiding sadness and disappointment. Saving money and being liked. Focusing on "the five-year plan" when it comes to career, house plans, and a whole bunch of other things I can't take to my dirty hole in the ground.

Jesus was radical in his teaching that the "stuff" in life wasn't all that important. It was radical for him to say that the worldly signs of success — wealth, popularity, pleasure — did not amount to a whole lot in the grand scheme of things and that suffering could sanctify us. It was radical in the ancient world, and it's radical today.

Are we ready to be radical, too?

REFLEXIÓN PARA EL 6º DOMINGO
DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Cuando era adolescente, el sacerdote al que acudía para confesarme solía decirme, una y otra vez: "Al final, todos tendremos el mismo agujero sucio en el suelo."

Lo que quería decir era que no importa cuán ricos, inteligentes o queridos seamos. Todos vamos al mismo lugar. Esta vida llega a su fin para todo hombre. Todo el dinero que gane, todas las cosas, toda la estima mundana, en algún momento ya no le servirán. Todos tendremos el mismo agujero sucio en el suelo. Fue un mensaje importante para mí, porque en ese momento, todo parecía muy importante: mi trabajo después de la escuela y mi solicitud de FAFSA y mis calificaciones. La admiración de mis amigos y maestros. Estaba tan obsesionada con lo que iba a llegar a ser que no pasaba mucho tiempo pensando en quién me iba a convertir. Pero el quién es lo único que dura hasta la próxima vida.

Y para ser honesta, todo sigue siendo demasiado importante para mí. Evitar la tristeza y la decepción. Ahorrar dinero y ser querida. Centrándome en "el plan de cinco años" en lo que respecta a la carrera, los planes de la casa y un montón de otras cosas que no puedo llevar a mi sucio agujero en el suelo. Jesús fue radical en su enseñanza de que las "cosas" de la vida no eran tan importantes. Era radical para él decir que los signos mundanos del éxito —riqueza, popularidad, placer— no significaban mucho en el gran esquema de las cosas y que el sufrimiento podía santificarnos. Era radical en el mundo antiguo, y es radical hoy.

¿Estamos dispuestos a ser radicales también?

The OCIA is the process through which adults and older children who are not baptized become Catholic. Those baptized as Catholics or in another Christian faith but have not received Eucharist (Communion) and Confirmation are also prepared through this process.

Team OCIA

There are many moving parts in OCIA not only discussion topics of the Catholic faith, but dismissals, Breaking Open the Word, rituals, etc. This involves many individuals such as yourself to support and guide those seeking to be full active members of the Catholic Church.

Dismissal Leaders*: Do you love discussing the Sunday Readings? Dismissal leaders are needed to help with Breaking Open the Word. Catechumens are led out after the homily (9:30AM Mass) by a leader to St. Paul room to discuss the readings.

Sponsors/godparents*: Many of our catechumens and candidates need someone to support them on their journey at the OCIA sessions, rituals and Easter Vigil. You may feel a special calling to walk with one of these individuals as they become full members of the Catholic Church.

Support Team*: These are individuals who attend the OCIA sessions and show “support” by their presence and shared experience of the Catholic faith.

*All the above require that individuals be adults fully initiated (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation) practicing Catholics.

If you would like to discover more about OCIA, becoming Catholic/completing your sacraments or be a support at our sessions please contact:

SAM TAKES 4TH PLACE AT MOCK DECATHLON

Our SAM Decathletes won 4th place overall out of 18 teams at the Diocese of Orange Mock Decathlon in January.

SAM participates in the Academic Junior High Decathlon, a one-day competition for Catholic School students in grades 6-8. There are 10 events: Two are collaborative team efforts – a Logic Quiz and a Super Quiz with 50 multiple choice questions on five broad academic themes. The remaining eight events test individual knowledge of Roman Catholic doctrine, English, Literature, Science, Mathematics, Current Events, Social Studies, and Fine Arts (Art and Music).

Keep working hard and good luck at your March 1st competition!

The Mission of St. Angela Merici Parish Catholic School is to proclaim the Gospel, celebrate through worship, build community, serve others and achieve academic excellence through the discovery of each student's gifts and talents.

A sign of healing

Dealing with the emotions of grief

Support as you move through the grief process

We are meeting as a Griefshare group in the St. Paul room every Thursday at 7:00PM.

GriefShare is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. Through this 13-week program, you will discover what to expect in the days ahead, and what's "normal" in grief. Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, you will learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability and gain solid support each step of the way. If you are interested in joining us, please call the parish office at 714-529-1821 and leave your name and phone number.

Our GriefShare team will contact you.
