REFLECTION FOR THE 7TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

“Oh, well. I’m going to hell anyway, right?”

I have a few family members and friends who are not practicing Catholics who say this to me from time to time. It’s always spoken in a teasing manner, with a wink and a shoulder shrug, usually to explain away some sort of minor misbehavior they feel guilty about.

It saddens me that Christians have somehow gained this reputation as a people who judge, who condemn. I think in part it stems from a misunderstanding on the part of unchurched people (and lots of churched ones, too) regarding what constitutes “judging.” It is absolutely not “judging” someone to disagree with a personal decision, whatever that decision may be, or to decline from participating in that decision. We all have functioning consciences; we are all supposed to discern the moral goodness of any action before we take it.

But it is judging someone if we allow their decisions to impact how we treat them.

Today’s Gospel is an invitation for us to consider how we engage with people who disagree with us — or maybe even actively dislike us. Much is said these days of the “culture wars.” I certainly don’t disagree that it can often feel like you’re fighting a war when you’re trying to live as the Church teaches. The forces against you often seem overwhelming and nefarious. And guess what? They are.

But we need to remember who the enemy really is. The enemy is not other children of God, even if they are children of God who are actively promoting ideas that are wrong.

Perhaps these people are misguided and mistaken. Perhaps they are misled by the devil. Have we not all been misled by him at some point?

We must interact lovingly with people who think differently and live differently from us. The Christian life absolutely demands it.

REFLEXIÓN PARA EL 7º DOMINGO
DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“Oh, bueno. Voy a ir al infierno de todos modos, ¿verdad?”

Tengo algunos familiares y amigos que no son católicos practicantes que me dicen esto de vez en cuando. Siempre se habla de manera burlona, con un guiño y un encogimiento de hombros, generalmente para explicar algún tipo de mal comportamiento menor por el que se sienten culpables.

Me entristece que los cristianos de alguna manera se hayan ganado esta reputación como un pueblo que juzga, que condena. Creo que, en parte, se deriva de un malentendido por parte de las personas que no asisten a la iglesia (y también a muchas personas que asisten a la iglesia) con respecto a lo que constituye “juzgar.” No es en absoluto “juzgar” a alguien que no esté de acuerdo con una decisión personal, sea cual sea esa decisión, o que se niegue a participar en esa decisión. Todos tenemos conciencias funcionales; Se supone que todos debemos discernir la bondad moral de cualquier acción antes de llevarla a cabo.

Pero si es juzgar a alguien si permitimos que sus decisiones afecten la forma en que lo tratamos.

El Evangelio de hoy es una invitación para que consideremos cómo nos relacionamos con las personas que no están de acuerdo con nosotros, o tal vez incluso a quien le desagradamos activamente. Mucho se habla en estos días de las “guerras culturales.”

Ciertamente no estoy en desacuerdo con que a menudo se puede sentir como si estuvieras peleando una guerra cuando estás tratando de vivir como la Iglesia enseña. Las fuerzas en tu contra a menudo parecen abrumadoras y nefastas. ¿Y adivina qué? Lo son.

Pero necesitamos recordar quién es realmente el enemigo. El enemigo no son los otros hijos de Dios, incluso si son hijos de Dios que están promoviendo activamente ideas que son incorrectas. Tal vez estas personas estén equivocadas y mal guiadas. Tal vez estén engañados por el diablo. ¿No hemos sido todos engañados por él en algún momento?

Debemos interactuar amorosamente con personas que piensan y viven de manera diferente a nosotros. La vida cristiana lo exige absolutamente.

Support as you move through the grief process

We are meeting as a Griefshare group in the St. Paul room every Thursday at 7:00PM. GriefShare is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. Through this 13-week program, you will discover what to expect in the days ahead, and what’s “normal” in grief. Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, you will learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability and gain solid support each step of the way. If you are interested in joining us, please call the parish office at 714-529-1821 and leave your name and phone number.

Our GriefShare team will contact you.

The OCIA is the process through which adults and older children who are not baptized become Catholic. Those baptized as Catholics or in another Christian faith but have not received Eucharist (Communion) and Confirmation are also prepared through this process.

Team OCIA

There are many moving parts in OCIA not only discussion topics of the Catholic faith, but dismissals, Breaking Open the Word, rituals, etc. This involves many individuals such as yourself to support and guide those seeking to be full active members of the Catholic Church.

Dismissal Leaders*: Do you love discussing the Sunday Readings? Dismissal leaders are needed to help with Breaking Open the Word. Catechumens are led out after the homily (9:30AM Mass) by a leader to St. Paul room to discuss the readings.

Sponsors/godparents*: Many of our catechumens and candidates need someone to support them on their journey at the OCIA sessions, rituals and Easter Vigil. You may feel a special calling to walk with one of these individuals as they become full members of the Catholic Church.

Support Team*: These are individuals who attend the OCIA sessions and show “support” by their presence and shared experience of the Catholic faith.

*All the above require that individuals be adults fully initiated
(Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation) practicing Catholics.

If you would like to discover more about OCIA, becoming Catholic/completing your sacraments or be a support at our sessions please contact:

PARISH SCHOOL

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK RECAP: THANK YOU FOR CELEBRATING WITH US!

St. Angela Merici Parish School had a blast celebrating Catholic Schools Week. Here's a peek at some of the fun activities held to celebrate our awesome Catholic school!

1-3) We kicked off this special week by hosting Mass and welcoming our families and parishioners to tour our classrooms and see the special projects students have been working on. 4) We celebrated our nation with a patriotic musical performance. 5) Students enjoyed Mass, lunch, and games with their grandparents and other loved ones. 6-7) On student day, our SAM Cougars enjoyed ice cream treats and games with their faith families. 8) Students showed off their musical, vocal, and comedic talents during our annual talent show.

The Mission of St. Angela Merici Parish Catholic School is to proclaim the Gospel, celebrate through worship, build community, serve others and achieve academic excellence through the discovery of each student's gifts and talents.
